THE REVOLT IN RUSSIA.

TERRORISTS BEGIN AN ERA OF ASSASSINATION.

Procurator-General of Finland Murdered in Finnish Capital.

Conference of Revolutionary Parties Held in Berlin, at Which Programme of General Concerted Action is Drawn up—State of Siege Declared at Sosnovice, Poland—Twenty Strikers Killed in Clash With Troops.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Feb. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Soisalon Soininen, Procurator General of Finland, who, before he was ennobled, was known by the name of Johnsson, was assassinated today by a young man whose identity up to the present time has not been determined.

The assassin of Soininen and Soininen's son were both wounded in a duel following the murder.

The motive for the crime apparently was purely political, the slain official being a prominent member of the government party.

The murderer appeared at the Procurator's resident at 11 o'clock and sent in a card in French, bearing the name of Alexander Gadd, who is in the Russian service. The young man, who was smartly dressed in an officer's uniform, was at once admitted to the official's study; and, upon his entrance, fired four shots from a revolver, one of the bullets piercing the breast of the Procurator, who expired almost instantly.

The Procurator's 17-year-old son, hearing the shots, rushed in from an adjoining room and fired three or four shots at his father's assailant, whose right leg was broken below the knee by a bullet. He was also slightly wounded in the shoulder and a finger of his left hand was struck.

The assassin fired one bullet remaining in his revolver at Soininen's son, wounding him slightly in the calf of his right leg. He then endeavored to escape, but fell unconscious to the floor in the anteroom. There he was seized.

Dr. Wasastjerna was called immediately, but found the Procurator beyond need of his services.

The assassin was removed to the surgical hospital, where he lies guarded by police, answering no questions and evidently unconscious. His recovery, however, is thought to be certain. Up to the present, the authorities have been unable to identify him. He is of dark complexion and apparently between 25 and 30 years old.

PRECURSOR OF TERRORISM.

ASSASSINATION AT HELSINGFORS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 7, 1:50 a.m.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The news of the assassination of Soisalon Soininen, Procurator General of Finland, though occurring before noon Monday, was not generally known in St. Petersburg last night, but may be expected to produce a great sensation when it becomes public, as it will be regarded as the precursor of an era of terrorism for which the events of January in St. Petersburg and throughout Russia gave the signal.

Until the identity of the assassin is definitely known, it will be impossible, of course, to establish the motive of the attempt; but the present circumstances in Finland render almost certain that the crime is of a purely political character and of the same nature as the assassination of Count Bobrikoff, the Governor-General of Finland, in June of last year.

The Russification of the province of Finland has been meeting with great opposition and creating much bitterness, especially since the formation of the party of Active Resistance, which is recruiting from the bolder spirits of the original party of Passive Resistance and to which the perpetrator of this latest crime probably belonged.

CONFERENCE AT BERLIN.

At the conference of revolutionary parties of Russia, comprising representatives of the Finnish Active Resistance party, the Polish National League, the Russian Emancipation League, and other revolutionary organizations, in Berlin, last night, a programme for general concerted action was drawn up.

Never before in the history of the empire have events of an anti-governmental nature been in closer connection, as has been shown by the universal spread of the strike movement; and the assassination of Soininen, though principally inspired by the grievances of the Finnish nationalists, undoubtedly was also spurred on by the use of troops against strikers in St. Petersburg and elsewhere.

NO MESSAGES OVER WIRES.

RUSSIA STOPS COMMUNICATION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun's London correspondent says:

"For the first time since the war commenced, the Russian government, Monday, stopped overland telegraphic communication with the Far East. Ship owners who telegraphed to Vladivostok making inquiries concerning steamers had their messages returned marked 'wires under control of Russian government.'

"The lines affected are the Great Northern Company's, by way of Siberia and Manchuria. It is stated no messages for the East have been transmitted by this line from St. Petersburg for several hours.

"One inference is that the strike, which was lately reported to have spread to Irkutsk, Krasnowarsk, Tomsk and elsewhere in Siberia, has become serious.

"Another inference is that some war movement is afoot, necessitating constant communication between Kouropatkin and the government."

RALLY 'ROUND THE CZAR.

PETERSBURG NOBLES ADDRESS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The assembly of nobles of St. Petersburg today adopted an address to Emperor Nicholas congratulating him on the birth of the heir to the throne and assuring him of the confidence of the nation.

The address asserts that the union between the autocratic monarch and his devoted nation is unshaken by recent events at home and abroad and begs His Majesty to permit of representatives of the whole people participating in the discussion and legislation on government measures, and says:

"Sire: We have met in troublous times. Foes are attacking us, their aim being to bring Russia to a shameful peace and bring to naught the system of government which has been sanctioned by centuries. A way out of the difficulties must be found. We realize that every word addressed by Your Majesty in this painful hour is weighted with grave responsibility. We are all witness to Your Majesty's efforts to secure the welfare of Russia. The decree of December 25 revived the hopes of your subjects, who saw therein the true salvation of the Fatherland.

"This is not the first time dark clouds have lowered over Russia; but, despite former efforts to shake the basis of the government, the country became stronger and advanced proudly and puissantly along the path of progress. From union between an autocratic monarch and a devoted nation Russia has ever derived a strength which neither the foreign foe nor trouble at home could exhaust."

STATE OF SIEGE AT SOSNOVICE.

STRIKERS HAVE DYNAMITE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BERLIN, Feb. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The Lokal Anzeiger's correspondent at Kattowitz telegraphs:

"A state of siege has been declared at Sosnovice, Gen. Jedszoynski taking command. The superintendent of police has been dismissed from office. Gatherings of as many as three persons on the streets are forbidden. The military are using their arms at the slightest disobedience to orders. Tearing down placards announcing the state of siege is punished with ten days' imprisonment.

"Serious collisions are expected. The strikers have abundant supplies of dynamite and hand bombs.

"The exodus of Germans by rail is very heavy. Germans arriving at Sosnovice are advised by the authorities to remain at the railway station for safety.

"The procession of strikers at Sosnovice, estimated at 30,000 persons, contained a number of German mining officials whom the strikers had captured and compelled to march in their ranks. The Russian industrial district along the frontier is suffering great financial losses through the strike. It is estimated that $5,000,000 of German capital is employed at Sosnovice."

IMPORTANT EVENTS IMPENDING.

The Tageblatt's Kattowitz correspondent reports that 1500 soldiers have marched into Sosnovice under two generals and that important events are impending.

The Vossische Zeitung's correspondent at Kattowitz says: "Three agitators were arrested at Sosnovice Saturday for distributing revolutionary appeals to the soldiers. One of the men arrested is a German. Thousands of leaflets were seized in their rooms."

Under date of February 5 the Vossische Zeitung's correspondent at Czestchowa sends the following: "The military are taking sharp measures against the populace. Many soldiers and police have already been killed. Some high officers have been arrested for plotting against the government. The people are living in extreme excitement and great fear. Many have fled to foreign countries. There have been a number of dynamite explosions caused by Socialists, but they have failed to do much damage. The schools have been closed."

TWENTY STRIKERS KILLED.

SERIOUS SITUATION AT KALISZ.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WARSAW (Russian Poland) Feb. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Advices from Kalisz say the strike situation is serious. There are continuous conflicts between the military and the strikers. Twenty of the latter have been killed and many strikers and others wounded.

WILLFULLY DAMAGE RAILROAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BATOUM (Caucasia) Feb. 6.—With the exception of one factory, which is partially working, all the factories and oil wells and many warehouses and shops are closed because of the strike. The prices of food stuffs have risen. Patrols manage to maintain order among the crowds in the streets, but all traffic is suspended.

COSSACK AND WORKMAN DEAD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LODZ (Russian Poland) Feb. 6.—A few factories were enabled to partially resume work this morning through the return of some of the employés. The majority of the strikers, however, are still out and attempts are being made to prevent workmen from returning to their employment. Soldiers are guarding the factories and they do not permit malcontents to enter. Several conflicts occurred between Cossacks and strikers at the Geiner factory, where the latter sought to intimidate the men returning to work. A Cossack and a workman were killed and fifteen strikers were wounded.

MEN'S DEMANDS GRANTED.

STREET CAR STRIKE ENDS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TORPEDO MAKERS GET BUSY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 6.—Lessner's torpedo factory resumed work today. The managers dismissed the employés, in obedience to Gov.-Gen. Trepoff's orders and then reengaged them.

KANSAS STRUGGLES WITH OIL TRUST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TOPEKA (Kan.) Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Tomorrow the fight between the oil producers of Kansas and the Standard Oil Company will be settled. The State Senate has made the consideration of the State oil refinery measure a special order for tomorrow night. Friends of the bill say they have won, but they will have a powerful influence to overcome.

A poll of the members of the Legislature tonight shows a clear majority for the bill, but the Standard Oil lobby has never relaxed in its feelings of confidence. Rumors of boodle fill the air. Charges that Senate members have been bribed are made freely. A resolution was introduced in the House calling for an investigation of an alleged attempt at bribery made by the Standard Oil Company. Some lively developments are looked for.

Gov. Hoch and Speaker Stubbs are against the Standard Oil Company, but also oppose the oil refinery plan. They both came out with strong interviews tonight against the refinery scheme, and at the same time condemning the Standard. They say the State cannot afford to become a party to such a socialistic measure, especially when it calls for the expenditure of such a large sum of money. Regulation of freight rates by means of a stringent law on the subject is the best means of defeating the company in Kansas, they say.

RAILROADS OPPOSED.

Great Lines United In Rate Case.

Interstate Commerce Commission, He Says, Should Not Fix Rates.

Pennsylvania and New York Central and Others to Follow Suit.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Globe says representatives of great railway interests—the Vanderbilts, Cassatts, Goulds, Hills, Harrimans, Underwoods and Truesdales—have united in an effort to defeat proposed legislation to control rates by legislation. Yesterday, President Underwood of the Erie mailed to 7000 stock and bond holders of the road a circular letter calling attention to threatened action by Congress, and appealing to them to use their influence with Senators and Representatives to defeat the much-discussed legislation. Here is the letter:

"It is obvious that the owners of railroad securities have a vital interest in the disposition of bills relating to interstate commerce now under consideration by the Committees on Interstate and Foreign Commerce of the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, of which Stephen B. Elkins and William P. Hepburn are the respective chairmen.

"Any law enacted that will prevent cutting rates, unjust discriminations and all other dishonest practices would be beneficial, not only to the general public, but to the railroads as well. It is, however, the opinion of those who have had an opportunity for studying the situation that it would be a serious mistake to have a bill passed authorizing the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix rates for transportation.

"As you are a holder of this company's securities, I feel it my duty to call your attention to the importance of the subject as you may desire to give, if you have not already done so, an expression of your views to the Committee of Congress now considering the matter, and which will doubtless appreciate your views, as well as of all others interested in the welfare of the country."

The Pennsylvania and New York Central are to follow suit at once, and all big trunk lines East and West. The Pennsylvania has more than 30,000 stockholders, many possessing influence in their respective communities. The total list of stock and bond holders of the various lines runs into hundred of thousands. The million men employed by the roads also are to be arrayed, if possible, against rate-fixing action by Congress. Emissaries of the corporations are already at work among the men and they, too, are to be told that their salaries are in danger of reduction.

CLARK'S DAUGHTER WEDS

Mrs. Clark Culver, Worth Millions in Her Own Right, Takes a Prominent Financial Attorney.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Clark Culver, daughter of Senator W. A. Clark of Montana, worth millions in her own right, gave society a big sensation today, when she married Charles Potter Kling, a prominent financial attorney, with offices next to Senator Clark's, at No. 49 Wall street.

The wedding took place at the Senator's apartment in the Navarra, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Stephenson, pastor of the fashionable Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church. Much secrecy surrounded the affair, and since the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kling have refused to be seen. Senator Clark refuses to talk. Only the members of both families in New York were present.

SOLVE MYSTERIOUS BURGLARIES

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—In the arrest of "Birdie" Brookes, alias Spears, a 19-year-old colored girl, the police believe they have solved most of the mysterious burglaries that have taken place in Hyde Park and Woodlawn residences this winter. The method used by the "woman burglar" was to hire out as a washerwoman for a few days until she had the "lay of the land." The night after she left, the house would be rifled of jewelry. In the room where the girl was found was a quantity of stolen goods.

THE GREAT WAR.

OPERATIONS AT STANDSTILL.

Fighting Along the Shakhe Waits on Cold Weather.

Gen. Grippenberg Leaves Headquarters for Home.

Japs Building Railroad from the Yalu to Liao Yang.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Sun's London correspondent says:

"The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Chronicle asserts that Gen. Grippenberg's reverse and the apparent impossibility of gaining a victory over the Japanese have caused the Grand Ducal party to review the situation, with the result that it has decided in favor of peace.

"The announcement that Gen. Kouropatkin might be recalled was really started in order that negotiations to terminate the war might be facilitated.

"The correspondent says he knows that the Russian representative in Paris has been instructed to take whatever steps he deems advisable to secure the good will of Great Britain, with the object of obtaining the most favorable terms from Japan.

"Count Beckendorff, the Russian Ambassador to Great Britain, was in St. Petersburg last week, in connection with the situation. He was similarly instructed."

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 6.—Military operations in Manchuria continue at a standstill. No importance is attached by the War Office to the Japanese movements on the Russian center and left, which are regarded as merely demonstrations.

Gen. Heisman, a war critic, expresses the opinion that the Russians are not likely to surrender the positions captured northeast of Sandepas and that a series of encounters there will probably continue until the weather is favorable for a general advance.

The dock yard authorities at Cronstadt are completing the preparations for active service of the battleship Alexander II, the cruisers Pamyat Asova and Admiral Korniloff and the gunboat Groz-Jastchy, which, with the new battleship Slava, will form the second division of the Third Russian Pacific squadron. These reinforcements are expected to sail at the end of May.

The first division of this squadron will leave Libau in the middle of February, but it is pointed out that Admiral Rojestvensky will be unable to await its arrival because he will have to cross the Indian Ocean before the monsoon season, which begins in March and renders navigation impossible for torpedo boats, small cruisers and coast defense vessels.

Admiral Rojestvensky will probably proceed to the Far East at the end of February.

SITUATION UNCHANGED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

TOKIO, Feb. 7, Noon.—The situation on the Shakhe and Hun rivers is unchanged.

A small force of Russians attacked Sanchiatzu last Sunday, but were repulsed. The Russians shelled various portions of the Japanese center also Sunday.

JAPS FEVERISHLY FORTIFY.
SEEM TO FEAR SLAV OFFENSIVE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

RUSSIAN HEADQUARTERS, HUAN MOUNTAIN, Feb. 6.—[By Asiatic Cable.] The Japanese are feverishly fortifying their east flank and center, evidently apprehending a Russian offensive movement, the Russian movement on the Hun River having demonstrated the possibility of operations, despite the winter.

The Japanese are attempting vainly to roll up the Russian right wing northwest of Sandepas.

KOUROPATKIN MAKES REPORT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Telegraphing under date of February 5, Gen. Kouropatkin reports:

"A Russian detachment marched to Santaitse, twelve miles southwest of Sibonbay. The Japanese at Santaitse and Saodameng were repulsed. The Russian losses were insignificant.

"The Japanese assumed the offensive along the line to Chuanchuantse today. Several of their batteries advanced, but the Russian artillery repulsed them."

GRIPPINBERG STARTS HOME.
LATEST PETERSBURG VERSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

RUSSIAN HEADQUARTERS, Huan Mountain, Sunday, Feb. 5.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Gen. Grippenberg, former commander of the Second Manchurian Army, left here today for St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 6.—The version of the departure of Gen. Grippenberg, now given in the best informed official circles is that the general left the front because he exceeded Gen. Kouropatkin's orders to pushing beyond Sandepas and needlessly sacrificing thousands of men. This led Kouropatkin to demand Grippenberg's recall.

JAPS BUILDING RAILROAD.
FROM YALU RIVER TO LIAO YANG.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAC.ATUN (Manchuria,) Sunday Feb. 5.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Chinese arrivals here report that the only Japanese force at Liao Yang is composed of 200 gendarmes and police, though 5000 troops are quartered in nearby villages. The higher officers live at the railroad station, where a large commissariat and ammunition depot has been established. Huge quantities of rice, fish, sugar, etc., are stored there.

The railroad from Port Arthur to Liao Yang is intact. Ten trains of forty wagons each are running both ways daily. The second railroad, which the Japanese are constructing from the Yalu River to Liao Yang, is not completed. Meanwhile, the Japanese have built a narrow-gauge road for horse traction.

KUROKI GIVES LUNCHEON.
GEN. HAMILTON GUEST OF HONOR.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GEN. KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS, Feb. 6, via Fusan.—[By Asiatic Cable.] Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton of the British army, who has been observing operations at the front and who has been recalled to take command of the southern military district of England, left for Japan today. On his way home, he will stop in India to confer with Gen. Lord Kitchener, commander of the forces there.

Gen. Kuroki and the members of his staff gave a luncheon to Gen. Hamilton, which was attended by all the military attachés with the right army. Gen. Kuroki made a cordial speech, expressing his pleasure that Gen. Hamilton had been with the army almost since the beginning of the campaign and his regret that he could not remain until the end.

Gen. Hamilton, in responding, praised Gen. Kuroki's army, which, he said, had accomplished the most difficult work of any of the armies on the northern campaign. He remarked that Gen. Kuroki was so modest he had not appreciated what fame he had attained abroad. He assured him that he would be warmly welcomed if he visited the capitals of Europe and the United States.

DIPLOMATS KEPT GUESSING.
CALLS SEEM SIGNIFICANT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Because Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador, in response to an invitation from the President, accompanied Mr. Spring-Rice, First Secretary of the British Embassy at St. Petersburg, went to the White House last night for an informal chat, the Diplomatic Corps was agog today over the supposed significance of the conference.

An early caller at the State Department today was Mr. Takahira, the Japanese Minister, who spent some time with Secretary Hay. The hesitancy with which the Minister replied to the question as to whether peace proposals were in the air, contributed to surmises already afloat that this government is contemplating a step toward intervention.

Later in the day, Count Cassini, the Russian Abassador, called. The Ambassador received the most positive and categorical assurances that the conference at the White House was without political significance. Sir Mortimer Durand called after Count Cassini and saw Secretary Hay for the first time in several days.

It can be stated very positively that, however, wide the range of conversation last night—and it naturally did include the situation in Russia—the object of the visit was entirely without political purpose.

RUSSIANS MALTREAT PRUSSIANS.
SIEZE THEM AS DESERTERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Times' Berlin cablegram says that Russians continue to maltreat Prussian subjects is shown by two cases just reported. A workman in Posen was engaged to a girl born in Russian Poland, and it was decided that the couple should be married in the bride's native village, Sompolno. When they arrived there, the husband-to-be was seized by Cossacks as a deserter, despite the fact that he showed his papers as a German citizens, and after being clubbed and bound he was sent with a batch of reservists to Manchuria.

In another case, three Germans who crossed the border to attend the wedding of Russian relatives were also arrested as deserters and sent to the war.

WARSAW, Feb. 6.—The town is quiet. The workmen of the large factories and bakeries are still on strike, the masters refusing to concede their demands. Soldiers are still operating the gas works.

WORKMEN TO PETITION CZAR.
TO RECEIVE OWN DELEGATION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 7.—[By Atlantic Cable.] The workmen here have decided to petition the Emperor to receive a deputation chosen by themselves on the ground that the deputation recently received by him at Tsarskoe-Selo was chosen by the masters and was in no sense representative of the workmen.

Nothing is known here of the reported charging of Cossacks upon rioting women at Rostoff-on-Don.

Mme. Kuga, the opera singer, who, alluding to the events of January 22, congratulated the military on Russia's first victory, has been expelled from Russia.

NEW YORK FULL OF MELTED SNOW.

Hail, Sheet Lightning, Snow, Ice, Water and Slush Make Life Miserable for the Populace—Weather in Other Sections.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With streets filled with slush from an inch to a foot deep and a treacherous coating of ice under foot, with heavy mist, New York passed through one of the most miserable days it ever experienced. At midnight last night it was snowing, with a heavy blizzard threatening. At 2 o'clock a.m. it began to hail, with sheet lightning playing all around the horizon. By daylight the temperature had gone up to 32 and the hail turned to rain, with sidewalks ice coated half an inch thick.

The snow held the moisture in the streets for a while, then the thaw melted the accumulation so fast that hundreds of cellars were flooded, causing heavy losses in the downtown districts. There was hardly an office building in town that did not hold from two to five inches of water tonight. The City Hall got the very worst of the flood, and a good part of the city records for some hours were afloat. The ancient building is a wreck. No less than forty-eight streams of water were coming down through the ceiling into the Governor's room.

The greatest snowfall ever recorded in New York was in 1888-1889, when 58.3 inches fell. That this year will beat this mark badly is certain, for with two months of winter yet to come, the fall is only six inches behind.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The Weather Bureau announced today that the outlook is for continued cold weather over a large part of the United States. Zero weather extends as far south as Oklahoma, and the Dakotas report 20 to 30 deg. below zero this morning. The coldest point shown by the official reports is Valentine, Neb., where it registered 32 below.

The snow and sleet storm, which centered yesterday morning in the lower Mississippi Valley States has traveled rapidly northeastward and is now off the New England coast and the maritime provinces, passing out to sea. An unusually heavy precipitation of rain has occurred throughout New Mexico, Arizona and Southern California for some days. While the cold snap continues undiminished in the northwest and the Missouri Valley, there are signs of moderation in Assiniboia. The weather has cleared here, but continues cold.

NORTHEASTERN NEW YORK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

GLENS FALLS (N. Y.) Feb. 6.—Northeastern New York is snowbound. Fifteen inches of snow has fallen, and the storm still continues.

CONNECTICUT LOCKED UP.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) Feb. 6.—Every port on the Connecticut shore, from the mouth of the Connecticut at Saybrook to the western end of Long Island Sound, is securely ice locked today. All water traffic out of New Haven and Bridgeport Harbor is at a standstill, and oyster fishing is impossible.

LIGHTSHIP'S PERIL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEWPORT (R. I.) Feb. 6.—The Nantucket shoals lightship, which became imprisoned in the ice off Misbaum Point, Buzzards Bay, late last night, is in a dangerous position. A wireless message was rceived at the torpedo station here today from the lightship asking that help be sent her. The United States gunboat Hist and the lightship Acalea were immediately ordered to go to the assistance of the imprisoned vessel. It is understood that the danger to the lightship is mainly due to the direction of the wind, which is driving it inshore.

CHICAGO'S NEW WAVE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Another cold wave is scheduled to follow in the wake of a snowstorm which has prevailed here for thirty hours. The snowfall has seriously interfered with transportation, both on steam and street railways.

SERVICE BADLY CRIPPLED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—A severe rain, snow and sleet storm prevailed today in this city and vicinity, and train and trolley service is badly crippled.

RAINS IN ARIZONA.
MORE WATER AT PHOENIX.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Feb. 6.—The Maricopa and Phoenix railroad bridge over the Gila River, previously damaged by loss of cribbing, was reported, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, to have lost ten additional bents. Later it was reported that still more were gone. No trains have gone out since Friday. The officials have hopes of transfer by boat tomorrow, but this appears very doubtful. The Western Union was out of wires since Sunday noon, but is tonight connected with a telephone wire to Tucson, over which business is being done.

The Santa Fé train due here early Saturday morning arrived at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Fifteen minutes after it rounded the curve adjacent to the Territorial Capitol building coming into town, the flood waters of Cave Creek for the third time swept across the desert northwest of the city, entered the suburbs, flowing between the Capitol and the railroad track, washing out later at the point of the curve, and passed on to the lowlands along Salt River. The flood is not quite so large as the last one.

Water reached the Capitol building on the west side, but not the front. Last night, three-fourths of an inch of rain fell here. Just before sundown there was another downpour. The indications suggest rain all day on Cave Creek watershed, making probable another rise tonight or tomorrow. The Santa Fé hopes to get a train out tomorrow, the first since Friday.

NEW ENGLAND'S COAST.
SMALL PORTS CLOSED TIGHT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOSTON, Feb. 6.—Nearly all of the smaller ports in the New England coast between Passamaquoddy and Narragansett bays were closed tonight tightly with ice, while the larger harbors, including Boston, Portsmouth, Portland and Providence, were filled with huge floating cakes that impeded and endangered navigation.

The southeast storm and rising temperature that prevailed during the day caused a temporary lifting of the ice embargo at a few of the blockaded ports, but tonight the wind changed to the northwest, a cold wave approached, and it was expected that tomorrow would bring about conditions even worse than those which have existed for the past three days.

CASSIE'S CREDITORS.

They Will Realize Not More Than Two Per Cent. on Their Claims, Which Total $2,000,000.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CLEVELAND, Feb. 6.—Receiver Loesser filed a list today of the creditors of Mrs. Chadwick, together with the amount due each, so far as known, in the United States bankruptcy court. While it is understood, unofficially, that Mrs. Chadwick's debts will aggregate close to $2,000,000, the claims thus far presented to the receiver foot up a total of only $63,310. The list, as filed today, shows that the sums due the big creditors are not known.

The valuation of Mrs. Chadwick's estate was not given, but it is generally believed that, all told, the property is not worth to exceed $50,000. On this basis, Mrs. Chadwick's creditors will receive, after the court costs are deducted, not more than 2 per cent. on their claims.

At Bedford, Ind., Justice McLachlin yesterday rendered his decision in the preliminary hearing of Frank Schaeffer. Evans was released and Browning was held to the grand jury, which will meet February 20.

REMAINS OF GARIBALDI.

The Italian Liberator's Son Demands That They be Cremated.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.]

ROME, Feb. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Ricciotti Garibaldi, the last surviving son of the Italian liberator, has addressed a petition to Parliament to settle the question of the final disposition of his father's remains.

It was the dying wish of Gen. Garibaldi that his body should be cremated and the ashes dispersed; but the government authorities stepped in and forbade it, although his son would have carried out his wishes. Ricciotti Garibaldi in his petition says he feels that his last days are near, and so asks that the chambers shall settle the question once and forever, and demands that respect be shown for his father's desires.

Court Gets Coin Paid in by Chinese Gamblers.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Substantial evidence of police corruption was shown today by the grand jury when the foreman of that body deposited $1350 in gold coin on the desk of Presiding Judge Lawlor of the Superior Court. In a partial report of the work of the police committee of the grand jury, which was accepted and presented to the court by the main body, it was stated that the sum mentioned had been turned over by Police Sergeant Ellis, who, it was alleged, had received it from Chan Cheung, a Chinese now under indictment, as a bribe to guarantee Chinese gamblers against arrest. It was further stated that the sergeant in charge of the officers detailed to the Chinese quarter was regularly paid from $250 to $300 a month for .his purpose, while the members of his squad got from $30 to $40 a month each.

Sergeant Ellis, it is said in the grand jury's report, was instructed, when he relieved Sergt. Christenson, formerly in charge of the Chinese quarter, to go at certain times to No. 2 St. Louis alley, take all the money a Chinese there would give him, and ask no questions.

The report of the grand jury says that the bribe money was paid to the police in St. Louis alley every Saturday between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock, and that the officers had arranged so that no two would call at the same time. It was also agreed that in case this should happen the first caller should step out of sight of the second.

The report continues: "Upon receiving the information of money having been paid to Sergt. Ellis, your committee went to the house of said Ellis, where we were informed that said money was kept, and secured the sum of $1350 in gold coin; said amount being contained in fourteen packages, and consisting of $100 in $20 gold pieces, $150 in $10 gold pieces, and the balance in eleven packages of $5 pieces. This money, since it was secured, has been in the custody of the foreman of the grand jury, and deposited in a safe deposit vault. Your committee hereby requests that it now be delivered to CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago "landlubbers" battled with the snow today, while on the lake an even fierce contest with the ice was going on. The snowstorm, which ended abruptly shortly after noon, left a deposit of more than six inches, clogging streets and delaying traffic and traction lines. At the water cribs, a strenuous fight was made against ice to protect the intakes. Another battle was fought by the tug Morford, which succeeded in releasing the steamer Iowa, fast in the ice since Sunday morning. Temperatures ranged from 15 to 20 degs. This money, since it was secured, has been in the custody of the foreman of the grand jury, and deposited in a safe deposit vault. Your committee hereby requests that it now be delivered to the presiding judge of the Superior Court in and for this city and county."

TURNED OVER TO COURT.

At this point the money was turned over to the court.

The report continues: "The evidence tends to show that all of said money, together with the money paid to the patrolmen connected with the Chinatown squad, was received from Chan Cheung, now under indictment upon a charge of murder.

"It is apparent from the testimony taken before this committee that said money was distributed for the purpose of protecting gambling in Chinatown.

"We also find that when raids were arranged by others than the said Chan Cheung, as soon as instructions were given to the squad to that effect, Chinese were at once notified as to the time of the raid so that they would be amply prepared for the same.

"The names of the members of the Chinatown squad under Sergt. Ellis were William Doran, Charles E. Munn, Henry Heinz, Richard O'Brien and Henry T. McGrath.

"And that the members of Sergt Christianson's squad were J. L. Farrell, J. A. Hayes, A. M. Smith, E. J. Rottanzi and R. M. Clancy."

In conclusion, the grand jury regrets that its request for further time for investigation, made a few days ago, was not granted, as it was thereby prevented from presenting evidence that would convict the guilty parties in a court of law.

At the meeting of the Board of police commissioners tonight Sergeant Ellis was placed on trial on the charge of permitting gambling to flourish in Chinatown. It was expected that some sensational testimony would be given in connection with alleged bribery of police officials but none developed.

TWO WITNESSES TESTIFY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

AUBURN, Feb. 6.—The trial of Adolph Weber for the murder of his mother began in the Superior Court this afternoon. Atty.-Gen. Webb made the opening statement.

County Surveyor Warner, the first witness, exhibited maps and blue prints of the Weber residence and surroundings, after which the jury went to view the Weber premises.

John Davis, a contractor who built the Weber house, testified to the position of the rooms and stairs to the upper story.

Drs. Rooney and Todd, who made the autopsies on the bodies after they were rescued from the flames, will be put on the stand tomorrow.

JACK LONDON FOR MAYOR.

OAKLAND SOCIALISTS NOMINATE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Jack London, author of "The Sea Wolf" and "The Call of the Wild," has been nominated for Mayor of Oakland by the Socialist convention. This is a reward for much missionary work done by the famous novelist on the lecture platform. London is a pronounced Socialist, and he never refuses an invitation to discuss the principles of the party.

London has made a careful study of all authorities, and he has also made a practical study of the conditions of the laboring people and the poor of New York and London. The Socialists are strong in Oakland, but there is no chance of their overcoming the enormous Republican majority which the city has given for years at the polls.

DIES OF EXPOSURE.

RICH LUMBER MAN'S FATE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

VANCOUVER (B. C.) Feb. 6.—John McLaren, residing here, and a member of a well-known millionaire lumber firm at Ottawa, is dead of exposure as a result of a mishap which befell him while hunting.

With two friends, McLaren started out duck shooting from Barnet, B. C., in a canvas canoe. While making a change, McLaren lost his balance and fell in the water. In an endeavor to help him into the canoe the craft became filled with water. McLaren was the best swimmer and helped his companions upon a floating log, while he undertook to swim ashore. He reached shore in an exhausted condition, and his death followed several hours later. His companions were rescued.

TO BLOW UP HOTEL.

FIENDISH SCHEME AT FRESNO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A fiendish scheme to blow up and burn the Grunagle Hotel at Raymond was discovered last night, just as the flames that had been set going were about to touch hidden gunpowder. George Hansen, night watchman, was the first to see the flames issuing from beneath the hotel porch. He dragged the blazing box out and scattered the contents on the ground. The box had been filled with excelsior, saturated with coal oil. A quantity of powder was discovered under the porch.

A shepherd named Louis Gajoux, generally called "Pete," is suspected of having started the fire. He had been thrown out of the hotel for disorderly conduct.

WRIT OF REVIEW.

GRANTED IN CONTEMPT CASE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The testimony in the proceedings for contempt before the Superior Court of Los Angeles county against Gen. H. G. Otis and Harry Chandler of the Times-Mirror Company for publishing certain articles relating to the grand jury of that county will be reviewed by the Supreme Court, Gen. Otis and Chandler having received from the court today a writ of review.

The Supreme Court assigned the case for hearing in the southern city in April. Other proceedings in the matter are ordered stayed pending the settlement of the one at bar.

SLOPE BRIEFS.

Coal Robbers Loot House.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Burglars have entered the residence of Henry Meyers, No. 2531 Lombard street, and looted it, despite the fact that Mrs. Meyers was in the house and within a few feet of where the burglars were at work. Detectives are at work on the case.

Cars Kill Unknown Woman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—An unknown woman met her death by falling under the wheels of an electric car on San Francisco street last night. She did not recover consciousness after the accident, and there was nothing about her by which she could be identified.

Ship Dakota Nearing Completion.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—J. D. Farrell of Seattle, president of James J. Hill's Great Northern Steamship Company, who is here on a visit with his family, says that the new steamer, the Dakota, sister ship of the Minnesota, is nearing completion at New London, Ct. She will probably be brought to this Coast in July.

Investigation Ends This Week.

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 6.—The Federal grand jury which is investigating the charges of fraud in connection with government lands will conclude its labors this week, as the presence of United States District Attorney F. J. Heney is required in Washington to argue a motion for habeas corpus in the Hyde-Benson case before the Supreme Court of the United States, February 20.

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago "landlubbers" battled with the snow today, while on the lake an even fierce contest with the ice was going on. The snowstorm, which ended abruptly shortly after noon, left a deposit of more than six inches, clogging streets and delaying traffic and traction lines. At the water cribs, a strenuous fight was made against ice to protect the intakes. Another battle was fought by the tug Morford, which succeeded in releasing the steamer Iowa, fast in the ice since Sunday morning. Temperatures ranged from 15 to 30 degs. I have been treated by Dr. Schiffman for years. I have tried all his different methods, and can say unhesitatingly no dentist or physician has ever operated with such success or skill. Ten years ago a reputable dentist of Virginia told me that a certain molar tooth could not be satisfactorily saved, and that it would probably not be of service for one year. DEMOCRATS STANDING IN.

Private Car Lines Attacked. Statehood Debate.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Following weeks of hearings and consideration by the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, as well as urgent recommendations by the President on the subject, the House today began debating the proposed legislation looking to the control of freight rates. This action was taken only after determined opposition by Democratic members, led by John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, the minority leader, to the adoption of a rule which would shut out opportunity to amend the bill. Two Republicans—Messrs. Southwick and Vreeland of New York—voted against the rule, and one Democrat, Mr. Gaines of Tennessee, voted for it. Otherwise party lines were tightly drawn.

Criticising the Committee on Rules for shutting off all opportunity for amendment, Mr. Williams contended that if that opportunity were given, the Democrats had with them a sufficient number of Republicans to pass a bill embodying the views of the President. He offered to surrender all the time allotted to his side for debate, as well as to forego a vote on the minority substitute, if amendments would be allowed to be offered, but the appeal was refused by the majority. Mr. De Armond of Missouri charged that the right to amend had been denied "in the narrowness of shallow partisanship."

The fairness of the rule to all members was declared by Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania to be apparent, since it afforded full opportunity to vote on both bills offered by the two parties. The rule was also defended by Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio.

Messrs. Townsend of Minnesota, one of the authors of the bill under consideration, and Mr. Richardson of Alabama occupied the remainder of the day in discussing it, but sounded a note of warning to the railroads that, unless they joined hands with Congress in the matter, the people would demand more drastic legislation.

Before taking up the question of freight rates, the House adopted the replication of the committee of seven managers to the reply of Judge Swayne to the impeachment charges, in which it was reiterated that Judge Swayne was guilty of the crimes alleged against him.

The long-drawn-out general debate on the bill creating two States out of the Territories of Oklahoma and Indian Territory and New Mexico and Arizona was concluded today with a speech by Mr. Beveridge of Indiana which consumed the greater part of the day's session. He reviewed the principal arguments in opposition to the bill, giving especial attention to the proposition to unite Arizona and New Mexico. He spoke for almost three hours, and closed amid a cordial burst of applause from the galleries.

Previous to Mr. Beveridge's speech, Mr. Foraker spoke in support of his amendment to eliminate Arizona and New Mexico from the proposition. The only other important business of the day was the receipt through the House managers of the House's replication to Judge Swayne's answer in the impeachment trial.

RAILROAD RATE BILL.

VOTE FORTHCOMING THURSDAY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Acting under instructions of the Republican caucus, the House Committee on Rules today agreed on a rule to govern the consideration of the Railroad Rate Bill in the House. The rule decides for general debate, beginning immediately after the adoption of the resolution, and at 11 o'clock Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the vote to be taken at 3 o'clock the latter day. The joint session of the two houses to count the electoral vote Wednesday is to come out of this time.

It was agreed by the caucus to have the vote Wednesday, but owing to the count of the electoral vote, an extra day was allowed for debate.

The time of the debate is to be equally divided between the two sides and controlled by Mr. Hepburn of Iowa and Mr. Davey of Louisiana. During the consideration of the bill, the House will meet at 11 o'clock.

THE CONGRESS.

CLOSING SESSION.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—SENATE—When the Senate convened today, Mr. Stone presented a memorial from the Missouri Legislature for the enactment into law of the President's recommendation for the enlargement of the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Spooner presented a memorial from the Wisconsin Legislature praying for a revision of the tariff laws.

The Joint Statehood Bill was then laid before the Senate, and Mr. Foraker spoke in favor of striking out that portion of the bill relating to Arizona and New Mexico. His opposition to the bill was based on the consolidation of Arizona and New Mexico into one State. While he did not indorse all the details of the provision for the union of Oklahoma and Indian Territory, he was willing to accept it.

THOSE PEOPLE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Referring to the character of the people of Arizona and New Mexico, Mr. Foraker said that possibly some are not as good as they should be, but he contended that they are not alone as a community in that respect.

Mr. Hansbrough read a letter from H. A. Burson, chairman of the Republican committee of New Mexico, asking joint Statehood.

At 2 o'clock the Senate convened as a court to receive the replication of the House of Representatives to Judge Swayne's answer in the impeachment proceedings against him. This was presented by the House managers, who were present to meet here with Counsels Thurston and Higgins on behalf of Judge Swayne. The ceremony consumed ten minutes' time. At its conclusion, the court adjourned until Friday, the 10th, and when the legislative session was resumed, Mr. Beveridge took the floor to make the closing speech in the long debate on the Statehood Bill.

He advocated the passage of the bill as reported by the Committee on Territories which provides for the creation of two States out of the four remaining Territories. Mr. Beveridge based his advocacy of the bill upon the theory that Congress has absolute control of the creation of new States, and, in elaborating, he said the interests of the nation as a whole were paramount to the wishes of the people of the Territories. He declared that the Constitution gave Congress power to impose any condition in such legislation, and quoted many precedents to show that the tendency was toward large areas and extensive population in forming new States, which, he said, must be the case in order to do justice to sister States.

He contended that Arizona and New Mexico were similar in topography and other circumstances, and not naturally separated by a mountain range, as has been claimed by some of the opponents of the bill.

Mr. Beveridge contended that the creation of Arizona Territory had not involved any contract to maintain the boundary thus established, and his argument on this point caused an interruption by Mr. Alger, who said that people who settled in Arizona had gone there on a practical contract with the national government.

"If," he said, "the United States is not going to keep its agreement, what are we here for?"

Mr. Beveridge replied that there was no more reason why a perpetual pledge should have been given to the people of Arizona than to those of any other Territory. He said that the principal reason for the original creation of the Territory of Arizona in 1863 was to supply offices for defeated Congressmen.

Mr. Beveridge asked Mr. Alger how many of the Arizona people had ever read the so-called pledge of perpetual autonomy to that Territory, and Mr. Alger replied by asking how many of the New Mexican people had read it.

"Why," responded Mr. Beveridge, "I know all that the Senator knows about it, and I know that not one of a hundred thousand ever read it, or know anything about it."

"No doubt," replied Mr. Alger, "the Senator knows all that I do, and more, but I know that when I was in Arizona, I heard a number of men refer to the pledge in a way showing perfect familiarity with it."

He added that he had become the owner of considerable property in Arizona, which he would sell in a minute, if the present bill should become a law. Mr. Beveridge closed with an appeal on behalf of his committee for the passage of the bill.

The Senate adjourned at 5:23 o'clock p.m.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—HOUSE—The House today again had before it the Swayne impeachment case. Mr. Palmer of Pennsylvania presented the replication of the managers of the House to the answer of the judge. The replication reiterates that Judge Swayne "is guilty of the high crimes and misdemeanors mentioned in said articles, and that the House of Representatives is ready to prove the same."

Without comment of any kind the replication was adopted. Authority was given the managers to file with the secretary of the Senate any of the subsequent pleadings they shall deem necessary. Unanimous consent was given, making the bill to provide for the government of the Panama Canal zone, etc., a continuing order of the House, to be called up at any time. The bill, among other things, abolishes the Panama Canal Commission, and puts the management of canal affairs in the hands of the President.

Mr. Dalzell of Pennsylvania then presented a resolution from the Committee on Rules providing that immediately upon its adoption the House, in committee of the the whole, shall take up and consider the bill for the regulation of freight rates and continue to discuss until Thursday at 3 o'clock, when a vote shall be taken.

On division, the previous question was ordered by a margin of seven votes, the vote standing 162 to 155.

Mr. Williams of Mississippi demanded the yeas and nays, and the roll was called.

The previous question was ordered—171 to 148. The Democrats, with the exception of Mr. Gaines of Tennessee, voted solidly against the motion, while Mr. Southwick of New York was the only Republican voting with the Democrats.

Mr. Dalzell briefly explained the resolution, being followed by Mr. Williams, the minority leader, who said that every man voting for the previous question knew that it would have the effect of preventing any amendment to the resolution.

Mr. De Armond of Missouri attacked the resolution "as wholly unnecessary, narrow and partisan," because it did not permit amendments and because the majority party had determined for the minority what bill should be voted upon as a substitute. The right of the minority to name its own substitute, he declared, had been denied, "in narrowness, and in the narrowness of shallow partisanship." Most men, he said, believed the bill would be strangled in the Senate.

There was a spirited debate on a bill to ratify an agreement with the Indians of the Shoshone, or Wind River Reservation in Wyoming. Opposition came principally from Messrs. Fitzgerald of New York and McMoran of Michigan, and was based on an alleged special preference to be granted to some one to select 640 acres of valuable mineral and oil lands of said reservation. Messrs. Mondell of Wyoming, Lacey of Iowa and Hitchcock of Nebraska supported the measure, the former becoming engaged in a heated colloquy with Mr. McMoran, who charged that it was proposed to rob the Indians.

Mr. Mondell moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill, but the bill failed to receive the necessary two-thirds vote, and was lost.

FAIR TO THE MINORITY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The rule was characterized by Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio as fair to the minority, because the Democrats in caucus had determined to vote for their bill as an amendment to the Republican bill at the proper time. He said that six months from now they would "be swearing that this was their measure."

Denouncing the ruling, Mr. Williams declared that the object of the Democratic caucus had to be accomplished. That object, he said, was to let the President of the United States and the minority members of the majority party know that there would be no mere partisan and factional opposition to a great public measure. The rule, he said, amid Democratic applause, had been brought in for the purpose of preventing a majority of the entire House, composed of the Democrats solidly and a number of Republicans formulating a bill which would accomplish the purpose sought.

The three amendments Mr. Williams demanded were, he said, to give the commission a power to substitute a rate for one declared off; to make that rate operative until laid aside by final judgment of a court, and to base an appeal or review to a court upon evidence adduced before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The debate was brought to a close by Mr. Dalzell, who said, amid Republican laughter, that a Democratic caucus was an exceedingly unnecessary thing, when it sought to give aid to the President and the Republican party.

On a roll call the rule was adopted, 165 to 140. Messrs. Southwick and Vreeland of New York, Republicans, voted against the resolution and Gaines of Tennessee, Democrat, voted for it. Immediately the House went into committee of the whole to consider the Townsend-Esch bill, with Mr. Currier of New Hampshire in the chair.

Mr. Townsend of Michigan, one of the authors of the measure, began the debate. In reply to Mr. Richardson of Alabama, he said positively that the bill, in connection with the so-called Elkins act, would reach the private car lines.

Mr. Richardson of Alabama said the demand for legislation to regulate freight rates had come in such an earnest way that Congress could not for a moment disregard it, but he counseled against engaging in hasty or hostile legislation. He was particularly antagonistic to a special court to pass on rates, maintaining that it was a departure from the judicial system of the government.

The Rivers and Harbors Appropriation Bill was reported, and at 5:20 o'clock p.m. the house adjourned.

JOBBER FERGUSON'S EVIDENCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Hearings before the Interstate Commerce Committee of the Senate on the subject of private car lines were resumed today, E. M. Ferguson of Duluth, Minn., representing a number of jobbing associations, continuing his statement.

Ferguson said that in order to get around the requirement to publish rates, the Santa Fé operates about five thousand cars under a separate system or corporation distinct from the railroad corporation. During the hearings, Ferguson has referred repeatedly to the Pere Marquette Railroad, and Senator Newlands asked why reference to that road was so frequent.

"Because we have been able to get hold of a contract between that line and the Armour Car Company, and it is of that contract I am speaking," said Ferguson. He concluded with a demand for the extermination of the private car line companies. He said he believed the majority of railroads will favor such elimination.

PRESIDENT REICHMAN HEARD.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Opposition to Federal control of private car lines was presented today before the subcommittee of the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce by President Reichman of Street's Western Stable Car Lines. He detailed the operations of his company to support the contention that it was not engaged in interstate commerce. The company is capitalized at $7,000,000. It pays 6-per-cent. dividends on $700,000 of preferred stock, and last year an additional dividend of 2 per cent. on the remaining common stock of the capitalization.

River and Harbor Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The River and Harbor Bill has been practically completed. Under the head of new legislation there is a provision which strengthens the authority of the engineering department in preventing the dumping of refuse and other material in harbors and navigable channels. Provisions for more than one hundred surveys are contained in the bill.

Railroads in Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The President signed the bill authorizing railroad construction in the Philippines and conferring upon the Philippine government the authority to guarantee bonds to the extent of 4 per cent. of $30,000,000.

LOS ANGELES RIVER.

A BARCAROLLE FOR PIANO.

(Agitato.)
O mad Los Angeles,
Torrential rage!
Today thou hast the middle

(Accelerando.)
From Hollywood, Garvanza,
And the beach,
Come clamorous throngs,
Thy watery strand to reach.

(Tranquillo.)
And even the optimist fisher
With his pole
Sets stake for fortune
On thy dimpling shoal.

(Largo Cantabile.)
The diapason
Of the distant hills
Through all thy singing water
Beats and thrills.

(Marcato—Brillante.)
All octaves, high and low,
Assail the ear,
In rhythm repeated,
Accent bold and clear;

(Staccatiss.)
Above the ground tone
Lighter harmonies
Run faint arpeggios
To the highest keys.

(Allegro.)
Brown with the tithes of earth
Thou brought'st away
From high, impoverished
Battlements of clay;

(Vivace.)
Tossing along
With many a foamy crest,
Like herds of water horses
Eager pressed,

(Forte.)
And shaking wide their manes
As on they race,
Full spirited,
And eager in their pace.

(Moderato con Moto.)
The river has a reason
For a bridge—
There's water in it!
Over rock and ridge

(Delicatissimo.)
A palpable,
Authenticated stream,
With many a gurgle,
Many a shining gleam.

(Piano.)
Lo—the astonished watchers
On the shore,
To see real water
Where was none before.

(Grandioso.)
One day of glory—
"Better far one day
Of Europe than a cycle
Of Cathay.

(Maestoso.)
Now canst thou fling thy gauntlet,
Hot with wrong,
To him who laughed
Because thy bridge is strong,

(Crescendo.)
Jeer unto jeer,
Now mock the tribe that said:
"A river! say the official River bed."

(Allegro con brio.)
"A river that a housewife's broom Could mop!"
"If river be't,
The bottom's on the top!"

(Adagio.)
And even though the suicide
Won't drown,
Withal thou flowest,
And thou flowest down.

(Molto express. Finale presto.)
To all and sundry
Who have erst complained:
Los Angeles is running!
'Cause it rained.

SALT LAKE ROAD'S NEVADA STAGE LINES.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It was announced here today that the management of the Salt Lake Route is preparing to connect with Bull Frog, Kawich, Goldfield and Tonopah, the new mining camps of Nevada, by stage. The traffic department of the road has had the matter under consideration for some time, and has just arrived at the conclusion indicated. E. W. Giliette, general freight and passenger agent of the road, has just returned from a trip over the section in which these camps are located. He was accompanied by J. L. Moore, and the result is that the management has decided to start a stage line into the various districts which are now attracting so much public attention on account of the unusual gold values that are being discovered in them.

While there are points on the railroad closer to these camps than Las Vegas, yet this town has been chosen as the most desirable on the system from which to start the line. Stages of the most modern type on the old Concord lines are to be placed on the route, and will make daily trips from Las Vegas to the Kawich Range and to the Bull Frog, from which Tonopah and Goldfield will also be reached. Immediately after the placing of the passenger conveyances, and associated with them, will be a freight outfit designed to carry fast freight overland. The purpose in establishing Las Vegas as the junction point is explained by the fact that water conditions are much better there. Besides, Las Vegas is a splendid outfitting station. The official announcement of the establishment of this line will be made before the end of the week.

The first consignment of passenger engines for the Salt Lake Route arrived here today. In all there are nineteen. Of this number, ten are for this end of the line and nine are for Los Angeles, the latter being com-

PROSPERITY SALE

Reputation and Prosperity

Our immense business this last year leaped by jerks and bounds until it exceeded our most sanguine expectations. We prospered—due to the general good times and our individual business methods. More people realize every season that we sell shoes for man, woman and child that can be obtained for much less than others ask for an inferior make. In order to do this we are compelled to buy in large quantities and place big advance orders.

Our summer goods are already shipped and we must make room for them. To do it we have cut every price in the store without regard to profit or cost. The figures we have made are intended to clean out every heavy and medium weight shoe in the store in two week's time.

We earnestly request our old customers and patrons to come to our Prosperity Sale as early as possible, as we are desirous that they should get the benefit of our regular qualities at these unusual prices.

pound off burners. A large number of local railroad men have inspected the new locomotives, and pronounced them to be the greatest and best of the kind ever seen here. Without doubt they are the most speedy and most powerful passenger engines ever brought to this State. Their drivers are seventy-seven inches in diameter. Their cylinders are 23x28. Each engine weighs 140,000 pounds on its drivers, or 222,000 total weight. Add to this the weight of the tender, which, when empty, tips the beam at 46,000 pounds, and some idea of the size of these locomotives may be obtained.

ATLANTIC PORTS INTERESTED.

CONFERENCE OVER RATES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Commercial organizations of the Atlantic ports, as well as of the primary grain centers, whose natural outlet for export grain has heretofore been considered the Atlantic ports, will hold a conference over the railroad-rate situation in the rooms of the New York Produce Exchange next Thursday. Invitations have been sent to and accepted by most of the following organizations: Chamber of Commerce, New York; Produce Exchange, New York; Board of Trade, Chicago; Chamber of Commerce, Milwaukee; Produce Exchange, Toledo; Board of Trade, Detroit; Chamber of Commerce, Buffalo; Chamber of Commerce, Boston; Chamber of Commerce, Baltimore, and Commercial Exchange, Philadelphia.

No definite plan of procedure has as yet been decided on, and the intention is to leave the entire matter open as far as possible. Ways and means for meeting the competition of the Gulf ports will be thoroughly discussed, and a future policy agreed on if possible.

GENERAL SOLICITOR KENNA.

WOULD LEAVE THE ATCHISON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Edward D. Kenna, first vice-president and general solicitor of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fé Railroad Company, has advised the board of directors of a desire on his part to retire, in order that he may give all his attention to other affairs in which he is interested. It is understood that his resignation will be presented as soon as a successor is selected by the management, and that the position has been tendered to Gardiner Lathrop of Kansas City.

SUCCESSOR TO KENNA.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 6.—Gardiner Lathrop tonight stated that he had been offered the position of general solicitor of the Santa Fé Railroad Company, to succeed Edward D. Kenna, resigned, but that he had not yet accepted the office. Acceptance would necessitate his removal to Chicago, and he is reluctant to leave Kansas City. Lathrop said that he had not been offered the first vice-presidency of the road. He said that he would accept or refuse the general solicitorship before March 1.

Ripley Denies Disagreement.

TOPEKA (Kan.) Feb. 6.—President Ripley of the Santa Fé, while in this city on his way to California, emphatically denied that W. B. Biddle, who recently went to the Rock Island, had resigned as freight traffic manager because of a disagreement between Ripley and Biddle.

MINERS GO TO WORK.

Germans Believe Government's Bill Will Readjust Relations With Employers—Features of Law.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

BERLIN, Feb. 6.—[By Atlantic Cable.] Two or three thousand coal miners who struck in the Silesian district returned to work today, believing that the government's bill now in preparation will readjust their relations with their employers.

The government's proposed law limits the working day to nine hours in galleries where the temperatures are about 70 deg. Fahr., including the time going in and coming out of the mines. In temperatures of 84 deg. Fahr. and higher, only a six-hour day is permitted. Within two or three years, the nine-hour day is to be shortened to eight and a half hours. About nine-tenths of the miners of Germany come within these provisions.

The disallowing of entire cars of coal because of the presence of foreign substances is to be forbidden. Fines may be assessed, but these must not exceed 3 to $1.50 per month. Overtime will be paid for at highest rate. Workmen's committees shall be recognized by mine owners as representing the men. Making the present condition of the miners worse in any particular than it is now is forbidden.

Herr Sachim, a member of the Reichstag, speaking at an immense meeting of miners at Essen yesterday, said that the government's bills concerned only four out of sixteen demands of the miners and was not fully satisfactory.

SERVIAN CABINET RESIGNS.

BELGRADE (Servia) Feb. 6.—The Cabinet formed December 11 under the Premiership of Pasics has resigned because of court intrigues against the Premier. The King has requested the ministers to retain office until he has conferred with the politicians. Balogdics, King Peter's private secretary, has resigned the secretaryship at the request of leading politicians.

NEW STARS MAY FLASH.

Vote on the Statehood Bill Will be Had Today and Uncertainty Exists.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two new stars may be added to the American flag tomorrow. One, representing the forty-sixth State of the Union, is virtually assured.

Having already been passed by the House, the two-State bill, incorporating Oklahoma and Indian Territory into one new State and Arizona and New Mexico into another, will come up for final passage in the Senate late tomorrow. Uncertainty exists tonight as to whether the Foraker amendment giving the right to the people of Arizona and New Mexico to vote upon the question of their consolidation into one new State may not prevail.

Much opposition has been voiced against this proposed consolidation, and party lines will disappear on a test vote. It is not possible to have Arizona and New Mexico admitted, for the present at least, as two separate States, while the opposition against the consolidation of Oklahoma and Indian Territory into one State is not sufficiently formidable to figure.

Most Republicans from the Northwest, however, appear to be opposed to the plan of forcing consolidation on Arizona and New Mexico, in the face of loud protests from those Territories.

It is expected that the final vote will not be reached until late, and the galleries probably will be filled to hear the closing speeches.

AMENDMENTS PASS HOUSE.

Assembly Pushes Along Los Angeles Charter Changes.

Wolfe's Child-labor Bill in Governor's Hands.

Senate Bribery Inquiry Attracts Biggest Crowd Yet.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—The Senate this afternoon passed a resolution requesting California's representatives to submit the question of the joint admission to Statehood of the Territories of Arizona and New Mexico to the people of those Territories. The vote on the resolution was unanimous.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The amendments to the Los Angeles charter, the important one of which is to limit all future street railway franchises to twenty-one years, passed the Assembly this morning. The concurrent resolution amending the city charter of Los Angeles was introduced in the Assembly by Houser, and in the Senate by Carter.

In the Senate these amendments have just been favorably reported upon by the Committee on Municipal Corporations, of which Senator Savage is the chairman. A lobby from Los Angeles opposed the amendments in the Senate committee.

JUDGE SMITH'S CASE.

The resolution providing for impeachment proceedings against Judge Lucas Smith of the Superior Court of Santa Cruz, which has been hanging fire for sometime past, owing to the non-committal attitude of Assemblyman C. C. Cleveland, who was asked to present it, was finally handed in this morning by Cleveland, and ordered printed in the minutes of the Assembly.

Judge Smith is accused of gross partiality to Attorney Charles M. Cassin, in that he has decided a large number of cases in favor of Cassin's clients, many of which, it is said, were unjustly adjudged. He is also charged with having refused to hear the trial of a criminal, whose offense was a felony, behind closed doors, even though the testimony was in every way revolting, and opposed to public decency. One alleged incident of flagrant violation of court legal procedure, which, if true, borders on chicanery, is that cited of the judge's treatment of Mrs. Francis Buelna, the mother of a young man convicted of an infamous crime. In order to avoid all chance of having his decision reversed by the Supreme Court, one affidavit reads, Judge Smith promised Mrs. Buelna that if her son would plead guilty of one of the charges of which he would pass sentence upon him, and sentence. Having secured this promise in return for his Buelna, coming up, waived all right of appeal and his attorney asked for sentence. The "light" sentence was ninety-nine years in San Quentin.

CAUTIONED TO SQUEAL.

Another affidavit, signed by Attorney Leonard, president of the Santa Cruz Bar Association, recites that Judge Smith once called him into his office while Leonard was attorney for the plaintiff in the case of Nicholas Sambuck vs. the Southern Pacific Company, and advised him to allow the railroad physicians to examine the plaintiff after first cautioning the latter to bend and squeal every time the physicians touched him.

Appended to the memorial accompanying the resolution are a large number of affidavits, including the above, and other charges of similar character, to which the following names of Santa Cruz residents are attached: John H. Leonard, William M. Aydelotte, Harrison Kick, M. T. Langley, Julius H. Haestus, W. M. Gardner, W. F. White, P. P. Hartman and Mrs. Frances Buelna.

It is currently reported in Santa Cruz that Judge Smith does not regard his present situation with any degree of seriousness and that he has told intimate friends that powerful railroad influences have been brought to bear, so that Speaker Prescott will appoint such a committee as will allow the charges against Judge Smith to die a natural death without being brought before the Assembly.

DREW CAUSES FLUTTER.

Assemblyman Drew this morning introduced a resolution which caused a small flutter in the lower house for a few moments. The resolution is as follows:

"That hereafter, when it shall appear from a call of the roll at any regular session of the Assembly that no quorum is present and that certain members are absent without leave, the clerk of the Assembly is hereby authorized to certify to a copy of the roll call to the State Controller, and all persons so found absent without leave shall be debarred from receiving their per diem allowance during such absence."

There was a dead silence for several seconds. Atkinson of San Francisco, however, recovered himself sufficiently in a few moments to move that the resolution be laid on the table. Ayes and noes were apparently evenly divided; and, a division being called for, the ayes had it and the resolution was accordingly consigned to oblivion.

There is already a rule adopted by the Assembly that any member absenting himself without leave shall lose his per diem, but there is no adequate means of enforcing this regulation and Drew's resolution was for this purpose.

Owing to the large number of absentees, the Assembly was unable to gather a quorum for business either Saturday or Sunday, and a delay of nearly an hour was necessary before a quorum could be secured this morning. The business of the Assembly is said to be far behind where it was at a corresponding time last session.

CHILD-LABOR BILL PASSES.

Senator Wolfe's child-labor bill passed the Assembly this morning and went to the Governor for signature. The new statute provides that no minor under the age of eighteen shall be employed in any manufacturing, mercantile or mechanical concern for more than nine hours per day; that no minor under sixteen years of age shall be employed in any mercantile institution, office, laundry, manufactory, or workshop between the hours of 10 o'clock at night and 6 o'clock in the morning; that no child under fourteen years of age shall be employed in any of the above-mentioned institutions or in any restaurant, hotel, apartment

The necessary provisions for enforcing this law are not lacking in the bill. A corporation or individual employing minors must keep an exact record of their ages and the number of hours they work. Any violation of the act constitutes a misdemeanor which is punishable by a fine of from $50 to $200 or imprisonment for sixty days, or both.

PAINT DETECTIVES IN DARK COLORS.

BAKERSFIELD WITNESSES TESTIFY IN BRIBERY INQUIRY.

Big Crowd on Hand to Hear Defense Try to Impeach Reputation and Veracity of Tichnor and Hartling, Who Shadowed Four Accused Senators.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—The largest crowd that has yet assembled to attend the inquiry into the bribery charges against Senators Emmons, French, Bunkers and Wright, gathered tonight at the Senate chamber. The Senate was packed to standing room with men and women, who struggled for seats on the floor and in the gallery.

Senator Richard Welch first took the stand to explain how he had come to meet Joseph Jordan on the night that the money is said to have been passed. He stated that he was on his way to dinner at a club, of which Jordan is a member, when accosted by the latter. They went to the club together, and, according to Welch, that was the last time he saw the accused man during the evening.

At the request of Attorney C. T. Jones of Sacramento, Joseph Jordan was excused as a witness until tomorrow night.

H. P. Dooer was the first witness introduced by the defense to impeach the character of the witnesses who have testified for the prosecution. Dooer declared that he would not believe Henry Hartling, the detective employed by the prosecution, under oath.

Charles P. Fox of Bakersfield also gave Hartling a bad character.

B. L. Brundage, Assessor of Bakersfield, said that he would not believe Hartling under oath.

Attorney McNab, for the prosecution, brought out the fact that the three witnesses had known Hartling only as a detective for Haggin and Tevis in the Bakersfield land cases.

It was further brought out that Hartling had posed as a settler when it later developed that he was a detective for the land owners.

CALLS HARTLING SPY.

F. H. Fogarty, a business man of Bakersfield, was next called to the stand. He gave Hartling and George M. Tichnor bad reputations for truth and veracity. He had heard that Hartling had posed as a swamp-land settler when, according to the witness, he was a "spy." Fogarty said he had based his opinion on public sentiment.

Another witness who gave Detective Hartling a bad reputation was Myron Holmes, who had been a resident of Bakersfield for the past fourteen years.

Attorney McNab adduced the fact that all Holmes had known of Hartling was based on the Bakersfield swamp-land cases.

J. W. Jameson, a manufacturer of Tehachepi, sprung a sensation when he admitted he had known Detective Tichnor, but that the latter had found him to be a man who had shot at two men during trouble over an oil claim.

S. J. Dunlap, a railroad conductor of Bakersfield, said Tichnor's reputation was "very bad." The witness admitted that he had participated in the shooting during the oil-land trouble. The fact was brought forth that the shooting was done in April, 1901. Dunlap had heard that Tichnor had been a Pullman conductor, but that he had been discharged by the railroad. Dunlap admitted that he had been placed under bonds after the shooting during the oil-land trouble.

Hartling and Tichnor were also given a bad reputation by Policeman Bert M. Tibbetts of Bakersfield.

McNab again connected Hartling and Tichnor as detectives in the swamp land and oil cases.

BAKERSFIELD EVIDENCE.

"The general opinion among the officers of Bakersfield," stated Tibbetts, "was that they would swear to any kind of evidence."

The witness also accused Hartling of killing cattle on disputed land.

John F. Dooley, a miner who had been one of the Bakersfield swamp settlers, and James A. Bernard of Kern were witnesses who also testified against the detectives employed by the prosecution.

At this juncture Senator Simpson of the Senatorial inquiry moved that the number of character witnesses on each side be limited to twenty persons.

The defense objected on the ground that three nights had been occupied by the prosecution in putting in their case. It was further stated by the attorneys for the accused Senators that, outside the character witnesses, the only persons who would be put on the stand would be the accused men themselves.

LIMIT NUMBER OF WITNESSES.

The defense also made the plea that they had already subpoenaed witnesses who had come from a great distance.

Senator Simpson advised that the number of character witnesses be limited to twenty-five persons. The number of witnesses on impeachment was finally fixed at twenty-five.

J. W. Briscoe of Bakersfield was then withdrawn and C. W. Cross of San Francisco was called. He had resided in San Francisco seventeen years and before that time ten years in Nevada City. He had known Detective Hartling for twenty-two years.

"In Sierra county, Hartling's reputation for swearing falsely was as bad as a man's could be," declared the witness.

In answer to McNab's questioning, Cross declared that he had never had a controversy with Hartling. The witness admitted that he had been attorney in a case at a time when Hartling was the official constable. He stated that the case had gone against him, and the people had said: "Why did you not buy Hartling for $10 to testify for you?"

HAD TO THINK HIM BAD.

Further than that, Hartling had come to his office with propositions which compelled him (Cross) to think him a bad character.

Clarence Gray, a San Francisco attorney, gave Hartling a bad reputation. The witness had once had the detective arrested for slapping his face.

J. S. Daly, a former sea captain of San Francisco, who claimed a slight acquaintance with Hartling, also gave him a bad reputation.

Attorney McNab made a futile effort to show that the witness had held a conference with Senator French and Joseph Jordan.

At this point, the prosecution brought out an admission from the defense that Witness Gray had been tried, but acquitted on a charge of manslaughter.

C. O. Nichol, a railway conductor, gave Detective Tichnor a bad reputation, admitted that he had once been accused of stealing and had left one company for another.

"The trouble was that Tichnor stole $2.50 and charged it to me," said Nichol.

ANDERSON ON STAND.

Lieut.-Gov. Alden Anderson, who had been subpoenaed, took the stand to make a statement refuting the allegation that he had been influenced in appointing the Committee on Commissions and Retrenchments.

"The creation of the committee was made at the suggestion of the Senate Committee on Rules," said Anderson. "No man ever asked me to make appointments on the Commissions and Retrenchments Committee, outside the suggestions made by the Senators in writing. The only request I had for an appointment on the Committee on Commissions and Retrenchments came from Senator Wright."

"One of your ideas in appointing the committees was to retain harmony, was it not?" asked McNab.

"It was," answered Anderson.

"At first, the Committee on Retrenchment and Reform was not considered desirable, was it?"

"No; it was not."

"On account of its lack of importance it was comparatively easy to appoint the committee, was it not?"

"Yes."

"Might you not have unconsciously placed the least important Senators on the most undesirable committees?"

"Well, there were naturally Senators who did not have as many committee places as others, and when the end of the list was neared, the men who were left naturally went on the least important committees."

"When did you first learn that the committee was engaged in investigating corporations?" asked Attorney F. D. Nicol.

"When you first came down the line in the Senate with your affidavit."

"We want to free you from any suspicion whatever, Governor," said Attorney Nicol, in conclusion. "That is our sincerest wish."

COGGINS IS NEXT.

Senator Coggins, who was a member of the Committee on Commissions and Retrenchments, was next called to the stand. He attended but few meetings of the committee, and at first the sessions were held behind closed doors. Among those who sought to have the doors closed were Senators Wright and French, who had declared that an open inquiry might hurt the companies under investigation, should it be found that they were legitimate.

Senator Coggins admitted that there had been a lively debate over the question of leaving the doors open. There was also some talk in the committee about the method of the majority in issuing subpoenas without the knowledge of the minority.

"Did you ever see Joseph Jordan about the committee-room?" asked Nicol.

"Not that I know of," answered the witness.

In answer to a series of questions, Senator Coggins said:

"The investigation of the Continental Building and Loan Association was prompted by what had appeared in a daily newspaper."

Senator Bauer, another member of the Committee on Commissions and Retrenchments, said he had not attended the meetings of the committee with regularity.

"I made a kick when I found I was on the committee, because I did not think much of it," said Bauer.

OBJECTED TO CLOSED DOORS.

"I objected to holding the investigations of corporations behind closed doors. The crisis came when two members of the press came in. I made a motion that the committee meetings be held openly, and Senator Wright offered a substitute that the meeting of that day be open to the public. Senator Emmons took the stand that the committee meetings should be executive on the ground that publicity might injure companies found to be solvent. I never knew what subpoenas were to be issued, but that may have been because I attended but three meetings."

"Did Senator French once make the statement that you were attempting to block the proceedings of the committee?" asked Attorney Nicol.

"Yes, he did; and I wanted to know his authority for that statement," answered Bauer.

Senator Bauer stated that at the meeting referred to the four accused Senators were present beside himself.

RAMBO HAD SUSPICIONS.

Senator Rambo, another member of the Committee on Retrenchments and Commissions, said he had attended but two meetings of the committee. At the session when William Corbin had failed to appear considerable discussion was held refutive to the holding of closed meetings. He declared the members of the committee who had spoken for closed meetings were Senators Wright, Bunkers, Emmons and French.

Attorney Nicol elicited the fact from Senator Rambo that nothing was to be said about corporations that were found by the committee to be conducted properly, while others, including the Continental Association, were to be reported on.

According to the Senator, the action of certain members of the committee was regarded by him as being suspicious, especially as to the manner in which the reports were to be handled.

PRISON REFORM BILLS

FAVORABLE REPORT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—The Senate Committee on Prisons and Reformatories today reported favorably on a number of prison reform bills. The bill to establish a "California relief commission," to look after discharged prisoners, was recommended, as was the bill creating a bureau of criminal identification, and a measure relating to the conduct of the Whittier and Preston schools of industry.

Senator Keane's bill fixing the salary of prison clerks at $1800 was recommended.

Senator Coggin's bill containing the most important of the contemplated prison reforms, was reported without recommendation. This bill provides for the designation of one of the State prisons as a reform prison, and the other as a work prison for incorrigibles.

ROUNDING UP WITNESSES.

TO TESTIFY IN BRIBERY CASE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—Witnesses who are to play a part in the Senatorial bribery investigation are rapidly arriving from various parts of the State.

Sergeant-at-Arms Louis Martin of the Senate is back from Los Angeles with several persons who have been subpoenaed by the defense for the purpose of testifying against the character of certain persons who have appeared against the accused Senators. Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms George Elder has returned with character witnesses from Bakersfield. Sergeants-at-Arms T. J. Shae, Edward Short and F. F. Canon are still looking up witnesses in San Francisco, but will [illegible] time for the investigation at 8 o'clock tonight.

All the accused Senators were in their places this morning. Senator French's lower jar was badly bruised, plainly showing the effects of his encounter with Detective George Tichnor.

Dist.-Atty. Seymour said this afternoon that he would appear before the Investigation Committee tonight and ask that Joseph Jordan be not required or allowed to testify in connection with the charges of bribery against Emmons, Bunkers, French and Wright. He said that, according to the law, if Jordan confessed at the Senate inquiry he could not be prosecuted in criminal court on charge of lobbying.

Seymour and County Detective O'Neill have been searching in San Francisco, Stockton and Vallejo for marked greenbacks alleged to have been given to the accused Senators. They have no information to give out as to the result of the search.

TO HOLD REGENTS RESPONSIBLE.

RESULT OF BERKELEY INQUIRIES

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 6.—The members of the committee appointed to investigate the financial system of the State University have returned and it is probable they will recommend that the board of university regents be held responsible for the defalcation of former Secretary W. A. McKowen, who is now serving a sentence at San Quentin. The committee may ask that the regents be compelled to refund the $53,000 stolen by McKowen.

Speaking of the findings of the committee, Senator Carter (chairman) said: "A majority of the members of the committee believe that the board of regents should be held responsible for the McKowen defalcation. The committee will prepare its report as soon as possible, although it has until February 10 to complete its task.

Senator Lukens, another member of the committee, said: "It is my opinion that the regents cannot escape the responsibility for the loose financial system that made it possible for McKowen to steal the large sum that he did. It seems to me they will have to make up the loss."

The report will probably contain the further recommendation that the suit for the recovery of the money be brought against the regents by the Attorney-General.

STILL AFTER MRS. DUKE.

Letter from Governor of Texas Shows She's Wanted in Lone Star State, on Charge of Swindling.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—When Mrs. Brodie L. Duke was arraigned in Police Court today for her adjourned examination it developed that the Texas authorities had not, as has been reported, given up their intention of securing her extradition to that State. Just before court opened Dist.-Atty. Jerome received the following message:

STATE CAPITOL, AUSTIN (Tex.) Feb. 6, 1905.—Application for a requisition for Alice Webb, wanted in Nacogdoches county, Tex., for swindling, has been received by me and returned to the officers of Nacogdoches county for correction. Will be forwarded as soon as papers are made out properly.

[Signed] "S. W. T. LANHAM, "Governor."

Counsel for Mrs. Duke tried to secure her release on parole, but the representative of the District Attorney would not agree.

CHICAGO PARTNER ARRESTED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—Charles F. Taylor, business partner of Mrs. Alice Webb, has been arrested at his office here, charged with being a fugitive from justice. He is alleged to have been implicated in a swindle in Nacogdoches, Tex., involving $3000. Taylor denies the truth of the charge and says he will make a fight against being taken to Texas.

Nature has wisely arranged matters so a fellow can neither pat his own back nor kick himself. Did you ever do some fool thing and want to kick yourself all over the lot? A kid sprung an old gag on me the other day and I went after it like a bull pup after a sick kitten. He said, "Have you seen Hazel today?" I said, "which Hazel?" and he said, "Pond's Extract." You may be tired hearing the story about "Silverwood $3.00 hats," but when you wear them and find they really do you the same service that a higher-priced one does, you'll think "That's the sweetest story ever told." Seriously, we are all ready with our spring hats. We'd like to have you drop in and see the new shapes, try them on, and see how really swell they are. This is going to be the greatest year to get ahead in the world we've had in the far West for a long time, but you want to get ahead in a Silverwood Hat first, then they sure can't stop you.

BEEF TRUST RAISES PRICES OF FOODS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The beef trust today put up the price of cold storage eggs in New York two cents a dozen. The agents of the trust had already bought up or "cornered" the supply of cold storage eggs in New York and Jersey City. There are now about eighty thousand cases of cold storage eggs in this vicinity, holding 28,800,000 eggs. The raise in price of two cents a dozen means that the beef trust will extract $48,000 from New Yorkers for stale eggs. The eggs are stale, because a large proportion of them have been in storage since April and May, 1904.

Week before last, at the very outset of the blizzard, the beef trust raised the wholesale price of beef half a cent a pound. This was an extra profit of $4 on every whole beef sold in New York. With a daily consumption of 2000 beeves, the trust is collecting $8000 a day extra profit out of the New Yorkers.

ARREST MADE IN CHICAGO.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The arrest today, as a fugitive from justice of C. F. Taylor, partner of Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, is instigated, it is alleged, to injure Mrs. Duke in her fight for her rights. The warrant on which Taylor was arrested was sworn out by E. A. Blount, an official of the bank at Nacagdoches, Tex., who charges fraud, in which Mrs. Webb Duke and Taylor worked together.

Blount gave testimony which brought the indictment of Taylor and Mrs. Webb Duke by the grand jury in the Texas city. He says that October 3, 1903, Taylor and Mrs. Webb Duke sold him a plantation, fixing the price at $83,000. Mrs. Duke, who was then Miss Webb, and Taylor represented that they had purchased the plantation from one Morris. Blount paid the partners $3000 on the cost price, and afterward discovered that Morris had never parted with the plantation, and that Webb, Taylor & Co., had no title to it.

FACE BROKEN BY ROBBER.

Wealthy New York Youth Terribly Beaten.

Made Drunk, Led Into Park, and Then Slugged.

Fate of De Forest, Who Escapes Guardian.

After having been enticed into some place not the kind he had been accustomed to and plied with liquor until he was in such condition that he could remember nothing, L. DeForest, a member of a millionaire family of New York, was taken into Central Park late last night, brutally beaten and robbed. His assailant took all he could find on DeForest's person in the limited time he had to search him. The victim was found a few minutes later lying almost unconscious on the ground, and was cared for by the police. He is now at the California Hospital, where he will have to remain several days.

The robbery was witnessed from a distance by two boys, whose names the police have not learned. They had seen DeForest very drunk, led west on Fifth street by another man, and watched them. The man piloted his victim into the park, and instead of taking a direct path through, walked into a dark place. Then he was seen to struggle with the drunk young man, who resisted, but did not make any outcry at first. When DeForest called for help the robber seized him by the throat. Still the young man struggled, and his assailant finally stepped back and struck him a savage blow, knocking him down. Then the stranger took his belongings.

The struggle was over in less than a minute, and as the boys started in that direction, the robber walked rapidly away. When they stopped he started back as if to complete the work of searching his victim. As soon as he was sure the boys had seen him and were watching, the robber ran through the park and disappeared near Sixth and Olive streets.

Park Policeman Sibley found De Forest groaning. His face was covered with blood, his trousers pockets torn, and his vest chain broken. His watch was gone. It was not learned until later that he had also been robbed of considerable money. In the Receiving Hospital it was found his nose had been broken and all his front teeth loosened by the terrible beating.

DeForest was unable to give a description of his assailant.

The police went back to the scene of the robbery and on the ground where DeForest had been lying they found $2.60. The young man stated that he had had more than $20 when he left his room. When found he had less than $4 on his person.

When DeForest told the police that he had been a guest at Hotel Van Nuys Broadway, they communicated with that hotel and were informed he is a member of a very wealthy New York family—a family worth $20,000,000. He came to Los Angeles three weeks ago with M. J. Gramham, his guardian, and had been visiting points of interest. Gramham was notified and went at once to the Receiving Hospital and had his ward removed to the California Hospital. Gramham admitted that DeForest is a member of a wealthy family, but stated that the report that they are worth many millions is not true. He said the boy had been sent with him to California at the request of his family, and they had intended soon to go to San Francisco.

From another source it was learned that the real reason DeForest was brought West was to get him away from certain undesirable associates, and to prevent over indulgence in intoxicants. He has been closely watched since he came here, and last night he was locked in his room. How he got out is not known, but when he did he began drinking and was soon in such a condition that he could not remember what happened to him.

His injuries are not serious, but will disfigure him for some time.

SEEKS COMMISSION.

Mining Expert Sues President of Mining Association for Fifty Thousand Dollars.

The suit of Irving Crowell against Thomas Ewing, the well-known mining man and for years president of the Southwestern Mining Association, to recover $50,000 as a commission for bringing about a sale of the Leland group of mines, came to trial before Judge Conrey yesterday. The action was tried before in Judge Allen's court, but after the trial had progressed for some time the plaintiff had it dismissed and began a new suit along the same lines.

Crowell is a mining expert, and particularly directs his attention to selling properties which he may have developed, or in which he has interest more or less direct. Early in 1902 he was interested with M. P. Gilbert of Salt Lake City in a railroad enterprise, to run a line from Johannesburg to Keeler, and incidentally to dabble in mining deals. According to the story he told yesterday on the witness stand, Gilbert wrote to him to inquire about a property adjoining Stagg's gold mine in San Bernardino county, known as the Gentry property. Crowell made some inquiries, but found the title so involved that he gave the Gentry proposition up.

Subsequently Crowell went to Ewing and asked him to recommend a good gold property, and the latter said he had the very thing. He had an option on it, and the selling price would be $250,000. If the sale went through there would be $100,000 commission to divide between them. Crowell stated that he agreed to the proposition, and wrote to Gilbert regarding the property, the Leland group of mines in Arizona, but the letter passed Gilbert on his way to this city. Upon his arrival here Gilbert was accompanied by W. P. Latta, attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad, and P. McNamara, a mining expert. These gentlemen, Crowell said, he introduced to Ewing, and he himself tried to induce the party to go and examine the mines upon which he was trying to earn his $50,000 commission.

Later on McNamara asked Crowell if he would accept a commission from them as representing the purchasers, in the event of the deal going through. Crowell declined until he saw Ewing. If the latter would agree that such acceptance would not interfere with their private contract, then, he said he would be pleased to take the $5000 that McNamara was offering. But Ewing explained that he had to pay commission to Gilbert and others, and that the sale—if it went through—would be for less than $250,000. Finally the negotiations petered out and the deal was off.

But Crowell contends that in reality it was not off. Ewing later purchased the Leland mines on his own option, and subsequently sold them to Gilbert. Crowell contends that he brought Gilbert and Ewing together, and that he is entitled to his commission.

Ewing's defense is the statute that provides that a contract must be in writing when real estate is concerned. Crowell seeks to get around this by contending that Ewing was not the owner of the real estate in question, but merely a co-agent for the owners.

The hearing will be continued today.

TORRANCE HAS DOUBLE INNINGS.

WITNESSES FOR DEFENSE HAD NOT SEEN HIM DRUNK.

Many San Diego Lawyers Called to Testify in Assembly Investigation Into Character and Habits of Superior Court Judge — Probably Finish up Today.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] At the close of this afternoon's session of the Torrance Assembly investigation it was asked whether Judge Torrance would submit to an examination here or at one of the places yet to be visited by the committee. Judge Torrance replied that he would go upon the witness stand here.

Besides Judge Torrance the defense has six witnesses. The examination is expected to be completed by noon tomorrow, in season for the committee to leave for San Bernardino on the afternoon train.

Most of today's witnesses in the two sessions were called by the defense, several of them in rebuttal of testimony of the prosecution; others swore they never had seen Torrance drunk and that his reputed habits of inebriety had not impaired his mental faculties or interferred with his administration of justice.

Attorney Anderson having been called home, the Los Angeles Bar Association was represented single-handed by Attorney Russ Avery. At the morning session the committee declined to allow Attorney Shortridge to go into the matter of the judicial integrity of Torrance, and after a long discussion Mr. Avery finally consented to stipulate that the San Diego bar in general would testify, if called upon, that Torrance's reputation for judicial integrity and ability was good.

SAW HIM DRUNK ON CAR.

Attorney Avery called F. M. Frye, commercial agent of the Southern Pacific, and two street railway employés, who testified to Torrance being under the influence of liquor on a car.

In closing Mr. Avery stated that he purposed to enter as evidence a city ordinance which prohibits gambling in San Diego.

For the defense John R. Seifert, a wholesale liquor dealer, denied the statement of Attorney Collier, who had testified to seeing Seifert helping Torrance, while intoxicated, from a saloon into a hack.

Attorney J. B. Mannix gave Torrance a clean bill, complimenting his legal attainments and closing by declaring that he had never seen Torrance intoxicated either on or off the bench. Mannix was endorsed by Attorneys F. W. Stearns, H. S. Utley, T. L. Lewis and C. H. Rippey. Not all of them, however could say they had never seen Torrance under the influence of liquor.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

A similar line of inquiry was taken up at the afternoon session, attorneys testifying to practically the same being: J. Wade McDonald, ex-Judge Boone, H. R. Coonley, J. E. Wadham, S. S. Knoles, A. C. Mouser, W. H. Holcomb, E. E. Capps, E. A. Wells and L. E. Dadmun. Public Administrator Layne, ex-Chief of Police E. W. Bushyhead and George E. Hart were called in rebuttal of testimony offered to show Torrance's intoxicated condition on the bench.

It was decided that Judge Noyes should be allowed to be the exclusive witness as to the section of the impeachment memorial relating to the alleged efforts of Torrance to influence Noyes in the matter of a motion for a new trial in the Gay divorce case.

Attorney Sam Smith detailed the story of how Judge Torrance joined with the attorneys in the Golden Cross litigation in a drink and a dinner, after making an oral order specifying how much the legal gentlemen should have for their service. Smith's analysis of Torrance's condition on that occasion differed from that of other witnesses, the credit being to Torrance.

Ex-Judge Boone, of counsel for John Gay in the divorce proceedings, and who appeared for Judge Torrance in the mandamus proceedings at San Francisco, was emphatic in his testimony for Torrance.

ANTI-RACE TRACK.

Petitions for Passage of Espey Bill Will be Circulated on Streets Today.

Today men will be stationed at various points along the business streets, at tables, where they will have petitions in readiness for signers who wish to aid the anti-race-track gambling movement.

These petitions are in favor of the passage of the Espey Bill, now before the State Assembly, and the leaders of the movement urge all citizens of Los Angeles city and country who are in favor of its passage to sign one of the petitions without delay.

The petitions will be found at the corner of First and Spring streets; Second and Spring streets, Fourth and Spring streets, Fourth and Broadway, and in front of the postoffice at Seventh and Grand avenue.

The Executive Committee having this movement in charge is composed of Frederick H. Rindge, Rev. C. C. Pierce, Rev. J. J. Wilkins, Rev. Warren F. Day, Rev. C. J. Hall, T. S. Stewart, Newton Hogan and Rev. A. B. Prichard.

PLAIN TEACHING.

Prof. Chamberlain Uses Bread Effectively Before the Academy of Sciences.

The Academy of Sciences last evening was addressed by Prof. James F. Chamberlain of the State Normal School. His subject, "Commercial Geography," gave him an opportunity to compare the old methods of memorizing a multitude of facts with the modern system of teaching the intimate relations of life to environment. Prof. Chamberlain illustrated his point by taking the most common article, bread. Of what is it made; where is the flour ground; where is the wheat grown; how is it cultivated; what are the methods and channels of transportation? Compare present methods, machinery and processes with those which prevailed in earlier times. The answers to these questions lead to a study and an intelligent knowledge of other States and countries.

Food, clothing, shelter, transportation, and communication, are handled in the same broad and comprehensive manner. Cause and effect are so related in the mind of the pupil that one suggests the other.

Incidentally, Prof. Chamberlain mentioned the fact that only 4 per cent. of the children attending public schools enter the high school, and less than 1 per cent. take a collegiate course.

PREDICTS AUSTRIAN REVOLT.

CHICAGO, Feb. 6.—At a stirring meeting Chicago Slavs have organized to aid their countrymen in the revolution which they declare will come in the Austrian empire. Nearly a thousand delegates from Slav organizations were present and listened to a revolutionary address made by Dr. Ante Tresica-Pavicica, deputy to the Austrian Parliament from Dalmatia. When he completed his address the preliminary organization known as the "Slav Liberty Federation" was announced. It is the plan to spread the organization to other American cities.

I have been treated by Dr. Schiffman for years. I have tried all his different methods, and can say unhesitatingly no dentist or physician has ever operated with such success or skill. In extracting my teeth he did it without any pain to me. It is a great pleasure to me to recommend him and his method of treatment. J. LO M. POTTER, Prop. Van Nuys Hotel, L. A., and Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara.

Ten years ago a reputable dentist of Virginia told me that a certain molar tooth could not be satisfactorily saved, and that it would probably not be of service for one year. It has not only served me for ten years, as Dr. Schiffman saved and crowned it, and comparatively speaking, without pain. I sing his praise. OWEN M. ANDREWS, Pastor M. E. Church, South, Cor. 8th and Mateo sts.

On account of some unfortunate experience I had in the extraction of my teeth I became a great coward in this respect. Today Dr. Schiffman extracted one of my very refractory teeth without causing me one particle of pain. D. K. TRASK, Judge Superior Court, Los Angeles.

Several years ago Dr. Schiffman put some crown work for me which has proven entirely satisfactory. The work was done painlessly and with great skill. It gives me great pleasure to recommend him. IRVING R. SMITH, L. A. Times.

It is with great pleasure that I state that I have had several teeth filled by Dr. Schiffman and that he filled and extracted the nerve and filled the root of one of my teeth and put on a porcelain crown, which cannot be distinguished from a natural tooth, all of which was done without pain. MUSIC CHARM PREACH

Thrill of Emotion R
Vast Revival Crowd
for Shutting Down
Tuesday—Interest I

INTEREST in the great revival yesterday began to center about the decision to have a partial holiday next Tuesday. The City Council fell in with the request of the committee, and Mayor McAleer decided to issue a proclamation setting apart the hours from 11:30 to 2 o'clock on the day requested. Meantime a canvass is being made of merchants, and over 400 signed the pledge yesterday to close during the designated hours.

The meetings were largely attended in all the districts last night. The first Methodist Church was crowded to its fullest extent for the "good cheer" meeting in the morning, and Blanchard Hall at the noon-day meeting was the same.

MUSIC'S POWER.

GREAT AUDIENCE TOUCHED.

The power of music to soften the hearts of a multitude had a good illustration last night at Temple Auditorium.

The main floor and first gallery of the big hall was crowded, with a sprinkling in the upper gallery, and when Fred Butler sang the first note of the solo in "Beyond the Smiling and the Weeping," a hush fell on the vast audience. His rich bass voice reached the farthest parts of the house without effort, while the full, sweet volume of the large chorus, as it sang the responses under the direction of Charles F. Allen, produced a delightful effect. It is not probable that the beautiful song could be produced with deeper feeling than it received last night from the gifted soloist and the splendid local chorus under Mr. Allen.

If Mr. Butler's voice was rich and beautiful in the rendition of the selection referred to, it fell in sweet cadence, a misty shower of melody, as a few moments later he rendered in soul-penetrating tones, "The Lost Chord." The audience was deeply moved, and ripe for the discourse of J. Wilbur Chapman upon "The Unpardonable Sin."

Dr. Chapman spoke with much emotion from the words: "But ye have set at naught all my counsel and would none of my reproof." That his admonitions fell upon song-mellowed hearts of men and women was apparent during the discourse and in the number who arose at its conclusion.

RESISTANCE.

UNPARDONABLE SIN.

Dr. John Elliott also spoke upon "The Unpardonable Sin" in Asbury Methodist Church in East Los Angeles last night.

He sought to answer the question for a large audience of people assembled in the city district: "Can any one commit the unpardonable sin?" He quoted from St. Matthew an affirmative answer, where it is said: "All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men."

Drunkenness, deceit, lust, murder, all these he said may be forgiven if confessed and forsaken, but resisting the Holy Spirit to the end will constitute the unpardonable sin.

FOR CLOTHES?

THE SHEEP IS ONE AHEAD.

"What do I live for?" was the question presented to a great houseful of young people by Dr. Ostrom last night. Immanuel Church was filled to its utmost, nearly the entire main floor being reserved for young people. Dr. Ostrom gave his audience many things to think about, presenting them in his unique and incisive style.

"What do I live for? Halment?" he asked, "If I live for a suit of clothes then I am not as well off as the sheep, for he has his suit at first hands.

"Religion is not a fire escape; it is character," he said. "It is not eating fruit off trees or anything like that; it is character."

In the after-meeting between forty and fifty men forward for prayers, and many more stood in the audience.

HOBSON'S OBJECT LESSON.

MANY PLEDGES.

While many Christians last night at Olivet Church pledged themselves to a closer walk with their great Leader, many expressed their desire to enter the Christian life. The church was well filled, and the first of the services was devoted to a sermon to children by Evangelist Tilman Hobson. His talk was illustrated with various objects which appealed to the child mind. The regular sermon was on the theme of God's willingness and ability to satisfy the human soul, and it was followed by an after-meeting of deep spiritual feeling. During the evening there were solos by Prof. R. N. Jeffrey and Miss Mabel Whitice.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock a meeting will be held in the Centennial Methodist Church, at Twenty-second street and Union avenue, and at the meeting this evening at Olivet Church both the children's "Sunbeam" choir and the large chorus will sing.

PROGRAMME.

MEETINGS TOMORROW.

A meeting for personal workers will be held at 2:30 this afternoon in the First Methodist Church; the noon-day prayer meeting will be held in Blanchard Hall, and afternoon meetings will be held at 3:30 in all the districts.

In the central district the meeting will be held again in Temple Auditorium tonight, when Fred Butler will sing by request, "The Holy City."

Meetings in all other districts as usual tonight.

BIBLE CONFERENCE.

The programme was announced last night for the Bible conference to be held on next Thursday and Friday. The sessions are so arranged as not to interfere with the evening evangelistic meetings, but will usurp the place of the afternoon meetings.

The morning sessions will be held in the First Methodist Church at 9:30 and the afternoon sessions in Temple Auditorium at 2:30. Thursday morning Dr. William Horace Day, Rev. R. A. Watson, Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, and Dr. Chapman are on the programme. Thursday afternoon Rev. Henry Ostrom will deliver the address in Temple Auditorium.

GOOD CHEER.
GIVE SINNERS ROOM.

"Christians stand aside, and give Elbert Hubbard and other sinners a chance," was the substance of a sentiment expressed by a number of Los Angeles ministers yesterday.

In line with the statement made in The Times that nine-tenths of the men who went to hear Dr. Biederwolf at Temple Auditorium Sunday afternoon were Christians, and the suggestion that somehow there ought to be more of a chance for the sinner to get in, was a story narrated by Rev. Frank De Witt Talmage at the "good cheer" meeting yesterday.

Mr. Talmage told how a lady, in great perturbation of mind, had telephoned to him in the hope of doing something to right what she considers a blunder on the part of Christians who hasten to crowd the houses where attractive evangelists are advertised to speak.

Her son is a physician, and in telling her story, she said to Mr. Talmage:

"Ever since the meetings began I have tried to get my son to go, but never succeeded until Sunday afternoon, when Dr. Biederwolf was to talk to men.

"I thought that was my best opportunity, so I urged my son until he promised to go. Imagine my chagrin when he came back, saying that he had been to the meeting, but found it impossible to enter. He stood about the door a long time with a number of street car men, business men and others of the class who cannot attend a week-day meeting, but all were unable to get in because the auditorium was crowded to its utmost with Christian men. To me this appears to be all wrong."

After reciting the incident, Mr. Talmage received great applause from the audience when he suggested a way to at least relieve the situation and give the sinner a chance.

"I deeply feel the importance of this subject," he said, "and there is one way in which Christians can help mend the matter. When an overflow meeting becomes necessary the church members should get up and go out to the overflow, and give others a chance to get in, among whom there may happen to be many non-Christians."

A few words spoken by Rev. Dana W. Bartlett of Bethlehem Institutional Church brought the statement from Dr. Chapman that a parade would be made down into the Eighth Ward on Saturday night, with the intention of attracting a large crowd of men to Bethlehem Church, where Dr. Chapman will speak.

Many persons from all parts of the city spoke at this meeting, bringing tidings from all the districts, designed to carry cheer to the heart of any who might feel discouraged, and also to let each other know how the work was prospering in the whole field.

GOOD BOYLE HEIGHTS.

A story goes that over in the Boyle Heights district there was much anxiety and some dissatisfaction last week, not only because there were no persons indicating a desire to live a better life, but because Rev. H. W. Stough, the evangelist in charge, had given no such opportunity.

The situation was quietly talked over among "the elect," but it was apparent to the dissatisfied that there was nothing to do but let the evangelist have his way.

Onlookers concluded that Dr. Stough had decided that the field was not "white to the harvest," and determined to thoroughly cultivate the ground inside the church before calling sinners to repentance.

The story was partly told at the "good cheer" meeting yesterday, but not in just that way. One speaker represented that Boyle Heights is no good already that Dr. Stough is disconsolate because there are no saloons, race tracks or sinful men to conquer, and intimated that the same condition would confront the evangelist in heaven.

This theory was upset by the next speaker, however, who said that 125 persons had expressed themselves by standing up and signing cards on Sunday.

It looks as if there was method in the procedure of the evangelist, and that he was not so disconsolate as some seemed to think, or else that the source of his uneasiness lay in another direction from that of the domiciles of the publicans and sinners.

SHAEFFER WILL STAY.

At a meeting of the Committee of Twenty-five yesterday, the affairs of the evangelistic campaign were reviewed with expressions of satisfaction.

The only matter of special importance acted upon was the decision to retain the services of Rev. T. C. Shaeffer, the children's evangelist, for a period of two weeks after the close of the evangelistic campaign. All of this week Mr. Shaeffer will hold meetings each afternoon in Vincent Methodist Church; next week in a church on Fig Heights, the following week in East Los Angeles, and the final week in Boyle Heights.

NOON-DAY PRAYER.

The noon-day prayer meeting in Blanchard Hall was crowded yesterday, and a very attractive service of song and prayer was held. The meeting was led by Rev. W. E. Biederwolf, who talked upon the theme, "The Love of God."

He said the time was when he looked upon God as a frowning ruler of the universe, but now he never thinks of the text, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life," without pondering over just one thing: "Why did He ever love us so?"

"The love of God," he said, "is broader than the measure of man's mind, and the heart of the eternal is most wonderfully kind."

CLOSING DAY.
MANY MERCHANTS AGREE.

The committee having charge of canvassing among merchants for signatures to a pledge to close their places of business during the designated hours on February 14 last night reported through Dr. Chapman at Temple Auditorium, that 401 merchants had signed the pledge. Dr. Chapman stated that in Denver but 150 signatures were secured during the first day's canvass.

USHERS WRONG.
DOORS NOT LOCKED.

Charles A. Baskerville writes to The Times as "Chief Usher of the Central District" relative to a statement in yesterday's Times that toward the close of the Sunday-afternoon mass revival in Temple Auditorium, attended by 4500 men, the doors were locked to keep people from going out, and that ushers went about calling out that fact to hold back such as were about to take their leave.

Mr. Baskerville says the doors were not locked, "whatever announcement may have been made," and that therefore no city ordinance was broken.

The reporter who wrote the statement observed the attempts of the revival ushers to stay the departures, and heard them call out to the people: "The doors are locked! There is no use trying to go out now. We will let you all out in five minutes." But instead of investigating he assumed that the ushers were speaking truthfully. The "Chief Usher" says in his letter:

"Whatever announcement may have been made that the doors were locked, or would be locked, was certainly done through misapprehension or inadvertence."

HEART DISEASE CAUSED DEATH.

INQUEST OVER REMAINS OF REV. C. E. BENTLEY.

Body of Minister Who Died Suddenly in Los Angeles Street Lodging-house, Shipped Back to Nebraska—No Trace of Haines or of Mysterious Veiled Woman.

Heart disease caused the death of Rev. Charles E. Bentley of Lincoln, Neb., who died suddenly in a cheap lodging-house at No. 125 South Los Angeles street Saturday night. At the inquest held at Bresee Bros. morgue yesterday morning the testimony went to prove that death resulted from a rupture of the left ventricle of the heart and that death claimed him a few moments after he fell on the table in the room which the landlady was showing at his request. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts.

Dr. G. W. Campbell the autopsy surgeon testified that the ventricle had been ruptured and that a slight leakage into the pericardium had taken place before the serious break occurred. The surgeon thought the man had been suffering before he asked for a room in the lodging-house.

Mrs. Mary Douglas, the landlady, testified to the facts told to the police Saturday night when Bentley was stricken. Bentley ascended the steps accompanied by a veiled woman in black, according to Mrs. Douglas's testimony, and asked for a room. She placed the register under her arm and led the way to a room followed by her two guests whom she supposed were out of town people. Immediately after entering the room, Bentley toppled over, striking the table and falling to the floor. The veiled woman screamed and said, "I know he's dying." A man named Haines, who lodged in the house occasionally was called in from the hallway and together the veiled woman and Haines tried to resuscitate the minister while the landlady went for water and a towel. When she returned the veiled woman had gone after remarking to Haines that she had trouble enough of her own and didn't care to be mixed up in the affair. A few minutes later Haines disappeared. He has not since been seen or heard from.

Police detectives have searched high and low for the veiled woman and Haines, but all trace of them was lost when they left the building. The woman is not suspected of having robbed the minister of his watch but Haines is supposed to know something about the missing timepiece.

The remains of the dead divine were shipped to Lincoln, Neb., last night for interment. Mrs. Bentley, who accompanied her husband to Los Angeles, only last Friday, returned with the dead body.

THE MADNESS OF HATFIELD.
(After Longfellow.)

The shades of night were falling fast,
As o'er the mountain trails there passed
A man who bore 'mid snow and ice,
A banner with the strange device,
"I'm Hatfield!"

His brow was sad; his eye beneath
Flashed like a falchion from its sheath;
And like a silver clarion rung
Those words of praise from every tongue,
"Great Hatfield!"

His fame had spread to every clime,
His praises rang in prose and rhyme.
'Twas said he could not stand the strain,
And something snapped within his brain—
Poor Hatfield!

Then wildly, madly, on he tore,
And shrieked in frenzy, "More, yes more!
Not once a week, but once a day,
The rain shall surely come this way."
Cried Hatfield.

In memory he saw the light
Of household fires gleam warm and bright,
And from his lips escaped a groan.
Poor Hatfield!

Then loud he cried, "The rain, the rain!
Mt. Lowe shall lie upon the plain,
And Pasadena's thunderclap
I'm Hatfield!"

"Los Angeles no more shall be;
Instead, a vast expanse of sea
Shall stretch afar, beneath my view,
While o'er and o'er the storms I'll brew.
I'm Hatfield!"

"Try not the pass," an old man said,
Dark lowers the tempest overhead.
The roaring torrent's deep and wide!"
And loud that clarion voice replied:
"I'm Hatfield!"

"Beware the pine tree's withered branch!
Beware the awful avalanche!
This was the rancher's last good-night,
A voice replied, far up the height:
"I'm Hatfield!"

A traveler by the faithful hound,
Half buried in the snow was found,
Still grasping in his hand of ice
That banner with the strange device,
"I'm Hatfield!"

There in the twilight cold and gray,
Lifeless, but beautiful he lay;
And from the sky, serene and far,
A voice fell, like a falling star—
"I'm Hatfield!"

RETURN FROM YACHTING TRIP.

COL. BRADBURY'S PARTY HAD A JOLLY CRUISE.

Loafed, Hunted and Fished Down the Coast and Around Into the Gulf of California on Yacht Ramona—Storm in Gulf—Shortage of Water Denied by Dr. Hitchcock.

Fresh from a yachting trip to Mexico and Lower California on the yacht Ramona, Col. John Bradbury and Dr. W. W. Hitchcock returned last night by rail from Guaymas, after cruising three weeks in the southern seas.

Accompanied by Dr. E. R. Smith, Col. Bradbury and Dr. Hitchcock sailed away from San Pedro January 10 last and loafed down the coast, stopping wherever and whenever fancy dictated. At Ensenada a quail hunt was enjoyed and further down the party went after bigger game. The party rounded the point and left the yacht at Mazatlan January 24. After spending several days in Mazatlan they boarded a steamer for Santa Rosalie and later crossed to Guaymas. The yacht was sent back to San Pedro from Mazatlan.

Fine weather favored them throughout the trip, with the exception of the journey across the Gulf of California from Santa Rosalie to Guaymas. An exceptionally heavy storm for the Gulf struck the steamer and delayed the boat, but caused no serious inconvenience.

Dr. Hitchcock denies the story reported by friends of a shortage of water during the run down the coast, when it was stated that Bradbury's party were compelled to hail a passing steamer and ask for water, as they had been short of the precious fluid for several days. The doctor says they did not suffer a moment for water or anything else, but they took on water from a steamer because the quality was better than their own.

Mrs. John Winston, Mrs. James Winston, Miss Winston and Louis Bradbury returned with the party from Guaymas. Dr. Smith stopped at Hermosillo, where heexpects to remain several days.

DRIVEN OUT BY FIRE.

Neighbors Care for Hinton Street Family Whose Home Was Destroyed During Rainstorm.

The family of G. F. Fiefling narrowly escaped death in a fire which destroyed their home at No. 953 Hinton street early yesterday morning, and but for the kindness of neighbors they would have been obliged to remain exposed to the cold and rain, clad in little more than their nightclothes. The fire was discovered at 2:30 o'clock during the last shower. It is supposed to have been caused by a defective gas heater. When the flames were discovered they had spread through two rooms and to the roof, the underside of which was burning fiercely. The members of the family had only time to seize what clothing was within reach and run into the yard. After the firemen arrived a thirteen-year-old daughter of the occupants begged them to save her piano, and they endeavored to do so. Because they were not working as fast as she desired, she ran into the burning building, barefoot, and assisted them in moving the instrument into the yard. It was but little damaged.

The loss on the building will exceed $800, and it will have to be rebuilt throughout. There is $500 insurance on the building, which is the property of C. E. Smith. The loss on the contents will approximate $400, with no insurance.

TREATMENT OF PILES

Permanence of Cure the True Test

Many so-called remedies will afford the user slight temporary relief and the majority of those afflicted do not expect more than this.

The average sufferer, after having tried every preparation recommended for the cure of piles, comes to the conclusion that there is no cure except by an operation, and rather than undergo this "last resort" he suffers on resigned to the situation, so far as may be. The attention of those interested is invited to the following experience:

"After ten years of suffering from blind, bleeding and protruding piles and after using every remedy I could hear of without any benefit, I finally bought a 50 cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and used it with such good results I bought next a dollar box, which finished the job. That was nearly six years ago, and as far as piles is concerned I am cured, and have never felt a symptom of them since.

"Many others have used this remedy by my advice with the same results, and I always recommend it to sufferers with piles." C. H. Potts, Burlington, Kansas.

Testimony like this should convince the most skeptical that Pyramid Pile Cure not only cures, but cures to stay cured. It is in the form of a suppository, can be applied in the privacy of the home, directly to the parts affected and does its work quickly and painlessly.

Druggists generally sell this famous remedy for fifty cents a package and sufferers are urged to buy a package now and give it a trial tonight. Accept no substitutes.

A little book describing the causes and cure of piles is published by the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and same will be sent free to any address for the asking.

C. M. Maxon of Los Angeles, who has just arrived at Carlsbad from the oil territory, reports the greatest excitement prevailing in the oil country. He states that the land in that section, which has only been used for grazing purposes and sold for a song, will be worth $500 to $1000 per acre inside of a few months.—[Los Angeles Herald.

The Carlsbad Consolidated Oil Co. owns by absolute deed over seven thousand acres of the finest oil-producing lands in the Carlsbad district. It is the intention of the Company to at once develop its holdings on a large scale.

The Company plan to lease portions of their immense tract to a number of other companies which will be formed to develop the territory. The income from these leases alone promises to insure handsome dividends to every stockholder. Only a limited amount of stock will be sold, and the Directors of the Company reserve the right to withdraw this stock from sale or raise the price without further notice.

The Carlsbad Consolidated Oil Co.'s property is laid in Eddy Co., New Mexico, but twenty miles from Carlsbad and about six miles from the nearest railroad point. Arrangements have been made with the Santa Fé management for special rates on a shipment of oil-drilling machinery to Carlsbad. The formation lies in blanket form, and the entire field is found permeated with a fine, high-grade oil, pronounced by experts to be of the Black Sea variety and having a paraffine base. Every indication points to unlimited quantities of oil at a depth of about one thousand feet.

The Officers and Directors of this Company ask no man to invest a cent in this proposition unless thoroughly satisfied of its soundness as a business venture in every particular.

It is a fact that it is only a question of time when the fields of Pennsylvania and Ohio will be worked out. It is then upon the great West that the Nation will rely for its supply. It is then that the fields of paraffine oil will become most valuable. The natural demand for oil must steadily increase to enormous proportions. This means that oil production already so richly profitable must become still more so.

This Company has a tremendous amount of acreage behind it. The Officers and Directors in this enterprise guarantee to the investor absolutely honest and high-class management.

The whole world cries out for cheaper fuel, and it is such territory as the Carlsbad oil fields and such companies as the Carlsbad Consolidated Oil Co. that is going to supply the ever-growing demand.

The stock at 25 cents per share offers a most exceptional opportunity for investment, such an investment as will appeal most strongly to the man who thinks before he leaps. The business man sees in a moment that the great stretch of property owned by right of deed by the Carlsbad Consolidated Oil Co. should alone make every share of stock worth in excess of par without a bit of development. The oil expert who knows the peculiar location of our properties in relation to the country and how it drains the vast Carlsbad district also knows that it is the most wonderful oil proposition ever put before the public. These cold, absolute, undeniable facts lift the shares in the Carlsbad Consolidated above all other investments. Could any other business offer such returns? Could any bank give equal security?

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., January 13, 1905. Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the United States Reclamation Service, 1208 Braly Building, Los Angeles, California, until 2 o'clock p.m., March 15, 1905, for the construction of the Laguna dam and sluiceways, involving the excavation of about 282,000 cubic yards of earth, excavation of about 265,000 cubic yards of solid rock, placing of about 265,000 cubic yards of solid rock in the dam and masonry core walls, building of about 27,150 cubic yards of concrete, laying of about 80,000 square yards of paving, and furnishing and driving of about 12,000 lineal feet of sheet piling, for the diversion of a part of the Colorado River, about ten miles northeast of Yuma, Arizona. Bids will be received for the entire work. Specifications, form of proposal, and particulars may be obtained by application to the Chief Engineer, U. S. Reclamation Service, Washington, D. C.; to J. B. Lippincott, Supervising Engineer, U. S. Reclamation Service, 1208 Braly Building, Los Angeles, California; or to Homer Hamlin, Engineer, U. S. Reclamation Service, Yuma, Arizona, at whose offices the plans may be inspected. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for Ten Thousand ($10,000) Dollars, payable to the order of the Secretary of the Interior, as a guaranty that the bidder will, if successful, promptly execute a satisfactory contract and furnish bond in the sum of 50 per cent. of the contract price for the faithful performance of the work. The right is reserved to reject any or all bids, to accept one part and reject the other, and to waive technical defects as the interests of the service may require. Proposals must be marked "Proposals Laguna Dam, Yuma Project, California." Bidders are invited to be present when bids are opened. E. A. Hitchcock, Secretary.

Notice of Assessment.

BELL WATER CO., LOCATION AND PRINCIPAL place of business, Bell, Cal.

Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of stockholders held on January 3, 1905, an assessment of $2.50 per share was levied upon the capital stock of the corporation, payable immediately to the secretary at the office of the company at Bell, Cal. Any stock upon which this assessment shall remain unpaid on the first day of April, 1905, will be delinquent, and advertised for sale at public auction and unless payment is made will be sold on the 1st day of May, 1905, to pay the delinquent assessment, together with cost of advertisement and cost of sale.

WESTLAKE BUNGALOW.

OFFER THE FOLLOWING GENUINE BARGAINS:

A GRAND PIECE OF PROPERTY ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF 5TH ST., JUST EAST OF SAN PEDRO ST., 55 FEET FRONTAGE. THIS PROPERTY IF PROPERLY IMPROVED WILL PAY A VERY LARGE INTEREST ON THE TOTAL INVESTMENT. WE HAVE RESPONSIBLE TENANT READY TO LEASE AND PAY 8 PER CENT. NET ON THE COST OF LOT AND BUILDING.

WE ALSO HAVE A BIG LOT ON 5TH ST., JUST OPPSITE SAN JULIAN ST., EXACT SIZE 100x150. HAVE A PARTY READY TO LEASE IF SUITABLE BUILDING IS ERECTED, AND PAY 8 PER CENT. NET ON TOTAL INVESTMENT.

N. W. CORNER 5TH AND RUTH. SIZE 82x100 TO ALLEY; PRICE $500 PER FRONT FOOT. SPLENDID PLACE FOR SECOND-CLASS HOTEL. WE WILL LEASE THIS CORNER OURSELVES, IF PROPERLY IMPROVED, AND PAY 8 PER CENT. NET ON THE TOTAL INVESTMENT. WE BELIEVE THAT THERE ARE BETTER RENTAL VALUES ON E. 5TH ST., THAN ON ANY OTHER THOROUGHFARE IN THIS CITY, THEREFORE VALUES ARE BOUND TO INCREASE. WE PREDICT THAT EVERY FOOT OF 5TH ST. PROPERTY, WITHIN 5 YEARS, WILL BRING AT LEAST $1000 PER FRONT FOOT, AND IF PROPERLY IMPROVED TODAY WILL PAY A GOOD RATE OF INTEREST ON THE COST OF BUILDING AND A $1000 PER FRONT FOOT VALUATION. REMEMBER THAT THIS STREET RUNS DIRECT TO THE ARCADE STATION, WHICH IN THE NEAR FUTURE WILL BE THE GREAT UNION STATION OF THIS CITY. THIS IS A SHORT STREET AND DENSELY POPULATED ON BOTH SIDES. IT IS A GOOD STREET TODAY, AND IF THE BUSINESS TENDENCIES OF LOS ANGELES ARE CLOSELY STUDIED ALL OF THE ABOVE STATEMENTS WILL BE VERIFIED.

WE ALSO OFFER FOR SALE SEVERAL VERY CHEAP AND DESIRABLE PROPERTIES ON EAST FIRST STREET. EAST FIRST HAS BEEN ENTIRELY OVERLOOKED FOR THE PAST TEN YEARS, MANY PEOPLE FORGETTING THAT SUCH A THOROUGHFARE EXISTED. HOWEVER, THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF BUSINESS BEING TRANSACTED ALONG EAST FIRST STREET, AND AT PRESENT PRICES WE CAN SEE A GOOD PROFIT TO BE MADE EITHER FROM A SPECULATIVE OR INVESTMENT STANDPOINT.

CENTRAL AVE.

WE OFFER FOR SALE A LOT ON CENTRAL AVE., OPPOSITE THE PUBLIC MARKET AT $250 PER FRONT FOOT. IT IS A GOOD PLACE TODAY FOR COMMISSION MERCHANTS, AND WILL RENT IMMEDIATELY IF IMPROVED FOR THIS PURPOSE.

EAST SIXTH STREET.

WE OFFER FOR SALE A CORNER ON E. 6TH ST. FOR $10,500. WITHIN A YEAR WE KNOW THAT IT WILL RESELL AGAIN FOR AT LEAST $15,000.

WE HAVE ONE OTHER VERY FINE CORNER AT AN EXTREMELY LOW FIGURE ON E. 6TH ST. FOR FULL PARTICULARS APPLY AT THE OFFICE. IF LOOKING FOR BROADWAY, SPRING OR MAIN ST. PROPERTY, BE SURE AND SEE WHAT WE HAVE TO OFFER, AS WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF LOS ANGELES BUSINESS PROPERTY, AND CAN GIVE YOU CORRECT INFORMATION CONCERNING EVERY PIECE PROPERTY OFFERED FOR SALE ALONG THESE THOROUGHFARES.

FOR SALE—TEAM OF LIGH

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Ellery Concert.

The Ellery Band will give its Wagnerian concert at Chutes Theater on Wednesday evening.

Account of Redskins.

In the case of United States vs. Pena, selling liquor to Indians on the Pala reservation, defendant was arraigned yesterday, and given until Monday to plead.

Massachusetts People.

The Massachusetts State Society will meet this evening in the Chamber of Commerce. All who have ever lived in Massachusetts are invited to attend. A special programme has been prepared.

Modern Woodmen's Affair.

Golden State Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, enjoyed a theater party at the Grand last night. Several different camps were represented, all members being in uniform, and before the theater a street parade was given.

Cases Against Watkins.

Two cases against Ollie J. Watkins, charged with offenses similar to those of Fitzsimmons, were continued one week in the Federal Court in deference to a telegram announcing the death in San Francisco of Mrs. Bert Schlesinger, wife of Watkins's counsel.

Indorses Anti-Cruelty Society.

At the meeting of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association yesterday a resolution was passed urging all the members of the association to become members of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and warmly commending the work of that society.

Dolmetsch Seat Sale.

The sale of seats for the appearances of the Dolmetsch musical organization will be on at the Union Pacific ticket office this morning. This is said to be the only musical organization in America which presents music of the Elizabethan period, produced on instruments of the time.

Caught Too Soon.

A hurry call at 10:30 o'clock last night took two patrolmen to a room in the Eureka lodging-house, where R. S. Diggis was found, surrounded by newly-written notes foreshadowing suicide. The man appeared to be insane. He was subdued after a fierce fight, and conveyed to the Police Station.

Falkenburg's Condition.

F. A. Falkenburg, Head Consul of the Woodmen of the World, still lingers between life and death at the home of relatives, No. 1211 West Seventh street. Last night Dr. Brainerd, the attending physician, stated Mr. Falkenburg was still delirious, but the pulse was stronger.

A Hornet's Nest.

Residents of a certain section of Boyle Heights will meet Tuesday evening at the Boyle Heights Methodist Episcopal Church to protest against the work of the Spanish-American people who are building up homes in the neighborhood. As some of the Spanish-American people are of means, it is likely that a hornet's nest will be stirred up.

Japanese Memorial Service.

This evening at Turner Hall, on South Main street the local Japanese will hold a memorial service for the dead soldiers in the Russo-Japanese War. Money will be collected to aid the widows and orphans of the deceased soldiers. All in sympathy with this movement are invited to attend. The programme is in charge of K. Ugai, S. Hagiwara and S. Izumida.

Down on Race Track.

Arthur Letts, proprietor of the Broadway Department Store, yesterday addressed a letter to the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, asking them to take the initiative in a campaign against race-track gambling which is doing so much harm in the city. The letter was favorably received, inasmuch as all classes of business men realize that the evil is financial as well as moral.

Demolished the Wagon.

B. T. Costello drove a heavily loaded wagon upon the Pasadena short line of the Pacific Electric Railway last evening, struck a deep mud hole and found it impossible to pull out. A rapidly-moving car helped him out, however, by striking the wagon almost at full speed and demolishing it. Costello was thrown to the ground and sustained several severe bruises. He was taken to the County Hospital for treatment.

Want a New Ward.

And now it is the people of the extreme northern part of the city who have taken up the idea of carving out a new city ward. Their plan is to take from the First Ward all that northern territory which has been admitted to the municipality since 1896, and to include in this a tract of fine timbered land in the Arroyo Seco, lying between Avenues 52 and 57, for a public park. The subject is to be discussed at the next meeting of the Highland Park Improvement Association.

California's Building.

Secretary Wiggins of the Chamber of Commerce returned yesterday from San Francisco, whither he went to inspect plans and specifications for the California State building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The building is to cost approximately $35,000, and to occupy a space 200 by 200 feet. Unlike the California building at St. Louis, the structure at Portland will contain a full State exhibit, in addition to the usual reception rooms. Plans and specifications were opened to inspection in San Francisco yesterday, and duplicates will be received in Los Angeles today and tomorrow. Bids will be opened next Monday, preliminary to the awarding of contract by the Governor.

Spent Night in Street Car.

The Hollywood car which leaves Los Angeles at 10:30 p.m., carried twelve passengers to the northwestern suburb on Sunday night, several of whom were women. When the car reached Center street, which is the Hollywood city line, it encountered a raging torrent of water, almost two feet deep, and was held there until 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Some of the men attempted to wade across, so as to reach their homes, but had a struggle to pass through the swift current. At that point the water converges from several courses, and the tracks were badly washed. The newly-laid extensions of this line also suffered much damage by the caving of embankments and setting of roadbed.

The House That the Birkel Company Built

CECILIAN DISPLAY ROOM—SECOND FLOOR.

The piano-player department of this house is one of its leading features, as the makes represented are the Cecilian, Cecilian Piano, Orchestrion, and Orchestrion.

Cecilian recitals with excellent programmes are constantly given, which attract interested and select audiences.

The Free Cecilian Recital

Next Thursday, Feb. 9th, will present an unusual treat to the music-loving public, because Dr. Ernest R. Leeman, pupil of the late Charles R. Adams, and recently associated with Signor Bimboni of the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., will sing the recitative and aria from "In a Persian Garden." Mr. Leeman possesses a pure, high tenor voice of great promise, and is a valued acquisition to the musical circles of the city.

The usual varied and artistic programme of selections for the Cecilian has been arranged, and you may anticipate a most pleasant and enjoyable entertainment.

This Week, Big Carpet Sale.

In order to prove that we absolutely control the house furnishing situation in Los Angeles, we have decided to inaugurate a grand cut-price sale of carpets. We bought these from the best makers in the country in carload quantities for spot cash. The Trust stores paid nearly 30 per cent. more for carpets than our own wholesale cost. We also have secured through our connection with certain powerful manufacturing concerns some special consignments of high-grade carpets at almost 50c on the dollar.

90c TAPESTRY BRUSSELS, Laid and Lined, 75c

Tapestry Brussels carpet is made in a variety of qualities. Some carpets are merely stamped like calico, and, of course, they give little wear and soon lose their colorings. These carpets are thoroughly dyed and no better grade manufactured. Price at Brent's this week, laid and lined, only 75c the yard. The variety includes all the newest spring styles.

60c ART CARPET 40c Yard

65c INGRAIN CARPET 53c Yard

Half wool ingrain carpets; heavy weight, closely woven; comes in Oriental, floral and scroll patterns; excellent colors; sewed, laid and lined, special at 53c a yard.

85c INGRAIN CARPET 64c Yard

Cotton chain, all well filled ingrain carpet, extra heavy weight; comes in handsome floral, Oriental and scroll patterns; our full line, sewed, laid and lined, on sale at 64c a yard.

$1.15 AXMINSTER CARPETS 87½c Yard

These come in pretty patterns; Oriental and floral designs, heavy pile; sewed, laid and lined; $1.25 values at 87½c a yard.

Most Remarkable Freak of the Storm that Ended Yesterday Morning—Bottom of the Canyon Carved Thirty Feet Deeper.

The storm that will go into local history put its last devastating touches on a little mountain cañon near Los Angeles yesterday morning, tearing thirty feet out of the bottom.

Ten thousand demons of chaos and destruction wrought an appalling transformation scene.

Sleepy old Los Flores Cañon, cluttered with miners' workshops, ore dumps, steel tracks and breaker cars, has been swept into a desolate wilderness of wild grandeur.

Walking down the cañon, now, one can find hardly a trace to show that the foot of man ever trod here.

It is a geological sensation. For this once, it has been given to man to witness one of the tragedies of world building. It is thus, but by a grander throe, old Nature must have given birth to all the cañons; out of such grinding agony must have come the Rio Grande.

The debris of a thousand ages which formed the floor of the cañon has been torn out by the water. What was level ground twenty-four hours ago, now clings to the sides of miniature precipices. The bed of the cañon has, in places, been lowered fully thirty feet.

The cañon has been gutted as a man might clean a fish.

It had, only three days ago, no water and few rocks. Now a mountain stream plunges over wild crags, tumbles in waterfalls, rushes over night-old rapids.

The power and force of the water almost surpass a belief. Dawn yesterday morning showed a havoc which awakens one's awe.

Immense trees, four or five feet thick, were torn up like bean stalks and flung miles down the new mountain stream.

Heavy, three-inch water pipes were snatched gleefully from their moorings and actually tied and twisted like baling wire about tree trunks. In the picture published herewith, five pieces of heavy pipe are seen twisted about a tree.

Some of the pipe was carried a mile down the cañon and thrown into gnarled tangles.

Enormous boulders, weighing many tons, were hurled down the cañon; every mining tunnel, constructed year by year at tremendous expense, was choked as full as a Christmas stocking.

One of the pictures shows the top of one of the tunnel doorways; that doorway was over six feet high and breaker cars on a track ran through it; only about four inches now remain to show the place.

At the top of a knoll, shown here in the picture by a confused mess of sticks, was one of the mining blacksmith shops. They found only those few pieces of it; it was swept utterly out of existence.

Two or three miners narrowly escaped death in the cloudbursts which came, torrent after torrent, with such rapidity that nine inches of water fell in a few hours.

The Times is fortunate in being able to present these remarkable scenes in this series of photographs taken yesterday by M. E. Rafert. It may be many years before such a contortion of nature can be seen again; these pictures will stand as the record of it. No other photographs have been taken of the place.

MANY EPISODES.

"PANNING OUT" FOR SPOONS.

The storm was generally heavy all through that part of the mountains; they are now covered with snow to a depth and extent almost unprecedented.

It looks as though a careless cook had been around there with a flour shaker as low down as Mt. Lowe. The snow was ten inches deep at Alpine Tavern yesterday; it is spread over the summit of all the hills to the observatory.

Traffic stopped, the cars not going beyond Altadena. Two or three guests marooned on the mountain have been rescued; they bring down tales of "panning out" for silver spoons at Alpine Tavern.

The recent torrent swept away the kitchen at the tavern, taking with it a quantity of silverware; one of the guests discovered a fork far down the hill; whereupon every one set to work panning out gravel and finding silver forks and spoons in it.

None of the fury of the Los Flores storm was felt up there.

Its unusual severity in the cañon is ascribed to two causes; one is the cloudbursts, which no one is exactly able to describe, the other reason grows out of the recent fire at "circular bridge," on the Alpine Tavern trolley line.

The fire destroyed all the protecting vegetation, leaving the storm water free to rush down unobstructed into the cañon.

LIVES SAVED BY ACCIDENT.

Two miners of Los Flores had the opportunity to see it raging at its height, and nearly lost their lives for the show.

One is William Twaddell, whose claims cover most of the cañon, and whose place at the cañon mouth is one of the landmarks.

He was working at the head of the cañon in the mine called Golden King with his partner; they were in the tunnel, whose clogged door is shown in these pictures.

They would surely have been entombed by débris had it not been for an accident to their lights. The "fire blast" which supplies pure air for the tunnel was out of order, and Twaddell decided that they could not do any work.

Just as they came out of the tunnel, the storm burst upon them.

APPALLING WATER RUSH.

Water came down, the cañon rocks with a roar like Niagara. Before they could get out of the cañon the cloudburst was followed by another, and then another.

Where they had never seen water before in all the years that Twaddell has lived there, came a furious, angry river.

The storm was accompanied by blinding lightning and crashing thunder.

Long vivid flashes would light up the weird scene of the maddened flood tearing the cañon up by the roots, as it were, showing huge boulders tumbling down in the flood, trees and heavy logs shooting swiftly by, half buried in the water.

It came shooting down, tearing out trees and rocks and dirt. The two men had to turn and fly for their lives. They scrambled on the higher trails, and in a few minutes these were washed away; they saved themselves by climbing up into the hills.

Marking the trail of that torrent are trees with the bark skinned off and the trunks calf chewed in two by tumbling rocks. Trees that stood on the banks of the stream when it began its rush now stand high up on the sides of little cliffs, showing how the cañon bottom has been torn away.

Some portions of the river-bed are acres of tumbled rocks strewn helter-skelter where before the storm was nothing but rich soil.

There is an irony to this storm. For years a lawsuit was in the courts regarding the waters of this cañon. One of the litigants was awarded by the courts all the water actually flowing in the cañon; as there was no water running there and had been very little in the memory of man, that decision was a sort of grim joke.

Now, for the first time, they can revel in the ownership. If this mountain stream could only keep up the flow of these days since the storm it would be worth hundreds of thousands of dollars—and then some.

As it is, its coming has cost a good many thousands.

Twaddell and his various partners have lost a great deal of money, or at least its equivalent in accomplished work.

At least three mining and water tunnels are completely choked with débris. It is not known, of course, how far back the débris goes, but they believe nearly to the end of each tunnel.

These tunnels cost from $10 to $30 a foot; the Golden King is back about 250 feet, and the others varying distances less than that.

One of the tunnels is so choked that there is nothing to show where the entrance was except a rail sticking out from a solid gravel bank.

These tiny railroads, themselves, are worth a good deal of money and will have to be entirely replaced.

In the mysterious disappearance of the tool and blacksmith shop at the Golden King tunnel, thousands of dollars' worth of tools have gone the way of the flesh.

The storm has cost the Rubio Cañon trolley line much money in loss of business, but in spite of the cessation of traffic, the damage to the track is said to be slight. It is mostly a matter of sand on the rails.

Hundreds of people visited Altadena yesterday and a great many went on up to Rubio Cañon, trying to get to the snow.

Old residents say it has not been so low on the mountains to stay so long, for a good many years.

CUMULATIVE FITZ DEMURS.

In the cases of the United States against Orlando K. Fitzsimmons, D. A. Arnett and John W. Neighbors, indicted by the Federal grand jury for using the mails to further a lottery scheme (the Cumulative Credit Company,) Walter R. Bacon as attorney for the defendants yesterday demurred to the indictment. The demurrer was a tame and perfunctory affair. At the close of argument it was taken under advisement by Judge Wellborn, whose ruling that the Cumulative Credit Company is a fraud and a lottery became a matter of record some time ago, when Fitzsimmons tried to put Uncle Sam to the bad for throwing his business out of the mails.

PUBLIC SERVICE—OFFICIAL DOINGS.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Awards of sale of three long-term street railway franchises were yesterday made by the Council. An adjourned meeting will be held this afternoon in hope of passing the ordinances of sale before the State Senate acts upon the charter amendments.

Donation was yesterday made to the city by the Broadway Boulevard Improvement Association of its entire equipment for lighting Broadway.

A salary ordinance adding 115 men to the force of laborers in the street department was yesterday adopted by the Council.

Councilman Howton yesterday afternoon appealed to the Council for protection from Rev. T. S. Montgomery, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church. Rev. Mr. Montgomery spoke to Howton in the Council chamber, and Howton promptly charged that he had been "threatened."

The suit of Irving Crowell against Thomas Ewing for a commission of $50,000 on the sale of the Leland mines came to trial yesterday in Judge Conrey's court.

C. M. Carpenter, the officer of the S.P.C.A. convicted of shooting C. D. Frey, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Smith to five years in the penitentiary.

In the Police Court yesterday three young toughs were arraigned for highway robbery, with bail fixed at $5000 each.

AT THE CITY HALL.

PRETTY RACE AGAINST TIME.

LIVELY HUSTLE FOR STREET RAILWAY FRANCHISES.

Property Owners Seek to Get Long Term Privileges Before State Senate Passes on Charter Amendments—Councilman Whose Vote Is Needed Not Able to Come.

Racing against time and trusting that Nature will act more speedily than a California Legislature, property owners east and west are striving to get three short lines of street railway contracted for before the Legislature puts up the bars against long-term franchises.

Councilman Foord lies ill at his home, suffering from injuries received in a recent street-car accident. His vote is necessary to complete the sale of the franchises. Yesterday the charter amendments passed at the last municipal election were ratified by the Assembly.

Mr. Foord's physician has expressed the opinion that his patient will not be able to visit the City Hall for at least two weeks or possibly a longer time. The charter amendments now occupy a place on the general file of the State Senate, to be taken up as the regular order of business. This may mean one day, or it may mean three weeks.

This peculiar state of affairs has been brought about by the award by the Council yesterday of three thirty-year street-railway franchises to committees of property owners who had petitioned for them. Today the Council meets in adjourned session to pass the ordinances of sale. As soon as this is done the ordinances go to the Mayor for his approval or veto.

Mayor McAleer declared in his annual message that he would veto all franchise ordinances containing a time-limit of more than twenty-one years. The petitioners admit that they do not expect the Mayor to make an exception in the present instance. To pass the amendments over his veto will require seven votes. It is to Foord that the petitioners are compelled to look for this extra tally.

Bids were yesterday morning opened in the Council for the sale for a street-railway franchise on West Sixth street and Wilshire boulevard, for a second line on Tenth street between Vermont and Western avenues and for a line on Indiana street between First and Fifth streets.

All of the franchises are for feeders to established trunk lines of the Los Angeles Railway Company. This company did none of the bidding, but if the lines are built they will become a part of the Huntington system.

A. M. Davidson bid $350 for a street-railway franchise on West Tenth street between Vermont and Western avenues. This bid was considered too low by the Council and it was about to be rejected when the petitioners for the sale of the franchise asked that action be delayed until after dinner. At the afternoon session the property owners raised the bid to $700 and the Council instructed the City Attorney to prepare the necessary ordinance of sale.

Warren Gillelen bid $350 for a street-railway franchise covering about a mile of West Sixth street and Wilshire boulevard. This bid was deemed too low and was held over until the afternoon session. Then property owners interested in a number of west-end tracts of land raised the bid to $1500. This was satisfactory to all but two members of the Council, and the award of sale was accordingly made.

A franchise for a street railway on Indiana street between First and Fifth streets was awarded to Boyle Heights property owners for $350.

Hammon and Howton voted against the sale of each of the franchises.

Should the necessary votes be secured to pass the sale of these franchises over the Mayor's veto, the ordinances would probably be subjected to the ordeal of referendum petitions.

BROADWAY BRILLIANT.

CITY TO FURNISH ILLUMINANT.

The Broadway Boulevard Association yesterday donated to the city its ornate street-lighting equipment on which the association recently expended over $14,000.

In accepting the gift of the improvement association the Council obligated the city to furnish electricity for the new equipment. This, it is estimated, will cost about $10,000 a year. One clause in the deed of gift provides that failure on the part of the city to keep the globes lighted will cancel the deed and the system will revert back to the improvement association.

A committee of Broadway property owners yesterday morning went before the Council to explain the lighting situation on Broadway. Attorney John G. Mott said that when the lighting project was started the association expected to retain control. All went well while the street lights were placed, but the lighting companies declined to go to the expense of connecting with the light poles unless they were given some guarantee as to how long the system would be maintained. The association not being incorporated, it could assume no liability.

After a careful consideration of the question the association decided that the city itself could best furnish the illuminant for the new system. Mr. Mott urged that if the city will light Broadway, the Spring, Main and Hill-street improvement associations will not be slow in installing similar systems, turning them over to the city under the same conditions. The result will be that Los Angeles will within a year become one of the most handsomely illuminated cities in the world, providing the young attorney's predictions are verified.

At the morning session the offer of the Broadway association was referred to the Gas and Light Committee. In the afternoon the committee reported favorably and the donation was accepted.

One reason advanced by two members of the committee for the prompt acceptance is that there is now pending before the State Legislature a bill empowering a majority of the property owners on any street to establish an assessment district for maintenance of a system of street lighting. The committee explained that, in case this bill becomes a law, it will be easy for the city to turn the lighting equipment back to the associations, if it does not pass the city can discontinue the lighting at any time the expense bids fair to become a burden. In either case the municipality has no money invested in the enterprise.

BRICK CONTRACT.

FINAL AWARD IS MADE.

Brick are now available for use in the outfall sewer in any quantity up to 2,000,000 a month.

The Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company yesterday filed with the Council a bond in the amount of $20,000 binding itself to furnish 9,000,000 brick at the rate of a million a month. A similar guarantee was made by the Simons Brick Company for delivering 8,887,000 brick and by the Southern California Brick Company for delivering 2,000,000 brick.

The security offered by the brick companies was satisfactory to the Council and the contracts for brick were approved. At the same time the City Clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for delivering brick and cement along the line of the outfall sewer.

City wagons will this morning commence hauling brick from the Santa Monica kilns of the Los Angeles Pressed Brick Company to the tunnel section of the outfall sewer.

WATER LANDS FOR SALE.

TEN MILLION GALLONS DAILY.

Through its attorney, John D. Mott, the Paso de Bartolo Water Company yesterday made to the city a tender of the sale of water-bearing land near the town of Whittier. The company claims to own land that will produce 10,000,000 gallons of water daily.

On motion of Councilman Kern a special committee composed of three members of the Council, the Mayor, City Engineer and City Attorney was appointed to investigate the offer made by the Paso de Bartolo company. Kern, Hiller and Hammon represent the Council on the committee.

Claim is made by Engineer Storrow of the Paso de Bartolo company that, at the point where the company's land lies, the underground flow derived from the San Gabriel watershed converges into a narrow compass, and it is there tapped by the company's wells. He asserts that the water if not drawn off by the wells sinks and flows directly to the ocean without being of benefit to anyone.

The Council is asked to appoint a commission to determine the value of the company's property.

CHANGES NECESSARY.

FIRE-FIGHTING APPARATUS.

Before the Nott engines which are being purchased by the city for the fire department are accepted, they must be made to conform with the specifications under which the advertisement for engines were originally made.

This decision was rendered by the Council yesterday on recommendation of the Fire Commission. None of the engines used in the recent test were built according to specifications. The two Nott machines which were in the test are to be purchased for the department, but the alterations demanded will delay their deliver for several days. The purchase price is $9500.

BONDS ARE SOLD.

DETENTION HOSPITAL ASSURED.

Municipal bonds in the amount of $50,000 were yesterday sold by the city to the Merchants' Trust Company. The securities were voted a year ago to defray the expense of the construction and equipment of a detention hospital.

Difficulty was experienced in finding a purchaser for the bonds, for the reason that the 3½ per cent. interest which they bear does not make them an attractive investment in a market were money generally commands 6 per cent. interest.

Just as soon as the plans can be drawn the Council will advertise for bids for the new hospital building. It will be located somewhere in Chaves ravine, in the vicinity of the present pesthouse.

FORCE INCREASED.

STREET DEPARTMENT.

Assured by Street Superintendent Hanley that he will not allow the expense of his department to exceed the estimate made by the Auditor and the Finance Committee, the Council yesterday passed an ordinance creating positions for 115 extra laborers in the street department.

Mr. Hanley explained to the Council that there are times when it is necessary to employ a large number of men for a few days to clean and repair streets. This, he said, is imperative just now on account of the damage wrought by the recent rains. He agreed that the expenses of the department should not exceed $26,000 a month.

The ordinance creates the office of secretary to the Street Superintendent, at a salary of $125 a month. Mr. Hanley yesterday afternoon appointed Homer Kennedy to the place, pending a certification of an applicant by the Civil Service Commission. Mr. Kennedy is a young real-estate agent who rendered Mr. Hanley valuable assistance in the last municipal campaign.

Spur Track.

Application was yesterday made to the Council by the Pacific Electric Railway Company for a franchise for a spur track commencing at Ninth and Santee streets and extending over private property and across Seventh and Eighth streets to the entrance of the Pacific Electric Railway building. The application was referred to the Board of Public Works.

ANOTHER SPOOK FIT IN COUNCIL'S HALL.

SPOOK HOWTON had another attack in the Council yesterday afternoon.

This time he imagined that he saw in Rev. T. S. Montgomery, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, a personification of the slayers of Dr. Cronin, with a stray gang of the "Black Hand" thrown in.

Rev. Mr. Montgomery was one of a committee of ministers who went before the Council to petition that a portion of February 14 be declared a holiday.

As the committee was leaving the Council chamber he stopped back of Howton's chair and spoke a few words to him in a low tone of voice.

Howton leaped from his seat and in a wild, hysterical outcry called that he had been "threatened," and begged his confreres to protect him.

The scene is well deserving a place in the Howton epic which Dr. John R. Haynes, C. D. Willard and the editor of the Evening Express are now compiling.

It was the first time in the history of the city that such "lawlessness" has been carried right into the halls of legislation.

Hereafter we may expect a cordon of police at the City Hall on Council days to protect legislators from the personal attacks of such desperate characters as Presbyterian ministers.

The next time "Bob" Burdette attempts to lead a gang of wicked desperadoes into the Council chamber under the guise of "harmless ministers" as he did yesterday afternoon, he may find the entrance barred by a Gatling gun.

Howton has reported from time to time through the medium of the Express, his personal organ, the receipt of threatening letters warning him to "Beware of the fate of Dr. Cronin." He has told in black-faced Express type how, "I am taking my life in my own hands when I go into the Council to fight for my people, but it is worth the sacrifice."

Late last night Howton was reported to be working on a clew connecting the threat made by Rev. Mr. Montgomery with a shooting scrape that occurred Sunday evening on the outskirts of the tenderloin.

C. D. Willard, Howton's man Friday, was in the Council chamber when the alleged "threats" were made. His mission was said to be selling tickets to the Howton banquet.

MARTIAL LAW, EH?

He is expected to convince Mayor McAleer that martial law should be declared until the insurrection against the peerless Sixth Ward statesman and reformer has been put down, and the insurrectionists properly disciplined.

It was Willard's ingenuity that recently subjected several hundred citizens of the Sixth Ward to the torture of receiving nightly a "sample copy" of the Evening Express.

What wonder that there were two murders and three suicides in the ward in five days!

Rev. Mr. Montgomery's "threats" against the Sixth Ward Councilman were as much of a surprise as a rotten egg in an angel cake.

The committee of ministers entered the Council chamber about the middle of the afternoon. They lined up meekly in the space reserved for petitioners and did not appear at all belligerent. Rev. Burdette, their spokesman, announced that "This imposing array is only a committee of harmless ministers." This threw the Councilmen off their guard.

And when the ministers presented their petition asking the Council by resolution to declare February 14, between the hours of 11:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. to be a legal holiday, it was granted without the least show of resistance. That is, except from Howton. Although a regularly ordained Spiritualist preacher himself, he did not look with favor on the request of the Christian ministers and voted against it.

The ministers' committee filed out as quietly as they came in. Rev. Mr. Montgomery, who is a resident of the Sixth Ward and who worked for Howton in the last campaign, paused and spoke to him as he passed.

MINISTER'S VERSION.

This is what the minister last night said took place:

"I said to him: 'As a resident of the Sixth Ward I expected you to vote for that resolution.'

"He said: 'We differ on that.'

"I said: 'I expected better things of you. I at least expected you to vote right on questions of morality and I shall most certainly remember it.'

"At that he leaped from his chair as though he had been stung and commenced crying out that he had been threatened. I left the hall without understanding what it was all about."

WHAT HOWTON SAID.

"Mr. President, I have been threatened, threatened right here on the floor of the Council. I must look to my fellow members for protection.

"I beseech of you who voted in the affirmative for that motion of the ministers to move for reconsideration. I never expected things to come to such a pass that I should be threatened while occupying my seat in the Council.

"It means persecution on account of my religious beliefs.

"Will not some one of you who voted in the affirmative on that motion move for a reconsideration?"

Not a Councilman moved.

"I again beseech of you for the protection that any Councilman has a right to require. I voted as my conscience dictated. I am threatened and persecuted for it."

Here the spook Councilman wandered off into a meaningless ramble that nowadays concludes most of his speeches on the floor of the Council. He rubbed one hand falteringly across his face and through his hair, stared blankly about as though recovering from the effects of a self-imposed hypnotic spell and sank back weakly into his seat.

WILLARD PAINED.

There was no comment either from the chairman of the Council or from his confreres. They had grown used to the scene and knew that comment was unnecessary. Only Willard looked pained. He had lent the fake reformer his moral support by look and gesture until the fit of incoherence came. He now thought that somebody ought to do something.

Chairman Summerland looked down on the heads of the reporters and shook his own in a half-apologetic, half-sympathetic motion.

Clerk Wilde went on reading the City Engineer's report, and the "desperado" who had the temerity to threaten a Councilman on the floor of the Council chamber was allowed to escape unapprehended.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

MINISTER SCARED ADELE AWAY.

CHORUS GIRL POSED AS A SALVATION ARMY LASS.

Deserted Her Family and Resumed Her Place in the Theatrical Profession, and is now Starring at a Minor Theater—Thrice Divorced and Satisfied.

Mrs. N. Adele Hauter caught religiosity on top of stage fever, and that ended her married life. She had been wedded twice before, and had got a divorce in each case, and when the minister told her that she was living in adultery with her third husband she hurried off to San Francisco.

Robert Hauter told all about the end of his marriage yesterday in Judge Conrey's court, and he was corroborated by his mother and other witnesses. He fell in love with a chorus girl in a traveling theatrical company that played a short engagement at San Antonio, Tex., where he was then living, and married her.

Mrs. Hauter wouldn't leave the stage. She just "doted" on her profession, and for two years after her marriage she kept before the footlights. Then she acceded to the wishes of her husband and settled down to a quiet married life. The Hauters removed to this city, and a little son arrived to brighten up the household. Mrs. Hauter had a good voice, and she sang in one of the local churches, and later became an enthusiast in singing about the street corners with the Salvation Army. She didn't belong to the army, but sang in the cause.

Then occurred the incident that broke up the Hauter household. Mrs. Hauter told her husband that her minister had talked seriously with her, and had told her that having been divorced from her previous two husbands, she was really living in an adulterous union with him. Hauter wanted to have just about three minutes conversation with the minister himself, but his wife dissuaded him. She left at once for San Francisco, and refused to return to her home and husband. She even abandoned her boy.

But by a strange coincidence at the very time that the husband was suing for divorce on the ground of desertion, Mrs. Hauter was filling a star engagement at the Cineograph Theater under the stage name of Mlle. Lucretti Fanchon. She had returned to her first love—the theatrical profession, and though so near at hand she put in no answer to the complaint, and made no appearance in court. The decree was granted to the husband.

CARPENTER IS SENTENCED.

A FIVE-YEAR TERM.

C. M. Carpenter, the officer of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals who was found by a jury to have been guilty of involuntary manslaughter in killing Christian David Frey, while the latter was seeking to evade arrest at the cockfight held at the Hunter ranch, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Smith to San Quentin for five years.

The motion for a new trial was argued at some length, and affidavits were offered by the prosecution contradicting the statements embodied in the affidavits presented by counsel for the defense. Associate counsel for the prosecution reminded the court that before starting for the Hunter ranch the officers discussed the possibility of shooting taking place. Despite the fact that the law prohibits anything of the kind in cases of misdemeanor, Zimmer, Carpenter and Dromgool agreed that they were instructed about shooting, but were silent as to what the instructions were. Counsel argued that they contemplated the commission of a felony, and two of the men went armed with rifles. This being so they were, under the law, as guilty as Carpenter, and can be tried and convicted for felony.

Attorney Luther Brown responded to the prosecution, but had not proceeded very far when the court interposed, and in passing the opinion of the court on certain points really made further argument unnecessary. Judge Smith held that the objection raised to one of the jurors being ineligible to sit on the case, and to another one being asleep were trivial.

"I tell you, gentleman," said the court, "I think this man has had a fair trial. Whenever there was any possibility of doubt he got the benefit of it. I don't see how the jury could have come to any other verdict. I think that they and the court had no doubt that the shot killed Mr. Frey. Some witness raised the question of a fourth shot, but the bullet hole in the back of the head settled that.

"One has to trust to his eyesight and hearing—to his senses—to gain correct information. True, a man may be mistaken, and yet when that buggy seat was presented the testimony spoke in such positive terms we all had to acknowledge the inference to be drawn from it. Though somewhat inclined the bullet hole precluded the possibility of the shot having been deflected by striking the limb of a tree. If I had been sitting on that jury I would have found the defendant guilty of involuntary manslaughter.

"It is conceded that in cases of misdemeanor no one has authority to use firearms. I can conceive of a contingency where a man might use firearms in making an arrest, and that is where an officer has to defend himself. But I think the jury was right in returning the lowest form of verdict. Of course, there has been a good deal of feeling, but then we have to administer the law."

The motion for a new trial was overruled and the motion in arrest of judgment denied. Then Carpenter was ordered to stand up. With difficulty he arose, as he is suffering from rheumatic twinges, and Luther Brown went to his aid. Without any personal comment Judge Smith passed a five-year sentence to the State Prison at San Quentin.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

HURT AT CROSSING. Frank Dunham has begun suit against the Los Angeles Interurban Railway Company to recover $2220 as damages and for moneys expended on account of an accident in which the plaintiff suffered. It is alleged that Dunham was run into by a car October 14 of last year at the curve at Front and Second streets, while he was in the act of crossing the track.

PIERCE GOES FREE. William Pierce, who, with W. Carrier, robbed a man with whom they had been carousing, was allowed to go free yesterday by Judge Smith, on motion of the District Attorney. Both the men participated in the robbery, and Carrier is now in the State's prison, but Pierce stood ready to turn State's evidence, and has been rewarded with immunity. His companion at the last moment pleaded guilty, and the case never went to trial.

WILLIAMS DIVORCE. L. J. Williams was yesterday granted a divorce from Frank Williams by Judge Trask, on the ground of desertion. The parties were married fifteen years ago, and two years ago the husband deserted his home. Since then Mrs. Williams has kept a store on Buena Vista street.

THINKS IT HELL. Mrs. Ruth Fly was yesterday committed to the State asylum at Patton by Judge Wilbur. Mrs. Fly is 45 years of age, and imagines that she is in hell, and that she is never going to die, but she may be released from her bondage if she is burnt up. The patient was in an asylum at Pueblo, Colo., two years ago, and was then brought to California by her husband in the hope of some beneficial result.

RUIZ SENT UP. Francisco Ruiz formally pleaded guilty to grand larceny yesterday before Judge Smith, but notwithstanding he would not confess to the crime. He was charged with having gone to Bush's jewelry store on January 13, and while the attention of the proprietor was taken up in serving a lady, grabbed two trays of rings and ran for his life. There were forty-eight rings, valued at $100, and Ruiz got away with his booty, but was arrested next day with three of the rings upon his person. He said that they had been given to him, and denied the robbery. Judge Smith tried to make him confess where the rest of the plunder was put, but Ruiz said that though he pleaded guilty, because he had no witnesses to speak for him, yet he did not commit the robbery. The court said it would make a difference of more than a year in his sentence if he confessed to the truth, but the man was not to be moved. He was then sentenced to five years in San Quentin.

MINIMUM SENTENCE. Santiago Gandara was yesterday tried before Judge Smith and a jury on the charge of having stolen $6 from Felipe Verdugo, at the home of Anita Matinez, No. 533 Commercial street, on October 16 last. Verdugo recovered his money and thrashed Gandara pretty well, and since then the defendant has been boxed up in the County Jail. The court took these things into consideration when the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and sentenced Gandara to only ten days in jail.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT. J. A. Wilkett and William Dougherty, two employés at the Fashion stables, were brought into Judge Wilbur's court yesterday on attachments. They had been subpoenaed as witnesses in the estate of H. W. Gerk, deceased, but failed to appear. Wilkett said he had not much of an excuse to offer, but such as it was it was true. He said he had overslept, and never once thought of the subpoena. Dougherty shuffled about, and also failed to make a reasonable excuse. At the close of the case the court said that he should hold both the witnesses to be in contempt, but as he was satisfied that they did not mean to impede the process of the court he would inflict a fine only of $2 each—the amount of their fees. A failure to pay the fine would mean one day in jail, and the money in each case was at once forthcoming.

TO BOOM FERNANDO. The San Fernando Board of Trade has incorporated without capital stock, and with the following directors: R. P. Waite, J. T. Wilson, E. L. Brown, F. A. Powell, E. B. Schwinger, T. J. Walker and W. H. Crooks.

PEASE INVESTMENTS. The Niles Pease Investment Company has incorporated with a capital stock of $200,000, fully subscribed. The directors are Niles Pease, Sherman, Herbert, Grace and Cornelia G. Pease, all of this city.

WANT THE MONEY. When Mrs. Jennie E. Curtis (colored) died she left an insurance policy for $1000, and some real estate and four minor children; also a widower, Abraham Curtis. Jennie E. Moore, a niece of the deceased, filed an application to be appointed administratrix of the estate and guardian of the four children. The father of the children filed a similar petition. The estate came up for probate yesterday in Judge Wilbur's court. Curtis stood pat on his right as the husband of the deceased, while Mrs. Moore contended that he was not fit to administer the estate, owing of his inability to provide for his family while his wife was alive. Further hearing will be had today.

SUING FOR DAMAGES.

ACCIDENT AT FAIR OAKS.

The suit of Elizabeth and James Dewey against the Los Angeles and Pasadena Electric Railway Company, to recover $5000 as damages, is being tried before Judge York and a jury.

On November 18, 1901, Mrs. Dewey was driving along South Fair Oaks avenue in a one-horse buggy, and while crossing the track was run into by one of the defendant's cars. She was thrown violently to the ground, and it is being claimed that the ligaments around the hips were badly torn, the pelvic organs dislocated, and such injuries sustained as are of a permanent character.

TOUGHS IN A TIGHT CORNER.

HEAVY BAIL DEMANDED STAGGERS PRECIOUS TRIO.

Young Crooks Realize Seriousness of Offense When Called Upon to Face Charges of Highway Robbery — Examination Wednesday. Assault-to-Murder Cases Set.

"Curly" Williams, "Dutch" Long and Charles Vernand were staggered in Police Court yesterday when they learned that bail in the sum of $5000 would be required before they would be allowed to see the light of day once more, other than through prison bars.

Highway robbery is a more serious charge than the precious trio have yet been called upon to face, though they are not strangers to chain gangs and penal institutions. The three men were arraigned in Justice Austin's court yesterday, and their preliminary examinations were set for Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

"And your bail will be $5000—in each case if you would like to be free pending your examination," remarked the court.

This staggered the three young toughs, who are charged with having perpetrated two hold-up jobs early Sunday morning. For the first time in their lives they seemed to realize thta they were "up against the real thing," to quote their own phraseology. Schuetzen Park rows and numerous minor escapades in which the three had given the police no little trouble, faded into insignificance when the men thought of a penitentiary sentence for highway robbery.

"Dutch" Long broke down completely when led back to jail, and remarked brokenly to his pals: "I guess it's all up with us now, boys."

The three are charged with having held up and robbed two men near Sixth and Main streets early Sunday morning, and to have attempted another job of highway robbery only a short distance away from the scene of the first one.

ASSAULT CASES.

BAIL FIXED FOR TWO.

F. Rubel, the Hindu soothsayer who shot and dangerously wounded Harry Clemente, palmist, in a row over business, Saturday night, appeared in court yesterday minus his white robes and oriental demeanor, and was arraigned on a charge of assault with intent to murder. The court designated Thursday at 10 o'clock as the date for Rubel's preliminary examination. Bail in the sum of $3000 was fixed, and Rubel went to jail in default of this amount.

Clemente, the victim of the Hindu's wrath, is in no immediate danger from the three bullet wounds in his left leg, unless unlooked-for complications arise.

C. H. Scott, better known as "Long John," was arraigned and his trial was set for today. Investigation of the shooting affray in which Scott fired a couple of bullets into the body of George Jenkins, another "cullud gemman," early Sunday morning, led the police to believe that Jenkins was the aggressor. Witnesses of the affray say Jenkins looked for trouble all during the evening and nagged Scott till the latter finally became excited and shot at his tormentor. Jenkins will recover.

NO BOOZE IN SIGHT.

SAD PLIGHT OF CARLSON.

Ed. Hetreck and B. F. Duff were fined $25 each in Police Court yesterday for having beaten C. Carlson because he wanted money or whiskey. It appears that Carlson gave the two men four-bits to purchase liquor at a downtown restore Sunday night and waited for them at Fifth and Wall streets. When the men bought whisky, Carlson didn't get a drink, and when he demanded his money or booze, Hetreck and Duff fell upon him and "smote him hip and thigh." Hetreck and Duff were fined $25 each and warned to let drug-store whisky and other people's money severely alone.

ARTIST IN TROUBLE.

PURLOINED EMPTY PURSES.

I. C. Siewertsen of No. 654 South Los Angeles street, who poses as a wood-carving artist, made a grand mistake one day morning when he tried to pass a couple of empty purses to Clerk Vaughn's drug store on Spring street. Siewertsen didn't know the long arm of John Miles, was looking, but Miles was there in time to nab the artist and turn him over to a policeman. Siewertsen told Justice Austin in Police Court that the purses belonged to him, but the court evidently took another view for the artist was declared guilty of petty larceny. He will be sentenced today.

GREAT WAR OF THE TURF.

May Grow Out of Refusal of Racing Dates.

Keene Making Strong Fight for Morris Park.

Gus Guerrero Badly Hurt. Fighters Matched.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The World says that, on the highest authority, it learns that the Jockey Club which was in session today will refuse dates to both Morris Park and Empire City this season, and that all Morris Park stakes and purses will be decided at the new Belmont Park. If this is so, the greatest turf war in years is likely to be precipitated, with Edward Corrigan and his new American Jockey Club lined up with the new concern fighting for control in the East.

James R. Keene, who is one of the stewards of the Jockey Club, it is understood has made a strong fight for Morris Park. What this signifies can only be conjectured. Both Morris Park and Empire City have powerful interests behind them, and declare that if refused dates, they will take Percy Grayclaw before the courts. That it will not hold water is the opinion of many legal experts.

LATER.—Late tonight, it is learned that the Jockey Club formally decided to refuse the Empire City track a date, and that Judge Parker, the late Democratic candidate for President, has been retained to make a fight for the track in the courts. Morris Park was not mentioned, but it is announced from the inside that Belmont will probably buy Aqueduct, close its gates, and give the dates to Morris Park.

TWO PUGILISTIC MATCHES.

ATTELL BROTHERS FIGURE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two matches were made this afternoon, in which the Attell brothers figure. Abe, who recently was the means of pushing Tommy Murphy back one peg in the pugilistic ladder, has been matched with Eddie Hanlon before the Industrial Athletic Club of Philadelphia. This will be a big handicap, as Attell can easily do 122 pounds at the ringside.

Monte Attell, conquerer of Johnny Reagan, has been matched with Jimmy Walsh, the Boston bantam, to box 20 rounds at 116 pounds before the Commercial Athletic Club of St. Louis, February 14.

PLAY BALL BALLED OUT.

LOST ON A FOUL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Play Ball was the fourth race at Oakland today easily, but he was disqualified for bumping, and Barney Dreyfuss was placed first. It was a bad day for favorites. Only two won. The weather was clear and the track heavy. Summary:

Six and a half furlongs: Miller's Daughter, 109 (Jones,) 15 to 2, won; Mabel Bates, 107 (Michaels,) 10 to 1, second; San José, 103 (Bonner,) 12 to 1, third; time 1:29. Macena, Fay Templeton, Andvari and Meada finished as named.

Futurity course: Agnes Mack, 105 (Knapp,) 7 to 1, won; Revolt, 109 (Michaels,) 7 to 1, second; Greenock, 114 (Minder,) 7 to 2, third; time 1:18. Adirondack, Fort Wayne, Waterspout, Effervescence, Educate, Planeur and Laura D. finished as named.

Five and a half furlongs: Dr. Leggo, 112 (Bonner,) 9 to 5, won; Tramotor, 109 (Knapp,) 7 to 10, second; Edrodun, 109 (Alarie,) 9 to 1, third; time 1:14. Can't Tell and Invoice finished as named.

Mile and an eighth: Barney Dreyfuss, 109 (Powell,) 6 to 1, won; Erne, 109 (Knapp,) 5 to 2, second; Play Ball, 104 (Daly,) 11 to 2, third; time 2:06. Expedient, Estoy Listo, Glenarvon and Ethel Scruggs finished as named.

One mile: Cincinnatus, 108 (Alarie,) 5 to 2, won; Isabellita, 103 (Jones,) 9 to 1, second; Modicum, 103 (Fountain,) 10 to 5, third; time 1:49. Mr. Farnam, Wary Times and The Fretter also ran.

Seven furlongs: Soufriere, 107 (Miller,) 11 to 10, won; Foncasta, 109 (Knapp,) 11 to 2, second; Cloverland, 112 (Michaels,) 11 to 5, third; time 1:35. Circus, Hugh McGowan, Theodora L., Resin and Chablis finished as named.

GUERRERO KNOCKED DOWN.

ATHLETE INTERNALLY INJURED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—While attempting to cross Broadway at Sixty-sixth street, Gus Guerrero, a well-known athlete and holder of several long-distance pedestrian records, was knocked down by a cab. He is suffering from internal injuries which probably will prove fatal. The driver of the cab saw Guerrero, but because of the slippery pavement was unable to check his horse in time.

Guerrero, twenty years ago, was one of the best-known pedestrians in America, and participated in many six-day contests in different parts of the country.

SERGEANT DOLAN DEAD.

WELL-KNOWN RIFLE SHOT.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Commissary-Sergeant Thomas J. Dolan of the Twelfth Regiment, New York National Guard, who had many claims to being the champion rifle shot of the world, is dead at his home here after five months' illness. He was 52 years old.

In 1881, Dolan won the military championship of the National Rifle Association. He was one of the American team contesting for the Palma trophy in England in 1883, and made the highest score of any rifleman.

Dolan won the secretary's prize at Creedmoore in 1888. On September 6, 1886, at the tournament in Sea Girt, he won the President's medal and the military championship of the United States, making 92 out of a possible 100 on a 1000-yard range. He was the author of several works on gunnery.

PLAY BALL BALLED OUT.

LOST ON A FOUL.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—Play Ball in the fourth race at Oakland today won, but he was disqualified for fouling, and Barney Dreyfuss was placed first. It was a bad day for favorites. Only two won. The weather was clear and the track heavy. Summary:

One and a half furlongs: Miller's Daughter, 109 (Jones,) 15 to 2, won; Red Bates, 102 (Michaels,) 10 to 1, second; San José, 103 (Bonner,) 12 to 1, third; time 1:29. Macena, Fay Templeton, Andvari and Meada finished as named.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] There will be no changes in the baseball rules of the two big leagues for the season of 1905, all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding. This positive statement was made today by President Harry Pulliam, of the National League, on his return from his western trip.

President Pulliam predicts the greatest season ever known throughout the country. He took occasion to nail the rumor that the Boston National Club was to be transferred to Baltimore, declaring it to be absurd and absolutely incorrect.

"Every sign," said Pulliam, "points to the greatest baseball season in the history of the game. The public liberally supported the game last year, and this year will probably see all records broken."

BLUEROCKS.

MATCH IS IN SIGHT.

Irving Pearne and Burt Brady yesterday challenged Lee Slocum and George Beeman, all of the Tufts-Lyon force, to a bluerock shoot and the challenge was as readily accepted as given. The two teams will contest at the Los Angeles Gun Club grounds near Sherman a week from next Sunday and the records will probably remain unjolted.

Slocum shot at twenty bluerocks once; the knowledge of the others is mainly derived from occasional bad half hours bucking barrels of the things up and downstairs.

AFTER QUAIL.

A WEEK'S JOURNEY.

Police Officer W. A. Strode and Deputy Game Warden Chris Alter will leave this morning for San Jacinto where they expect to have a quail and duck shoot, remaining there until the end of the season February 15.

The rains have made some ponds in the San Jacinto country and it is upon these that the gentlemen rely for their camp larder as regards the webfeet.

HEAVY TRACK, WEAK FIELDS.

Hard Going Responsible for Very Ordinary Card.

Many Owners do Nothing but Scratch Themselves.

Rubiana Wins Opening Event at Long Price.

Undeterred by a heavy track four favorites went out and won at Ascot yesterday as if sloppy weather was just to their liking, and none of them were false favorites, either, that had been cooked up by some tout overnight. One of them ran second in Canejo in the last race and the one in the first race, Sun Mark, is evidently a dry-track runner, for she didn't get in the money.

The usual good-sized crowd of sports went to the track and sixteen ring books cut in, in addition to the two field books and the combination book. That all of these had a fairly strong play was evidenced by the crowd of willing bettors in the ring, and the sports must have had the best of the argument from the way they cashed on the favorites that won. The winners were Dr. Hollis at 3 to 1 in the second race, Azelina at 6 to 5 in the third, Arabo at 3 to 5 in the fourth, and Henry Ach at even and 6 to 5 in the fifth. The other winners were Rubiana at 10 to 1 in the first race and Anirad at 4 to 1 in the last.

There were no particular features on the card and no races that stand out as anything extra good, for the races were only ordinary ones on account of the good horses not being entered on a muddy-track day. The track was in very fair condition considering the recent heavy rains, and the sports made the best of their opportunities to get rich quick.

What might be called the good things of the day were Dr. Hollis, Azelina, Arabo and Henry Ach, and the wise sports played these heavily all the time and they all won. Dr. Hollis in the second race was in at 113 pounds and yet picked up four pounds overweight and won rather easily from Expressing, with Ila third. The time was 0:49, which is very good considering the weight and the condition of the track. There was a field of nine in this race and the play was fairly good on the majority of the horses, but the sports who follow the dope closely played Hollis and Expressing.

Azelina finally won in a field of five horses, with Sea Sick second and Metlakatla third. No less than six were scratched out of this, but every race suffered on account of scratches, four horses being rubbed out of seven entered in the fourth race for instance, and two out of five in the fifth. As an illustration of how some owners are afraid to trust their precious animals in the mud or on a heavy track, there were sixty-two horses entered in the six races and one-third, or twenty-one, were scratched. This narrowed the fields down to but three horses in both the fourth and fifth races.

In the fourth Arabo, Gorgalete and Robador started and Moriarity fooled around at the string until he was left standing by it when the thing went up and the race was between Arabo and Gorgalete. They ran locked together all the way, but Dugan on Arabo outrode Crosthwaite on Gorgalete and landed Arabo a scant winner in a driving finish. The fifth race furnished another rather exciting finish, for Henry Ach, Sinicado and Hilona were all in a bunch as they came to the end and they finished as named. Both Henry and Hilona were alternate favorites, Henry being the best liked at first, and Hilona closing as favorite by a shade.

The first race went to Rubiana at 10 to 1, Dillon on the favorite, Sun Mark, being enough to kill off what chances she might have had, for Dillon is said to be nothing but a stable boy who is sometimes given a mount. In the last race Canejo, the favorite, tried to give Anirad ten pounds and a beating, but could not do it, but the old mare did run second. This race called up old recollections, for one of the entries was Henry Clay Rye, who has been seen on the local tracks at all the races. He is not much account apparently, and had the poor jockey Passey on him, who could not help the horse any, and in fact got him away from the post in about last place.

Overweights—Lady Rinora, 1; Rubiana, 1½; Sun Mark, 2; Vindicta, 1½.
Rubiana dashed to front at barrier's rise; showed keen speed throughout, simply playing with others, winning in big romp. Dixon worked her way up steadily from indifferent beginning; moved up fast entering stretch; responded gamely to whip and finished resolutely, showing vast improvement over her last few previous starts. Hersain appeared to loaf first half, but rallied fast last eighth, finishing resolutely. Nanon flagged palpably final eighth.

Winner b. m., 4, St. Gatien-Darina. Trained by J. Coffey.
Scratched—Palmist, Flora Bright, Headstrong.
Anirad reserved for stretch run; moved up fast entering quarter, swung wide, but came fast last eighth, winning going away fast. Canejo stole up fast next rail final quarter, finishing resolutely under keen urging. Exapo off flying; showed keen speed for six furlongs, but tired fast last eighth. Capable fell away just after entering stretch. Others always outrun.

Scratched—Jerusha, St. Winifride, Red, Linda Rose, Tyrolian, Durbar.
Azelina moved up like flash passing far turn; easily came away from others entering stretch, winning as rider pleased. Sick in long-sustained stretch drive easily wore down Metlakatla final eighth. Latter tired palpably final eighth, but ran to his best form. Bellairs fell away fast just after entering stretch.

Arabo place 1-10; Gorgalete place 1; all out show.
Scratched—Fustian, McGrathiana Prince, Waswift, Head Dance.
Arabo closed up fast on Gorgalete first quarter from indifferent start; appeared to hold her easily safe after entering stretch, but had to be hand ridden out closing strides to stand off latter's bold challenge. Gorgalete off flying, ran on heels of Arabo until entering stretch, where she moved up to almost even terms, faltered for instant opposite final eighth, but responded gamely to whip final sixteenth, finishing resolutely. Robador bolted suddenly from center of track to outside rail just as barrier went up, and was pulled up after running first quarter.

All out place and show.
Scratched—Witch Hazel, Taxer.
Ach forced sharp pace first half, then gradually came away, holding others easily safe final sixteenth, winning as rider pleased. Sinicado swung to rail final quarter; stood long stretch drive gamely, just lasting long enough to save second place. Hilona responded willingly to punishment, finishing resolutely, and was fast wearing down Sinicado closing strides.

384 SIXTH RACE—One mile and fifty yards. Selling. Four-year-olds and upward. Value to first, $325.

WONDER TRIP OF AUTO CAR.

White Steamer Ploughs Way Down from Baldy.

Mud, Snow and Quicksand on Mountain Roads.

An Endurance Test High in the Frozen Peaks.

Bedaubed with gobby black oil, ponderous with plasters of adobe mud, still cheerfully rolling its way, a traveling sample of every kind of bad road known to man, supplemented by a few that must have been invented specially for the occasion, F. C. Fenner's big White automobile under the guidance of Chauffeur C. P. King, steamed into the city yesterday noon, after one of the most remarkable tests of mechanical and mental endurance ever chronicled since motoring became an established fact.

From an altitude of over seven thousand feet, through snow and ice; through quicksand and torrent-gorged creek beds, pouring their wild waters down to the sea, with impetuous violence that more than once threatened to engulf the car and frequently swept over its footboards—laboriously chewing its weary way through the plastic, slippery adobe and soaked sand, Fenner's big machine survived an experience that has endeared it to him until twice its price would not part the pair.

Being the owner of a valuable mining property known as the "Big Horn," and lying above Big Rock Creek on the far side of Baldy, Mr. Fenner found need of a ready means of communication, the Southern Pacific and Santa Fé roads being many miles from his property. The automobile was suggested and with some misgivings, Mr. Fenner purchased a steam car of most modern and powerful make, never fancying for a minute that he would so soon face such an ordeal as that which began Sunday morning at 8 o'clock, when, in a driving rainstorm, he and Chauffeur King steamed out of Big Rock Creek for home.

The rain was cold and wet—and the two men were in a hurry. They did that eight miles down a rocky grade to Schumacher's ranch-house in just half an hour, and at 9:30, after paying off his miners, Fenner was ready. King twisted the throttle open, and the long pull for Palmdale began.

The desert roads are good—far beyond the idea of any one who has not seen them—but the mountain streams were swollen far over their banks, and the big White touring car turned automobile boat more than once. Running along Fenner's private telephone line, Little Rock Creek was seen ahead a raging sheet of muddy brown snow water, icy, and a hundred feet wide. It was up to the hubs, but had to be crossed, and there was but one way.

King gave her the fire, and the generator boiled up to a thousand pounds pressure per square inch; he carried it to the water's edge, cut out the fire and drove the big car through the foaming flood under the bursting force of that pent-up half-ton push of steam, rolling safely up the farther bank after his desperate dive. That put faith into the hearts of the drivers; then they were ready to tackle anything short of a three-story brick wall.

There was no lack of obstacles to conquer all the way back, but they reached Palmdale without any untoward accident. The rear wheels had been slipping, and Chauffeur King routed out the village blacksmith, bought all the chain in the place and forged an anti-skidding device, practically turning those drivers into paddle wheels for pounding their way through the mud! There wasn't enough chain, but Yankee ingenuity proved equal to the emergency, and fence wire was pressed into service.

It was 1 o'clock when the long grade out of Palmdale was tackled on the high speed, and heavy snow was falling as the pair sped through Acton. Near Lang, in the Soledad, there were three places where Fenner and King had to get out and dig the road level; the mud was so soft that the car body left its impression, and the wheel hubs scraped long slashes through as the powerful car slowly chewed its way ahead. A creek thirty inches deep and surfaced with oil put the horn out of commission, but it was never missed, for the tourists were alone in their journey. Just above Lang, to add variety to the experience, a big bed of quicksand threatened to engulf the car, but the paddle wheels held at the hubs and another victory was won.

At Saugus the snow turned to pelting rain again; and the trip through the Fremont Pass down the Newhall grade was one of those things automobilists see in nightmares—a vision of steep, "slick," writhing mud, clay and adobe; slippery as grease and every bit as treacherous to run over. The big car crawled down hill like a mountaineer's mule—"hind feet first." Spinning away on the reverse when the brakes failed to stop the car's sliding, the foot of the grade was finally reached, and at 5:45, the tired, wet pair brought up in San Fernando worn out and willing to listen to the villagers' advice not to tackle the Tejunga that night. A good dinner and a night's rest were not more welcome than dry clothes, and at 10:15 yesterday morning the greasy adobe was again speeding by under foot. Some of the worst roads of the trip were encountered between Burbank and Tropico; sticky mud up to the axles more than once threatened to stall the machine at the end of its journey, but, somehow, some way, King managed to warp her through. The two riders stepped out of the car, and shook a few pounds of mud off themselves at just 11:30, having come down from Fernando over the worst of roads in an hour and a quarter—good running time under favorable conditions.

The trip going up to Fenner's mine was in its way almost as remarkable as the eventful return journey; from Los Angeles to Palmdale the White steamer beat the Southern Pacific's schedule time by doing the sixty-five-mile climb in three hours and thirty-five minutes, attaining a height of 3240 feet at the summit. But that was a week ago before the recent heavy rains. The desert roads were then in fine condition, and King crossed them at a thirty-mile-an-hour clip.

The gentlemen were not entirely unprepared for their experiences of the homeward trip; all week they had gratuitous education in what a steam automobile properly handled can do. Tuesday morning, after passing the night in Palmdale, they started for the mine, climbing to 6500 feet elevation. Snow and ice were everywhere; the men had been sledding distillate up to the power plant, and the car tried to follow them up a 15 per cent. grade. Chauffeur King hit it at full speed, and the momentum of the machine carried it up 200 feet, but there the rear wheels spun dizzily around, and in spite of its strength, the car slid slowly back. That was before the chains had been made for the wheels. It was necessary to leave the machine out all night, and walk the remaining mile and a half to the mine, returning the next morning.

"I have been everywhere with automobiles, but I never had such an experience as this," says King. Still he liked it, and says that notwithstanding all the misery of cold, wet clothes, he enjoyed the experience keenly.

YACHTSMEN IN ROCKY WATERS.

BIG BREAK IN SOUTH COAST YACHT CLUB CIRCLES.

Dissatisfied Element Plans to form Another Club and Has Enlisted a Few Sympathizers—Several Boat Owners May Make a Change in Their Affiliations.

The inner harbor of the South Coast Yacht Club has been disturbed by great gales of hot air lately, and in consequence a split in the organization seems most probable.

For some time there has been a dissatisfied element, opinions differing as to the extent of the grievance. Things went from bad to worse until the club caught the "scrap" bacillus that has inoculated almost everything amateur in this vicinity, and the result has been an open rupture which came to a focus last Friday night when a meeting was held in the office of Rice Bros. on New High street. These gentlemen seem to be the pioneers of the new yacht-club idea, and it is reported to be their purpose to establish a successor to the South Coast organization. How successful this project will be depends entirely upon how many yacht owners decide to switch. Those in a position to know declare that there are not enough boats for one good club now, let alone two, and no disposition has been evidenced by the members to build any more this winter. For this reason the break in South Coast ranks is greatly deplored by those who have the best interests of yachting at heart.

W. C. Folsom and William Birk, who own the Mischief, will probably go with the Rices, and Herbert Pease, owner of Venus, has also been flirting with them. Just where he and C. H. Wedgwood, owner of Marie, stand is not known. As the trio named own the three boats which did most of the racing last year, their loss would be a most serious one.

The South Coast Yacht Club in a few seasons has grown from a membership of thirteen to over a hundred and until the present misunderstanding has been in a most flourishing condition. Members insinuate that the disaffection of the Rice brothers was born of their failure to be elected to any office at the last meeting which was a stormy one indeed. The Rices have always been conspicuous figures and active workers in South Coast circles, the younger being especially marked for his excessive zeal and butting-in propensities.

It is understood that a small clubhouse on the Wilmington side of the bay is contemplated by the "secesh" element. "Too many front-porch yachtsmen" seems to be the slogan of the Rice boys and those who contemplate going with them.

WIDGEON GIVE BETTER SPORT.

NEW DUCKS DRIFT IN AND A FEW LIMITS ARE HAD.

General Rejoicing Among the Scattergun Fraternity—R. E. Ross Kills Rare Bird in European Widgeon — Cinnamon Teal Seen in Greater Numbers—The Day's Luck.

The widgeon have come, and gunners are glad.

Up the coast wind driven on the wings of the storm, an army of the beautiful big birds drifted in late last week, and for a few hours Sunday morning some of the southern marshes sounded like old times again. Clouds of snowy breasts raced with the flying rain scud over field and pond, decoying in one dizzy swoop as only well-fed widgeon will, and men in the blinds below reaped a rich harvest. In the sportsman's heart there is a spot consecrated to these chubby, round roamers of the air; none of the other ducks display quite the same qualities of sagacity and rashness mixed. When the widgeon are in plenty, hunters are always sure of a shoot. Sprigs may be many; sometimes they will not come down But their running mates are always willing victims for the sacrifice, and not a clubman of experience but recalls with the keenest of pleasure more than one good day spent with their sweet whistles making merry music over the ponds—days that drive their impression doubly deep in memory's walls never to be forgotten. When a man is feeling himself, and "hitting 'em in the middle," making perhaps double after double and dropping his birds clean it is a fair wager that the widgeon flight is on the marsh. There is a swift steadiness about the bird's travel in air that distinguishes him from the sometimes slow and again fast sprig, or the erratic little teal.

The Cerritos Club had the best of the widgeon Sunday and limits were killed. R

In the list of specialties some striking movements were noted on 'Change at New York, but the interest was generally dulled. Under pressure, the Chicago wheat market weakened, May option closing at 116 3-8@116 1-2, and July at 101 1-2@101 5-8.

ATTACKING THE OCTOPUS.

The State of Kansas is just now very much perturbed over the question as to whether a State oil refinery shall be established. Wearied with the exactions of the great Standard Oil monopoly, the people of the ever-bleeding commonwealth are casting about for means and ways in which to escape the burdens placed upon them by this giant combination, which has at its command the wealth of an empire, and which never scruples to use this immense wealth and the power which goes with it to promote its own interests and to strengthen the tremendous power which it already wields.

In the California Legislature is also pending a bill (introduced by Assemblyman John of San Luis Obispo,) providing for the establishment of an oil refinery under the control and auspices of the State. There is not much probability that the California Legislature will take favorable action on this measure, for reasons which are many, and which it is not necessary to discuss here in detail. But in Kansas the case is somewhat different, and there is at least a possibility, though hardly a probability, that the proposed State oil refinery will be established.

The outcome in Kansas, should the pending legislation go through, will be watched by every State in the Union with especial interest. The proposition has a strong flavor of Socialism, it is true. But it is a truth so apparent as to be almost axiomatic that no merely private enterprise is sufficiently powerful to grapple successfully with the Standard Oil monopoly. Indeed, it is doubtful whether even a sovereign State of the Union will be able to hold this monopoly in check to any satisfactory extent. It is not in the least improbable that the national government may yet be obliged to take the matter in hand.

At present, the Standard Oil Company is able to buy up Legislatures at its will, to throttle all competition, and in a thousand devious ways to strengthen and maintain its grip upon the throats of the people. It has its organizations and its agents in all parts of the country. Its tentacles reach and envelop all interests which it can use to advantage. With a stroke of the pen its head manager can levy a tax of millions upon the people, and can remit the tax at his pleasure. And the taxes levied upon the people by John D. Rockefeller and his associates in this unrighteous monopoly must be paid. From them there is no appeal, for the octopus deals in a commodity which is practically a necessity to a large proportion of the people. As the people must have this commodity, and as the Standard Oil Company controls the greater part of the output, there is nothing else for the people to do but to pay the prices arbitrarily fixed by this most complete of all monopolies.

Already there are significant divisions in the Kansas Legislature on the question of establishing a State oil refinery. The Standard Oil Company maintains a strong lobby at Topeka, as it does at most of the other State capitals, and this lobby will probably be able to prevent any legislation which it deems prejudicial to its interests. But, should the proposed State oil refinery be established, there would be no certainty that it would bring about the results expected of it. Standard Oil Company would doubtless be able to make the State refinery a failure, and a constant source of loss to the State, by underselling its products to such an extent that there would be no demand for the product of the State refinery. It is to be remembered in this connection that the Standard Oil octopus has resources so enormous, and power so arbitrary, that it could crush the competition even of one or more of the sovereign States of this Union, if it saw fit to do so. This unholy monopoly has never yet hesitated at anything, however unscrupulous, to win its victories over competitors, and there is little likelihood that it ever will so hesitate, until it runs up against a power greater than itself, and capable of bringing it to its knees.

Obviously, the only power capable of this achievement is the government of the United States. Here, again, we are met with the power of the monopoly to control the votes of Senators and Representatives—a power which is exemplified in the present attitude of many members of both houses of Congress toward the President's plans for curbing the transportation monopoly. But there are limits beyond which even corporation-elected Senators and Representatives dare not go in defiance of popular demands. The President has already taken preliminary steps toward investigating the operations of the Standard Oil Company. These operations will not stand the strong light of publicity, which the President intends shall be thrown upon them, and sooner or later the oil monopoly, in common with other illegal combinations, will doubtless find itself up against the Federal government.

In his efforts to break down the illegal power of the trusts, the President has the full sympathy of the great mass of the American people. They will stand by him to the last, for they know that his motives are unimpeachable; that he aims only to serve the public good; and that he cannot be turned from his course by cajolery or threats. The "corporation members" of Congress, in both houses, will be compelled at length to heed the wishes of the people, their ultimate masters, instead of obeying the voice of monopolists, their present masters.

BOON TO AMERICAN MANUFACTURERS.

By a new reading of the tariff law a further stimulus will be given to manufacturing enterprise throughout the United States. Up to the present time the Dingley Act has been so narrowly interpreted that only in a limited number of direct cases has the manufacturer been able to secure the refund of the import duty levied on raw materials when these same raw materials have come to be exported as manufactured goods. For example, hides are liable to an import duty, and the tanner has been paid the drawback if the hides leave the country in the form, simply, of leather. But if the leather has gone into any of the hundred and one further processes of manufacture—if it has been converted, say, into boots or into saddlery—no claim for drawback has hitherto held good against the customs department. This is now to be altered.

As a dispatch from our Washington correspondent announced yesterday, a circular of instructions has been issued by the treasury, pursuant to an opinion given by the Attorney-General, that manufacturers may import every class of raw material or partly manufactured material, pay the duty at the time of its importation, and recover 99 per cent. of such duty when it is shown that the imported article is contained in the finished product subsequently exported. This is indeed a most momentous decision for the American export trade in finished products, and also for American manufacturing generally, as a little reflection will show.

Hitherto the tax on the raw materials of industry, imposed on the principle of all-round protection in the interest of home producers of such materials, has been a heavy handicap on American trade abroad. A further handicap has been our high rate of wages—double or treble that of our competitors. But this latter burden—a cheerfully-shouldered burden, by the way—has been compensated for partly by the efficiency of our labor, partly by the use of labor-saving machinery on a scale that no rival country can approach, and partly by the excellence of our business methods. Therefore, high-priced American labor has been able to fight low-priced European labor in its own markets, and with continuous and rapidly expanding success. As shown by detailed figures prepared by the Department of Commerce and Labor and quoted in these columns yesterday, our exports of iron and steel manufacturers, which afford a reliable index to the condition of trade in every other department, have been multiplied fourfold in a single decade. Even for the end of still further increasing this wonderful progress, no patriotic American wishes to unjustly cut our present liberal scale of wages. But that we may effect the same object in another way the latest interpretation of the Dingley Act makes clear. We can get rid of this other handicap on our export trade, namely, the duty on raw materials that in several lines of manufacture has kept American enterprise out of foreign markets, and in so doing has restricted American development at home by cutting off one set of profits and denying the insurance against overproduction which an export business affords.

The measure of the handicap may be most clearly shown by a specific case in point. Let us take the woolen trade. For the protection of our wool growers we have an import duty on wool. But for the manufacture of certain grades of woolen goods, and for production generally in the vast quantity necessary to meet the demand for woolen garments, other wools than American-grown wools are required. England draws her supplies of the raw material, free from all lands, especially from Australia, where the finest merino fleeces are produced. With our imports of Australian wool restricted, we have never yet been able to catch up with the English woolen manufacturers, and compete with them on the markets of the world. Our enterprise, therefore, in this special line of manufacture has been hindered and kept down, so that even for the supply of our own cloth markets we are still largely dependent on the output of English looms. Free wool would be a hard hit to wool growers in a country wedded to all-round protection. But, by the operation of the drawback on exported woolen goods, we shall undoubtedly greatly stimulate our activity in this department of manufacture, induce capital to be more abundantly invested in woolen mills, and so benefit at once the home wool grower, our artisan class, and American consumers generally.

The same argument applies right along the line. For instance, here in California we may henceforth import by the cheap sea route tin plates from England, manufacture them into cans, fill these cans with our domestic fruit, and export the fruit, securing at the same time the refund of the original duty paid on the tin plates, less a trifling discount for the services of the customhouse. By this means our fruit export trade will receive an important stimulus, without the tin-plate manufacturing industry of America being one penny the worse off. The extension of exports can only be of benefit to the whole nation, while in many classes of goods a foreign trade will be created that is impossible now under the present handicap. We shall import larger quantities of raw materials, add to their value by manufacture, increase the amount of wages distributed to our workmen, draw the profit from abroad, and in no shape or form damage the market for identical raw materials produced at home in inadequate quantity for such an industrial extension. So the more liberal operation of the drawback system promises to have ramifications and developments that will help more than any single event during recent times toward establishing American manufacturing predominance throughout the markets of the world.

Religious revivals seem to be epidemic just now. Besides the great missionary outburst going on in Los Angeles there are similar movements being conducted in various other parts of America, while both England and Wales are concluding the greatest revivals in their history. Notwithstanding, therefore, the attacks that are persistently being made against the Bible, the cause of Christ appears not only to remain intact, but also to be gaining a renewed and marked impetus.

Since bribery charges against four members of the California Senate have been instituted, a feeling of uneasiness is said to pervade the whole Legislative body, and bright hopes are now being entertained that the State Treasury may yet escape with five or six dollars in its coffers after adjournment takes place.

"The Harp that once through Tara's Halls" may yet strike up a few lilts, even though it has been so long without strings. A descendant of King Brian Boru, who reigned in Tara, is now to marry Sig. Marconi, who, it is well known, can drag sounds out of things without the use of any wires whatever.

Because the President of Cornell discredits the Bible, there should be no haste made to burn up all the existing copies of the good book now in existence. Bigger and more profound scholars than Dr. Schurman have attacked the scriptures without accomplishing any other result than to increase their circulation.

Crime is certainly fast approaching the limit in Los Angeles since even a poor, innocent brass band can't sit out in the sunshine on a Sunday afternoon without running the risk of having its bazoos and the seats of its trousers burned to a crip by heartless incendiaries.

Doubtless this Pennsylvania prediction about the world coming to an end was inspired to a great extent by the kind of climate those poor folks are having just now, which is such as to cause a man not to care much how soon the end comes only so the fire starts.

A Michigan justice of the peace declares that the continued cold weather in the Wolverine State is discouraging the bachelor men and maidens from entering the marriage state. Let them come to California—the Golden State—where love and the skies are always warm.

The revolutionary business in South America is not what it used to be, as witness the summary squelching administered by Argentina to the latest attempt at rebellion. Our sister republics of the south are steadily growing stable. It's good news and we can stand lots more of it.

The Hon. Miss O'Brien, whose engagement to Sig. Marconi is announced, should lose no time in bringing about the wedding, if she really cares to have him. It is not so long ago that the Signor wirelessed himself out of his engagement to another fair lady.

Prof. Schurman makes the strange acknowledgment that he "doesn't attempt to explain the miracles of Jesus Christ." Well, it is gratifying to know that there is at least one thing that a college professor doesn't attempt to explain.

Away down South in Dixie,
Look away, look away—
Ice and sleet and chill winds blowin',
Powerful cold and a heap o' snowin',
Look away, look away,
Look away down South in Dixie.

As we take a retrospective glance at that little suggestion of winter that broke upon our vision yesterday morning, we shouldn't forget the fact that the East would have regarded it as a visitation of summer.

While it is to be regretted that Birmingham has been visited by a fire, the affliction is somewhat softened by the fact that it gave some of those frozen Alabamans an opportunity to warm themselves.

It now appears that Kouropatkin's recent failure to wipe up the Japs on the Hun River is attributable to the falling down of the Poles. There is also a suspicion that the wires failed to connect.

That Pennsylvania Dutchman who predicts the end of the world in 1908 stands a big chance of getting into the same class with such prophets as Tom Lawson and Jim Hill.

It is noted that Germany is soon to have an automobile corps. The old fear is entertained, however, that it simply means a multiplication of the automobile corpse.

THE PLAYHOUSES.

MASON OPERAHOUSE. It is rather hard lines for a young man like William W. Jefferson to be cast for the role of Bob Acres, after the great and beloved Joseph Jefferson, with his inimitable art, has set the stamp of his genius upon the character. Comparisons with Joseph Jefferson are inevitable for those who come after. William Jefferson's Bob Acres is in many respects imitative of the character as portrayed by Jefferson, père. He also resembles the latter, distinctly, in facial expression as well as in the general character of his stage work. Taken on its merits alone, without invidious comparisons, young Mr. Jefferson's interpretation is amusing, interesting, and fairly interpretative of Sheridan's droll conception.

Joseph Jefferson, Jr., as bluff and ready Sir Lucius O'Trigger, is eminently satisfactory. His interpretation of that rollicking, devil-may-care character is instinct with virility. It has in a marked degree the qualities which give it ease and naturalness; hence it is convincing. Joseph Jefferson, Jr., does not bear so close a resemblance to his father as does William, but both are true scions of the Jefferson stock, and both will doubtless make their mark in the theatrical profession if they choose to continue in it—which they probably will do, as they are descended from a line of theatrical ancestors.

It is not often that we are permitted to see a better character creation than that of Verner Clarges in the role of Sir Anthony Absolute. Mr. Clarges has very successfully eliminated his own personality from this role. His portrayal is notably devoid of stagginess. He stands forth as the embodiment of the self-willed, egotistical, but generous old Sir Anthony of Sheridan's strong and clear imagination.

The work of Harold M. Shaw, as Capt. Absolute (otherwise Beverly) is satisfactory only in parts. It lacks the vim and dash that should characterize it. Mr. Shaw is too tame, by far. In a way, this role is the keynote of the play, and it certainly should be played in anything but a languid or listless manner. Mr. Shaw needs to "brace up" and put more fire into his work.

As Mrs. Malaprop, Miss Pfolliett Puget fulfills the requirements of that exactinhg role most admirably. To say that Miss Paget's rendering of this role does not suffer by comparison with that of the lamented Mrs. John D. Drew is to accord it the highest possible praise, for Mrs. Drew was one of the most famous of the numerous interpreters of this quaint but never-to-be-forgotten character. Miss Paget's conception and enactment of the role are of high artistic value.

Lydia Languish—ah, there have been so many Lydia Languishes, so gushing, so droll and so beautiful. Miss Blanche Bender in the present engagement at the Mason plays the part with very good discrimination. A little more "eclat," a little more liveliness, a little more affectation would help matters materially. But, take her performance as it is, Miss Bender is decidedly attractive and satisfactory in the role. While her work might be improved upon it might also be very much worse.

The engagement will close tomorrow evening.

BELASCO. The company at Belasco's Theater is playing "The Prisoner of Zenda" this week, and the recurrence to the greatest of all romantic dramas seemed amply repaid by popular success last night.

Of the play itself, of course, there is nothing new to be said. The man who knows Anthony Hope's beautiful story would be insulted by a repetition, and he who doesn't know is more than willing to keep up the bluff that he does.

Galbraith as Rudolf and Rudolph, Miss Gardner as Flavia, Oberle as Hentzau, Bliss as Sapt, Scott as Black Michael, Vivian as Fritz, Edith Lemmert as Antoinette and Barnum as Bertrand, complete the list of principals.

No better work is done in the play than that of Bliss, in the role of Sapt. His make-up is perfect; no more ideal physical creation for the bluff Teutonic warrior could be imagined. His abruptness and intensity of speech are also characteristics greatly in his favor in the impersonation.

And Joseph Galbraith as Rassendyl is another splendid specimen of stage creation. His comedy in the earlier scenes is delicious, and is succeeded by seriousness of equal import. It would be hard to imagine a better Von Tarlenheim than Vivian.

Oberle as Rupert Hentzau was anxiously awaited. It is an assumption new to this actor—at least since his arrival in Los Angeles. The situations were carried through with dash and brilliance.

The prologue is an exquisite bit of scenic work and costumery, and in it, like a proper human jewel in a fitting setting, shines Howard Scott, a seventeenth-century dream of satins and laces and small clothes, indolently graceful as a dandy of a Bourbon court, innately courtly as a King Charles cavalier.

BURBANK. "In Darkest Russia" is the apropos drama staged by the Burbank stock company this week. It is not new, nor is it a wonderfully accurate picture of the conditions prevailing in the White Empire, but with furbishing and intelineations it served to work the big first-night audience up to an unwonted pitch of enthusiasm.

The characters are varied, and the story is simply laid in the well-beaten paths of romance. Ilda Barosky, daughter of a Jewish exile, is summoned to play in the house of Count Paul Nazirnoff; she is an excellent violinist, and suddenly mingles with her melodies the Polish national anthem, a thing accursed in the minds of Nazirnoff's guests. The nobleman has her dragged from the alcove in which she is making her music, and is about to lash her, when his son Alexis Nazirnoff, a colonel of the Imperial Guard, stays his hand and prohibits him from doing any violence. Here is your dramatic situation par excellence, and the love story and a happy or tragic denouement is plain. The author—Sydney Grattan Donnelly—has chosen the former, and the development of the plot shows an underground retreat of the Nihilists, a police scene and a Siberian outpost. Alexis finally gets the girl he loves, the unrighteous are punished with a vengeance that is more than justice, and despotism is thoroughly squelched—at least as far as the good characters of the play go.

In the part of Alexis Nazirnoff, William Desmond is to be seen at his best. At his entry, in the frogged Grenadier coat and tight white trousers of the Desmondian Russian officer, the gallery went hoarse over the magnificence of his princely personality. His lines are heroics, and the opportunities of exhibiting a noble and magnanimous personality are coincident with his every appearance.

John Burton plays an American, touring Russia and perpetrating Americanisms on every man, woman and child. Henry Stockbridge is convincing as Ivan Barosky, and Stanley Johns is impressive in the part of Constantine Karlscheff, Minister of the Interior. Duffield is the chief Nihilist.

The feminine impersonations are especially good, Miss Blanche Hall enacting Ilda Barosky with force and magnetism. She won much favor with her audience. Jessie Mae Hall is to be seen in a creation new to her—that of the Baroness von Ilneberg, a coy young widow whose only language is French, and whose fascinations for masculinity are very dangerous.

GRAND OPERAHOUSE. Ben Hendricks and others are giving a display of the Swede as he is staged at the Grand Operahouse. The difference between "Yon Yonson" and "Ole Olsen" is infinitesimal—when you come down to fine distinctions. To be sure, the story is not the same, but there are the patient and good-hearted though untutored Swede, the innumerable comicalities into which he twists himself through his ignorance, and the nearly equal number of serious misadventures in which he plays the heaven-sent rescuer, and the final love story whose orange-blossom finale winds up the show.

There are a number of other clever people in the company, and the entertainment serves to amuse.

ORPHEUM. The programme at the Orpheum this week is unusually good. It contains a pleasing variety of numbers, and some of these are far above the average vaudeville performance.

Perhaps the most interesting thing on the bill is Will M. Cressey's little one-act comedy, written by himself, and acted by him with the able assistance of Blanche Dayne. Will Cressey is a vaudeville genius—perhaps the greatest of his time, being an equally artistic writer and actor. He presents the "brand new character" of Hip Flitters with much charm and truth. Indeed, Hip Flitters, who is the janitor, manager, stage carpenter, property man, electrician, treasurer and pianist of the Town Hall—is simply a most delightful Pooh Bah of New Hampshire.

Binns, Binns and Binns are comedy musical artists" who are truly musical. Alcide Capitaine, who poses as "the perfect gymnast," is a beautiful and graceful woman, and it is a genuine pleasure to watch her aerial evolutions. The Great Therees, too, gave an enjoyable "comedy hypnotic act." The motion pictures are new, one funny and the others full of outdoor nature.

The hold-overs are Four Musical Avolos, that wonderful acrobatic family, the Ten Nelsons, and Clifford & Burke, eccentric comedians.

BITTER MR. BROWN.

He Says He Has It "Flung at Him," No Matter Where He Goes.

The Times acknowledges receipt of the following energetic letter:

LOS ANGELES, Feby. 6, 1905.—Editor Los Angeles Times: Sir—I am a Comm'l Traveler from the east & every where I go in your City—let it be steam RR. or motor Line—retail or Job Hdw house I have flung at me, we must patronize home industry, in San Francisco it was all native Sons—Now am I right in thinking Calif people are barring the east? it made me so hot today—thinking that Los Angeles & in fact all So Calif had been built by eastern money that I could not help telling one man—that if one should preach in the east that Calif Prunes were not fit to eat the stones contain prusic acid the most deadly poison known to Chemists & that only florida & Ital oranges were healthy—& show a few pictures of the eastern people who Come here for health & become insane that RRds fruit ranches & winter Cottages in So Calif would be selling for 5c pr bunch in a very short time, hoping you will have something to say to this in your Correspondence Col

I am
GEO R BROWN

[Is it fair to ask an editor to "have something to say" in the face of such an astounding arraignment as this? Wouldn't it be more reasonable merely to request him to resign, or die, or go East? Yet, rather than be the silent cause of more bitterness in Mr. Brown's cup, the editor will say something—briefly.

Certainly the fact that Mr. Brown is "a Commercial Traveler from the east and every where" entitles him to sober attention, no matter what he might say or how peculiarly he might say it. We are sorry that everywhere he goes he "has it flung at him;" such treatment is needless, rude and reprehensible; no gentleman likes to be "flung at." Doubtless Mr. Brown misunderstood the railroads, motor lines and hardware houses; in speaking to him of "home industry" they referred to the climate, patronage of which in this end of the State is compulsory. As for San Francisco's Native Sons, he must remember they grew up there. No, California is not "barring the east;" California is nursing the East back to health, gentling it into good temper. Sorry that Mr. Brown found it annoying to be made hot; were rather chilly ourselves; but then, he is from the East. Neither Los Angeles nor Southern California "has been built by eastern money;" the one was built by Destiny, the other by God. It would be folly to preach that California prunes are not fit to eat; too many people are full of them. It may be true that "only florida & Ital oranges are healthy;" we only know that California oranges are healthful. We must not be blamed if eastern people "come here for health and become insane;" madness seized them because they could not get here sooner.

A little regular exercise, milder clothes and fewer of them, a cold bath and a Turkish towel before breakfast—and you will come through all right, Mr. Brown. Good night.]

BAD MEXICO CITY WRECK.

CITY OF MEXICO, Feb. 6.—Twenty-three people have been injured in a wreck which occurred as the train was returning from the railway conductors' picnic at Popocatapetl Park. Some of the injured were seriously hurt. There were 300 persons on the wrecked train, which was derailed and went over a six-foot embankment.

$5.00

Once we sold a seven-jeweled Waltham or Elgin movement in a dustproof nickel case for $5.00. It was the Best value ever offered by anyone in a thoroughly good watch for a very small amount of money. Circumstances so happened that we were compelled to raise the price of this desirable watch. We are happy to say that we are now again supplied with stock of these watches large enough to commence another sale, and with the idea that under no circumstances—this year, at any rate, will there be an increase in the price beyond $5.00. TEN TRAINS ALL BUNCHED.

Stalled Santa Fe Overlands Coming in Today.

Loaded to the Guards With Overdue Tourists.

Postoffice and Express Men Will Have to Slave.

Everybody connected with the local offices of the postal department and the Wells-Fargo Express Company will slave today. Every man available in either business has been called into service and it's a case of "coats off and work ye terriers work."

Ten long-overdue, storm-bound Santa Fé overlands will arrive during the day, from 6 o'clock in the morning at regular half-hour intervals. Most of them will come in consolidated and double-headed, but all will carry mail and expressage.

It was estimated at the Wells-Fargo office yesterday afternoon that it will take eighteen big double wagon-loads to haul that company's expressage from the Santa Fé station. This was said to be a very conservative estimate, based on average business. Postal clerks will have no time to gaze through the window at the cloudless sky; they will be engulfed in a deluge of mail almost equal to the El Casco cloudburst.

No through trains have arrived on the Santa Fé since Thursday, but they have been leaving Chicago on schedule time, crowded with tourists bound for sunny California. While these trains have banked up all along the line at points as far east as Ash Fork, no discomfiture has been experienced through lack of provisions or good water. After long waits some of the automatic heaters and lighting apparatus have "run down" like clocks that need winding, the motive power being generated by the revolutions of the wheels.

At 8 o'clock last night five overlands were reported massed at Needles, waiting for the order to go ahead. Of this number two are California Limiteds, one is a Raymond & Whitcomb special bound for Riverside and the other two are regular overlands. Three trains were at Kingman and two at Ash Fork.

The Southern Pacific line via El Paso was opened up early yesterday morning and by evening all overdue trains had arrived and traffic was moving in good shape. Yesterday's Golden State Limited, Rock Island route, which was due at 2:20 in the afternoon, did not arrive until shortly before midnight, and other trains of the day were from 7 to 9 hours late. Most of the mail and expressage will have been disposed of before the Santa Fé unloading.

PUBLIC NOTICE ALL HE WANTED.

DISSOLUTE FIREMAN TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

Mark McCormick, Who Has Figured in Many Scrapes and Repeatedly Disgraced the Fire Department, Took Too Much Poison to Kill Him.

Mark McCormick, who has recently done more than any other member of the fire department to bring it into disrepute and who has successfully exercised some mysterious "pull" enabling him to hold his job, took a sufficient quantity of "rough on rats," the base of which is arsenic, last night to kill a score of men. He said he wanted to die and that may be true, but he was too drunk to know just how much of the poison to take and this fact prevented the success of his effort. Some of the members of the fire department stated last night that in their opinion McCormick simply desired to again attract public attention.

More than a year ago a man named Smith beat him almost to death because of his attentions to Smith's wife. Only last week he was before the Board of Fire Commissioners for having viciously assaulted "Shorty" Gridley, another fireman, using his teeth to his victim. He has since been under suspension.

Last night at his home on East Washington street near Main, McCormick took nearly a whole box of the rat poison and then told of it. He had been quarreling with other members of the household and was in an ugly temper and they thought he was trying to frighten them.

When he began to get sick from the effects of the poison, a physician was summoned who administered an emetic and ordered the patient removed to the Receiving Hospital. There the surgeons worked with him for an hour before he was pronounced out of danger.

McCormick was connected with the No. 7 engine company at Twenty-fourth street and Maple avenue.

TEN TRAINS ALL BUNCHED.

Stalled Santa Fe Overlands Coming in Today.

Loaded to the Guards With Overdue Tourists.

Postoffice and Express Men Will Have to Slave.

Everybody connected with the local offices of the postal department and the Wells-Fargo Express Company will slave today. Every man available in either business has been called into service and it's a case of "coats off and work ye terriers work."

Ten long-overdue, storm-bound Santa Fé overlands will arrive during the day, from 6 o'clock in the morning at regular half-hour intervals. Most of them will come in consolidated and double-headed, but all will carry mail and expressage.

It was estimated at the Wells-Fargo office yesterday afternoon that it will take eighteen big double wagon-loads to haul that company's expressage from the Santa Fé station. This was said to be a very conservative estimate, based on average business. Postal clerks will have no time to gaze through the window at the cloudless sky; they will be engulfed in a deluge of mail almost equal to the El Casco floodburst.

No through trains have arrived on the Santa Fé since Tuesday, but they have been leaving Chicago on schedule time, crowded with tourists bound for sunny California. While these trains were banked up all along the line at points as far east as Ash Fork, no discomfiture has been experienced through lack of provisions or good water. After long waits some of the automatic heaters and lighting apparatus have "run down" like clocks that need winding, the motive power being generated by the revolutions of the wheels.

At 4 o'clock last night five overlands were reported massed at Needles, waiting for the order to go ahead. Of the number two are California Limited, as one is a Raymond & Whitcomb special bound for Riverside and the other two are regular overlands. Three trains were at Kingman and two at Ash Fork.

The Southern Pacific line via El Paso was opened up early yesterday morning and by evening all overdue trains had arrived and traffic was moving in good shape. Yesterday's Golden State Limited, Rock Island route, which was due at 1:20 in the afternoon, did not arrive until shortly before midnight, and other trains of the day were from 7 to 9 hours late. Most of the mail and express will have been disposed of when the Santa Fé unloading.

PUBLIC NOTICE ALL HE WANTED.

ABSOLUTE FIREMAN TRIES TO COMMIT SUICIDE.

Mark McCormick, Who Has Figured in Many Scrapes and Reputedly Disgraced the Fire Department, Took Too Much Poison to Kill Him.

Mark McCormick, who has recently done more than any other member of the fire department to bring it into disrepute and who has successfully exercised some mysterious "pull" enabling him to hold his job, took a sufficient quantity of "rough on rats," the base of which is arsenic, last night to kill a score of men. He said he wanted to die and that may be true, but he was no fool to know just how much of the poison to take and this fact prevented the success of his effort. Some of the members of the fire department stated last night that in their opinion McCormick simply desired to again attract public attention.

More than a year ago a man named Smith beat him almost to death because of his attentions to Smith's wife, and last week he was before the Board of Fire Commissioners for having viciously assaulted "Shorty" Griffith, another fireman, using his teeth as his victim. He has since been under suspension.

Last night at his home on East Washington street near Main, McCormick took nearly a whole box of the poison and then told of it. He had been quarreling with other members of the household and was in an ugly temper and they thought he was trying to frighten them.

When he began to get sick from the effects of the poison, a physician was summoned who administered an emetic and ordered the patient removed to the Receiving Hospital. There the surgeons worked with him for an hour before he was pronounced out of danger.

McCormick was connected with the No. 7 engine company at Twenty-fourth street and Maple avenue.

SHUTDOWN OF WELLS ADVISED.

LARGE PRODUCER WOULD THUS BRACE MARKET.

Valuable Improvements in Well-Drilling Tools Patented by Los Angeles Man—Fullerton Company Strikes Oil in that Field—Work Stopped on Well at Carlsbad.

A. C. Shuster of this city, known as an oil-well driller and contractor, has taken out patents for drilling tools, consisting of socket, stem and bit, constructed especially with a view to their prompt recovery if lost in a well. This invention is interesting to oil operators who have had experience with fishing jobs, sometimes resulting in the final loss of costly tools or in the abandonment of the well. The socket is also adapted for use of a steel cable and there are several other improvements in each of the tools that are declared to be of much value to drillers and oil operators. The principal change in the bit is a hole near the top arranged to admit a hook used in fishing jobs. Mr. Shuster has received a number of offers from manufacturers of oil-well supplies desiring to handle his patent.

FUEL OIL NOT PLENTIFUL.

"There is very little good fuel oil in California outside of the Kern River and Coalinga fields," said J. A. Chanslor, president of the Associated Oil Company, in an interview with the Times correspondent at Bakersfield during a recent visit to the combine's properties at Kern River. "There is also some good fuel oil in Los Angeles county, but the lighter oils are not good for fuel, as they contain too much gas. The Santa Maria oil is a refining oil, not a fuel proposition.

"The organization of the independent producers of the Los Angeles district may be a good thing. If they will get together and are in shape to make a contract we will handle their oil. We already control 75 per cent. of the fuel production in the south."

SHUTDOWN URGED.

"What is needed in the California oil fields today is a shutdown everywhere such as was put into effect in Los Angeles some seven years ago, and which raised the price in a very short time from 40 to 75 cents," said G. W. Brookins of the Turner Oil Company yesterday. "Combinations for selling oil in a pool won't work as a curtailment of production will. Seven years ago I took this up, personally called on all the producers and in three days had the field shut down for a considerable period each month, the plan being to operate just only as many days each month as was absolutely essential to comply with the requirements of a lease or contract. There is oil in storage to fill nearly all contracts. During the former shutdown rather than produce I bought oil and paid 60 cents for it, to fill a 47-cent contract, knowing that I would get my money back from the increased price later on. Wells were shut down from twenty to twenty-five days a month until the price went up. If the producers in every field in the State will get together and act upon this plan there will soon be an improvement that will change the whole condition of the California oil industry. I cannot urge this action too strongly upon all."

TOOLS ARE LOST.

Work has lately been stopped on the well of the Mount Brothers at Carlsbad on account of the loss of the tools in the hole last week. At last reports the drillers were still fishing for them. The loss occurred at a depth of about 280 feet.

No other rigs are yet reported to be in actual operation, although some are being hauled from the railroad.

The discovery is reported of a large deposit of sand saturated with oil under the lime capping in what is now known as the Lonergan Basin.

The Fullerton Oil Company has struck a fine grade of light oil of 35 gravity at between 1690 and 1700 feet in a well just being completed in the Fullerton field. The Fullerton's oil is of a light refining variety, none being below 32. The oil from the new well is flowing steadily through the pipe, and it is proving a heavy producer.

Notice of Sale of Street Railway Franchise.

Office of the City Clerk of the City of Los Angeles, State of California, Los Angeles, Cal., January 30th, 1905.

To whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that an application has been made to the City Council of the City of Los Angeles for a certain franchise granting the right to construct and for the period of 50 years to operate and maintain an electric street railroad upon certain public streets of said city, hereinafter described, together with certain appurtenant and incident rights hereinafter mentioned.

And that it is proposed by said City Council to offer for sale and grant to the highest bidder said franchise upon the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned.

That said franchise is described as follows, to-wit:

A franchise to construct and for the period of 50 years to operate and maintain a double track electric street railroad over the route and in and upon the streets or portions of streets in the said city, described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at the intersection of Boyle avenue and Stephenson avenue, and running thence south along Boyle avenue to Seventh street; thence west along Seventh street to Spring street.

That the terms and conditions upon which said franchise will be offered for sale and granted, are the following:

That the street railroad constructed and operated under said franchise shall be used only for the transportation of passengers and United States mails.

That in all cases where said franchise is granted over streets now occupied by other railroad tracks, the grantee thereof and his or its successors and assigns shall have the right to operate over any and all the tracks of such other lines subject to the provisions and limitations of the statutes of the State of California applicable thereto; and in case the gauge of the tracks of said other lines of street railroad shall not conform to the gauge of the tracks of said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, said grantee, or its successors or assigns shall be permitted to lay a third rail over the distance traversed by said two roads jointly.

That the tracks to be laid under said franchise shall not exceed four feet and eight and one-half inches in width between the rails and shall be placed as nearly equidistant from the center of the street as possible, and as near each other as a proper regard for safety will allow.

That said grantee and his or its successors and assigns shall use in the construction of said road the best materials, including a rail weighing not less than sixty (60) pounds per yard, such as is used on first-class street railroads, which shall be satisfactory to the Street Superintendent and the Board of Public Works; and said rails shall be so laid as to be firmly imbedded or otherwise securely fastened together, and said grantee, and his or its successors or assigns shall at his, its or their own expense and cost pave or macadamize the said road between the rails between the tracks, and for two (2) feet on each side thereof, with the same material used by the city and under the same specifications and in the same manner as upon the street next to which said road runs respectively, and shall keep the same constantly so paved or macadamized and in repair, flush with the street, and provided with suitable crossings, and shall make the roadbed conform at all times to any established grade of the street, provided, however, that where any of the above-named streets have been graded or otherwise improved prior to the granting of said franchise said road-bed and rails shall conform to and be flush with the surface of said graded or otherwise improved streets, and provided further, such surface be above or below the official grade of such street or streets; and on all streets, said roadbed and rails shall conform to the official grade as established. And, provided, further, that upon any regrading or other improving of said street or streets, said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, shall be required to conform to said grade, or his or its successors or assigns, shall be placed upon and made to conform to said official grade. All repairs and grades to be made upon the pavements and to the satisfaction of the Street Superintendent of said city. In case the said grantee or his or its successors, fail to comply with the instructions given by said official for ten (10) days after service thereof upon the said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, or upon the agent of said grantee or agents of said grantee or of his or its successors or assigns, in Los Angeles, he, the said official, shall enter upon the said road of said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, and do the work as ordered by the City Council of the City of Los Angeles, said officer to keep an itemized account of the cost of said work, which he shall charge to, and his or its successors or assigns, by the acceptance of said franchise, agrees to pay immediately upon its being presented to said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, or to such manager or agent stationed in Los Angeles.

Provided further, that said grantee and his or its successors or assigns shall construct all necessary flumes and culverts for the free passage of water under the tracks of said railroad wherever and whenever necessary, and that all such flumes and culverts, and all curves, aqueducts, turnouts and switches shall be constructed in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the City Engineer.

Provided further, that said grantee and his or its successors or assigns shall have the right, subject to such regulations as are now, or may hereafter be in force, to excavate and occupy so much of the streets as necessary to properly construct said road, and the right to erect needful apparatus, boilers, engines and other appliances, to properly equip and run said road.

Provided further, that the City of Los Angeles in granting said franchise expressly reserves the right to pave, macadamize, renew or sewer any of the said streets, or the gas or water or other pipes therein, said work to be done so as to injure said road as little as possible.

Provided further, that cars shall be run each way, over the whole length of the road constructed under said franchise, at intervals of not more than ten minutes, between the hours of six o'clock in the morning and eleven o'clock at night, of each day, during the term of said franchise, except when prevented by the elements, riots, strikes, or unavoidable causes; provided, further, that cars shall be operated over said road with sufficient frequency to carry and provide a seat to all persons applying for transportation thereover, excepting in times of extraordinary and unfrequent accumulations of crowds that said cars shall be, at all times, and in all respects, efficiently constructed and conveniently equipped as the cars in use upon the best electric street railroads in the City of Los Angeles.

Provided further, that the cars upon said road shall be allowed to stand on any street or any street intersection in such a manner as to obstruct the use of the said street by vehicles or pedestrians.

That said grantee and franchise and his or its successors and assigns shall and will at all times upon and after the completion of said road, during the operation of the same and without further change, carry and transfer from passengers going in one direction, transfers good for continuous passage over and upon the said road and the lines of any other road or roads within the said city, and said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, does now or may hereafter own, control, operate, or have a controlling interest in, and provided, as a further condition, that said grantee and his or its successors or assigns shall and will at all times as aforesaid, issue or cause to be issued to said passengers without extra charge, a similar transfer from any and every other line or lines which said grantee or his or its successors or assigns does now or may hereafter own, control, operate or have a controlling interest in, as aforesaid, to, over and upon the road operated and maintained under said franchise.

That the rate of fare for any distance over said road or its branches one way, shall not exceed five cents for one passenger.

That persons under the age of eighteen years, who attend the public school of said city, shall be required to pay but half fare, provided that said pupils shall purchase their tickets in quantities of at least one dollar's worth at a time; such tickets to be available only between the hours of eight a. m. and six p. m., in actual passage to and from said school; and that said grantee and his or its successors or assigns shall sell such tickets whenever requested so to do by a pupil who shall present a certificate from a teacher, approved by the Superintendent of Schools of the city, that he or she is a pupil of said school.

And provided further, that said grantee and his or its successors and assigns, shall, at all times, carry all regular and special policemen, police officers, firemen and members of the City Council, and of the Boards of Police Commissioners, Fire Commissioners, Water Commissioners, Park Commissioners, Civil Service Commissioners, the members of the Board of Education, the members of the Board of Library, free over said road and over any other road or roads within said city, which said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns does now, or may hereafter own, control, or operate, subject, at all times, to such reasonable regulations as said grantee and his or its successors or assigns may prescribe.

Provided further, that said grantee, and his or its successors and assigns shall pay to the City Tax and License Collector of the City of Los Angeles, the license upon each car that is now, or may be hereafter, fixed by the ordinances of said city.

That the said grantee and his or its successors and assigns shall during the life of said franchise pay to the City of Los Angeles, in lawful money of the United States, two per cent. of the gross annual receipts of said grantee, and his or its successors and assigns, arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise. No percentage or possession paid for the first five years succeeding the granting of said franchise, but thereafter such percentage shall be payable annually, and said franchise is to be forfeited by failure to make the payments provided for. Provided, that if the said franchise is granted, it shall be an extension of an existing system of street railroad, then the gross receipts shall be estimated to be one-half of the proportion of the total gross receipts of said system which the mileage of such extension bears to the total mileage of the whole system, and said estimate shall be conclusive as to the amount of the gross receipts of said extension.

And it shall be the duty of the grantee of said franchise and of his or its successors and assigns to file with the City Clerk of the City of Los Angeles, at the expiration of six years from the date of the granting of said franchise and at the expiration of each and every year thereafter, a statement, verified by the oath of said grantee or his or its successors or assigns, or by the oath of the manager or presiding officer of said grantee, or his or its successors and assigns, showing the total gross receipts and gross earnings collected or received by said grantee or his or its successors or assigns, during the preceding twelve months, from all traffic over any part of the line for the construction and operation of which said franchise is granted, or over any part of the system of street railroad of which it may be an extension, and from all other sources, and within ten days after the time for filing aforesaid statement it shall be the duty of said grantee and his or its successors and assigns to pay to the City Treasurer of the City of Los Angeles, the aggregate sum of the said percentage upon the amount of the gross annual receipts arising from the use, operation or possession of said franchise, determined and computed in the manner hereinbefore provided.

And any neglect, omission or refusal by said grantee or his or its successors or assigns, to file said verified statement, or to pay the said percentage of the said gross annual receipts at the times or in the manner hereinbefore provided shall work a forfeiture of said franchise and of all rights thereunder, to the City of Los Angeles.

That the work of constructing said road shall be commenced within six months and completed in more than four months from the date of the granting of said franchise, and shall be continuously prosecuted after commencement, and without unnecessary or avoidable intermission or delay; that said work of construction shall be completed within not more than three years from the date thereof; that said work of construction shall be commenced and continuously prosecuted, so that at least one-third of the work of constructing said road shall be completed within one year from the time of commencement; and that if said work be not so commenced, prosecuted or completed within the times, or in the manner specified, said franchise shall be forfeited.

That said grantee, or his or its successors or assigns, shall not sell, transfer or assign the franchise granted hereby, except by a duly executed instrument in writing, filed in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Los Angeles, and provided further, that nothing in said franchise contained shall be construed to grant to said grantee or his or its successors or assigns any right to sell, transfer or assign said franchise or any of the rights or privileges thereby granted, except in the manner aforesaid.

That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise, shall thereupon immediately ipso facto effect a forfeiture of said franchise, and the City Council may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited, and may exclude said grantee or his or its successors and assigns from further use of the streets of said city under said franchise, and said grantee and his or its successors and assigns shall thereupon and immediately cease and forfeit all rights to the same, and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

Notice is also hereby given, that sealed bids, in writing, will be received for said franchise, up to eleven o'clock in the forenoon of the 6th day of March, 1905, at which time said bids will be opened at that time; that all bids must be for the payment of a stated sum in gold coin of the United States; and that the franchise will be struck off, sold, and awarded to the person, firm, or corporation, who shall make the highest cash bid therefor; provided, however, that the Council may reject any and all bids.

Each sealed bid must be accompanied with cash or a certified check, payable to the City Treasurer of the City of Los Angeles, for the full amount of said bid, and no sealed bid will be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith; and each successful bidder must deposit at least ten per cent. of the amount of his bid with the City Clerk before said franchise will be struck off to him, and if he shall fail to make such deposit immediately, his bid will not be received, and will be considered as void, and said franchise will then be awarded to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit above mentioned. Said procedure will be had until said franchise shall be finally sold, and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of, at least, ten per cent. of the amount of the bid therein provided. Said successful bidder shall deposit with the City Clerk, within twenty-four hours after the suspension of his bid, the remaining ninety per cent. of the amount thereof, and in case he or it fails to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made will be forfeited, and the said franchise will then be void, and said franchise will, then and there, be sold by City Council, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor, in the same manner and under the same restrictions, as heretofore provided, and in case said bidder fails to deposit with the City Clerk the remaining ninety per cent. of his bid within twenty-four hours, after its acceptance, then the sum so paid on said franchise will be set aside, and the deposit theretofore made by him will be forfeited, and further rights or privileges for the sale of said franchise will be had until the same shall be readvertised for sale.

Notice is also hereby given, that the successful bidder for said franchise must, within five days after said franchise is awarded to him, or it, file with the City Council, a bond running in favor of said city in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, with, at least, two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said City Council, conditioned that said bidder shall well and truly perform each and every term and condition of said franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of said bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recoverable from the principal and sureties upon said bond. If said bond is not so filed, the award of said franchise will be set aside, and any money paid therefor will be forfeited.

Notice of Street Work.

Public notice is hereby given that on Tuesday, the 3d day of January, A.D., 1905, the Council of the City of Los Angeles, did, at its meeting on said day, adopt an Ordinance of Intention, No. 10,389 (New Series,) to have the following work done, to wit:

That a cement sidewalk six (6) feet in width be constructed along each side of said from the northerly curb line of Bellevue avenue to the southerly line of 23rd street, excepting such portions of said street between said points along which a cement or asphalt sidewalk six (6) feet in width has been constructed to the official line and grade, and also excepting an area which includes such portions of said street between said points as at present occupied by shade trees, together with a strip one foot wide adjoining the outer edge of each of said trees, all within the line of improvement,) said sidewalk to be constructed in accordance with the plans and specifications for constructing cement sidewalks on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being No. 2 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

And, That a cement curb be constructed along each side of said New High street from the north line of Tenth street to the south line of San Marino street, including all intersections of streets, excepting such portions of said street and intersections as are required by law to be kept in order or repair by any person or company having railroad tracks thereon, and also excepting such portions as have already been graded and graveled and accepted,) be graded and graveled in accordance with the plans and profile on file in the office of the City Engineer and specifications for the construction of graveled streets in the City of Los Angeles, on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being No. 1 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 9611 (New Series.)

And, That a cement curb be constructed along each line of the roadway of said Thirty-ninth street, from the west line of Moneta avenue to the east line of Del Monte street, (excepting along such portions of said street as have already been constructed to the official line and grade,) in accordance with specifications for constructing cement curbs, on file in the office of the City Clerk, said specifications being No. 1 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

And, That a cement sidewalk five (5) feet in width be constructed along each side of said Thirty-ninth street, from the west line of Moneta avenue to the east line of Del Monte street, (excepting along such portions of said street as have already been constructed to the official line and grade,) said sidewalk to be constructed in accordance with specifications for constructing cement sidewalks on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being No. 2 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

The Council of said city finds upon estimate of the City Engineer, that the total cost of said improvement will be greater than fifty cents per front foot along each line of said street, including the cost of intersections, and it is determined, in pursuance of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California, approved February 25th, 1885, as amended by an Act of the Legislature amending said last-named act, which amending act became a law March 2nd, 1889, that bonds shall be issued to represent the cost of said improvement. Said bonds shall be serial, extending over a period of ten years, an even proportion of the principal sum of which shall be payable annually, on the second day of January of each year by coupon, after their date until the whole are paid, and to bear interest at the rate of seven (7) per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually on the second days of January and July of each and every year.

And thereafter, to wit: On the 20th day of January, 1905, said City Council awarded the contract for said work to the lowest regular responsible bidder, to wit:

To J. Hein, for the prices named for said work in his proposal, on file, to wit:

10 cents per square foot for sidewalk, and that said award has been approved by the Mayor.

Clerk's Office, Los Angeles, Cal., February 6, 1905.

Notice of Award of Contract.

Pursuant to Statutes and to the Resolution of Award of the City Council of the City of Los Angeles, adopted January 30, 1905, directing this notice, notice is hereby given that said City Council, in open session, on the 23d day of January, 1905, opened, examined, and publicly declared all sealed proposals or bids offered for the following work, to wit:

That a cement curb return be constructed along each line of the roadway of

from the westerly line of Bunker Hill avenue to the westerly line of said Bunker Hill avenue (excepting along such portions of the line of said roadway upon which a cement or granite curb has already been constructed to the official line and grade,) in accordance with specifications for constructing cement curbs, on file in the office of the City Clerk, said specifications being No. 1 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

That a cement curb be constructed along each line of the roadway of said Boston street, from the westerly line of Bunker Hill avenue to the westerly line of Figueroa street (excepting such portions of the line of said roadway upon which a cement or asphalt sidewalk five (5) feet in width has already been constructed to the official line and grade,) said sidewalk to be constructed in accordance with specifications for constructing cement sidewalks on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being No. 2 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

All sums levied on said assessment are due and payable immediately, and payment of said sums is to be made to me in my office within thirty days after the 6th day of February, 1905, which is the first day of publication of this notice.

All assessments not paid before the expiration of said thirty days will become delinquent, and thereupon five per cent. upon the amount of each such assessment will be added thereto.

Notice of Award of Contract.

Pursuant to statutes and to the Resolution of Award of the City Council of the City of Los Angeles, adopted January 26, 1905, directing this notice, notice is hereby given that said City Council, in open session, on the 23d day of January, 1905, opened, examined, and publicly declared all sealed proposals or bids offered for the following work, to wit:

That a public sewer be constructed in said city along from the public sewer manhole constructed in the intersection of Seventh street and Alameda street to a point distant 69 feet westerly from the center line of Lawrence street; also along the center line of Seventh street from the public sewer manhole constructed in the intersection of Seventh street and Wilson street to the center line of Lawrence street and across all intersections of streets, together with two (2) manholes and two (2) flushtanks all to be connected with said sewer.

Said sewer is to be constructed of vitrified, salt-glazed pipe eight (8) inches in internal diameter.

Each of said manholes is to be constructed of brick and mortar and is to have a concrete bottom and an iron cover and is to be circular in horizontal section with an internal diameter of four (4) feet.

Each of said manholes is to have an internal height of ten (10) feet.

Each of said flushtanks is to be constructed of brick and mortar and is to have a concrete bottom and an iron cover and is to be circular in horizontal section with an internal diameter of five (5) feet and is to have a capacity of three hundred (300) gallons.

All of which improvement is to be constructed in accordance with the plans and profile therefor on file in the office of the City Engineer of the City of Los Angeles and specifications therefor on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Los Angeles, said specifications being entitled "Specifications for the construction of a sewer along Seventh street between Alameda street and Wilson street in the City of Los Angeles."

That said contemplated work of improvement is, in the opinion of said Council, of more than local and ordinary public benefit, and they hereby declare that the exterior boundaries of the district to be benefited by said improvement and to be assessed to pay the cost and expense of said improvement shall be as follows:

Beginning at the northeasterly corner of Seventh street and Alameda street; thence northerly along the easterly line of Alameda street 159.86 feet to a point; thence easterly in a direct line to the northwesterly corner of lot A of the Industrial Tract, as per map of said tract recorded in Book 1, page 56 of Maps, Records of Los Angeles County; thence easterly in a direct line to the northeasterly corner of said lot A; thence easterly along the northerly line of said lot B, 125.80 feet to a point; thence southerly in a direct line to a point in the northerly line of Seventh street, said point being distant 125.86 feet easterly from the southwesterly corner of said lot B; thence southerly in a direct line to the northeasterly corner of Seventh street and Wilson street; thence southerly along the westerly line of Wilson street 170 feet to a point; thence westerly, parallel with the northerly line of Seventh street 210 feet to a point; thence northerly in a direct line to the southeasterly corner of lot 2, block D of the E. B. Millar Tract, as per map of said tract recorded in Book 12, page 91, Miscellaneous Records of Los Angeles County; thence westerly in a direct line to the southwesterly corner of lot 4, block C of said E. B. Millar Tract; thence southwesterly in a direct line to a point in the westerly line of Lawrence street, said point being midway between the northeasterly and southeasterly corners of block B of said E. B. Millar Tract; thence westerly in a direct line to a point in the westerly line of said block B, said point being midway between the northwesterly and southwesterly corners of said block B; thence westerly in a direct line to a point in the easterly line of block A of said E. B. Millar Tract, said point being midway between the northeasterly and southeasterly corners of said block A; thence westerly in a direct line parallel with the southerly line of Seventh street to a point in the easterly line of Alameda street; thence northerly in a direct line to the southeasterly corner of Seventh street and Alameda street; thence northerly in a direct line to the point of beginning.

Excepting therefrom any portion of any public street or alley, which may be included within the above-described district.

And thereafter, to wit: On the 30th day of January, 1905, said City Council awarded the contract for said work to the lowest regular responsible bidder, to wit:

To W. R. Couverley at the prices named for said work in his proposal, on file, to wit:

$1.35 per lineal ft. for grading and graveling.
20 cts. per lineal foot for curb,
15 cts. per square foot for sidewalk,

and that said award has been approved by the Mayor.

MEN

Quickly Cured

MY PROMPT AND THOROUGH cures prove the correctness of my methods. They prove that my treatment is absolutely scientific. The fact that like results are obtained by no other physician establishes my claim to originality and distinctiveness. For seventeen years I have been earning my success and my reputation as a specialist in Men's Diseases.

DR. O. C. JOSLEN.
The Leading Specialist

Consult Me

IF YOU HAVE BEEN THE VICTIM of any kind of folly, it will be to your interest to consult me. Do not expect that I shall charge you a large fee. Examination is free, and specialist's fees are only fair. The probabilities are that you will be more than satisfied. Don't experiment with "cheap" treatment until you have had a talk with me. The services that I offer you are THE BEST, and usually worth ten times what I ask for them.

I am always willing to wait for my fees until a cure is effected.

Organic Weakness, Lost Vigor, Contracted Disorders, Varicocele, Specific Blood Poison, Piles and Stricture are included in the list of ailments I cure.

Kidney and Bladder Trouble

Dr. Harrison & Co. are phenomenally successful in these troubles; every case that comes to them is carefully examined and the true cause found for existing conditions. It is then easy for us to treat the case understandingly; not all cases are easily understood; not all men know how to treat them. Our experience for years has taught us just how to cure the very worst of these troubles. Our success in curing demonstrates the positive proof of our ability.

Contracted Disorders

Are cured by us. Every particle of poison thoroughly eradicated from the system. Every patient coming to us consults no one but Dr. Harrison or his associate, both regular physicians. Each and every man coming to us for consultation has his case carefully and understandingly looked into. Every case we treat receives our personal attention.

Stricture

This trouble we treat successfully by our improved method, which never fails to bring about a cure. Electricity or electric belts cannot do this trouble any good. When you employ either you throw your money away. Call and let us explain the nature of the trouble and how you can be permanently cured.

"Weakness"

Affections of men commonly described as "weakness," according to our observations, are not such, but depend upon reflex disturbances, and are almost invariably induced or maintained by appreciable damage to the prostate gland. As this may not be perceived by the patient, it is very frequently overlooked by the physician.

If you come to us we give you a thorough examination and consultation absolutely free, and truthfully tell you if you can be cured.

MEN

We are Specialists for Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture, Piles, Fistula, Blood Diseases, Contracted Diseases, Private Diseases, Loss of Vital Power, Kidney and Bladder Troubles.

OUR MEDICAL JOURNAL FREE

Downstairs at our entrance, 09½ South Broadway, you can help yourself to our medical journal; an extensive description of our special work is given. It contains full information which we cannot publish in our advertisement. If you live out of the city, write for one.

Varicocele

WE GUARANTEE AN ABSOLUTE AND PERMANENT CURE in every case we treat of varicocele. We will show to any man wishing to be cured, a dozen leading business men of Los Angeles that we have cured. This fact, with our GUARANTEE of a cure, ought to convince men that they can be cured of varicocele.

Notice Inviting Street Work Proposals.

Pursuant to Statutes and to Ordinance No. 10,461 (New Series) of the Council of the City of Los Angeles, adopted January 23, 1905, directing this notice, the undersigned invites and will receive at his office in the City Hall, up to 10 o'clock a.m. of Monday, February 13, 1905, sealed proposals or bids, for the following street work, to be done according to specifications:

No. 1 (New Series) for Cement Curbs.
No. 2 (New Series) for Cement Sidewalks.

1st. That a cement curb be constructed along each line of the roadway of

from the south curb line of Bellevue avenue to the north line of Temple street (excepting along such portions of the line of said roadway upon which a cement or granite curb has already been constructed to the official line and grade,) in accordance with specifications for constructing cement curbs, on file in the office of the City Clerk, said specifications being No. 1 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

2nd. That a cement sidewalk five (5) feet in width be constructed along each side of said Boylston street from the south curb line of Bellevue avenue to the north line of Temple street (excepting such portions of said street between said points along which a cement or asphalt sidewalk five (5) feet in width has been constructed to the official line and grade,) said sidewalk to be constructed in accordance with specifications for constructing cement sidewalks on file in the office of the City Clerk of said city, said specifications being No. 2 (New Series) and adopted by Ordinance No. 8572 (New Series.)

Bidders must file with each proposal or bid, a check payable to the order of the Mayor of this City, certified by a responsible bank, for an amount which shall not be less than ten per cent. of the aggregate of the proposal, or a bond for the said amount and so payable, signed by the bidder and by two sureties, who shall justify, before any officer competent to administer an oath, in double the said amount, and over and above all statutory exemptions.

In bidding use blanks which will be furnished by the City Clerk upon application.

My Treatment Cures

It Restores the Natural Order of Things

Varicocele

Many men have treated unsuccessfully for this condition. Will you continue to pay for something you do not get? Or would you prefer to see and talk with many reliable men who will tell you they have been cured by my treatment? This means much to you. My method of cure is the only one to my knowledge that will give complete satisfaction and restore strength to the affected parts; the fact is, I effect cures that cannot be made by other methods.

Stricture

Due to contracted diseases, painful caustic remedies and improper treatment, causes ulceration and deep-seated inflammation. My treatment is the most effective, completely removing every vestige or sign of stricture, restoring the membrane to a healthy condition.

Contracted Diseases

Has your trouble become chronic through neglect or improper treatment? Failure to quickly cure these conditions and due to caustic remedies, which aggravate rather than cure, build the direct cause of chronic bladder trouble.

Kidneys and Bladder

Troubles frequently exist as a result of neglect or in connection with urethral diseases. In functional derangement of the kidneys and bladder my treatment restores a perfect physiological condition and a healthy action.

DR. MORTON

316 South Broadway

Has your trouble become chronic through neglect or improper treatment? Half the failures to effect a cure is due to guesswork through the mail. The unreasonable treatment of many conditions is the direct cause of chronic troubles, due to improper measures, and many are treated for conditions that do not exist. I do not treat symptoms.

I Accomplish More in One Week by Treating the "Exact Cause"

Than can ever be accomplished by guesswork through the mail. Those who take my treatment are cured. Personal treatment and facilities adapted to the requirements are the foundation for quick and permanent cures. I wait for my fee until you are cured.

Functional Decline

There are many men who believe their condition to be one of physical weakness and are generally treated upon such lines, when in reality the functionating power only is affected, which may be due to many causes, overwork, worry, excesses, dissipation and the evil effects of wrong living. I remove the exact cause responsible for the trouble by personal treatment.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The fourth annual convention of the California Federation of Women's Clubs will be called to order in Simpson Auditorium at 9:15 o'clock this morning by the president, Mrs. George Law Smith, of San Francisco.

The forenoon will be occupied by the Committee on Credentials, in receiving delegates and distributing badges. The executive board will meet at 10 o'clock, and the council of club presidents and members of the executive board will be held at 10:30. "What can clubs do for Civil Service?" and "Will a four days' session of convention be advisable?" are the questions for discussion at the council.

A lesson in Shakespeare class work will be conducted by Mrs. Katherine Tupper Galpin from 11 to 12 o'clock.

The programme for the afternoon includes: Call to order by Mrs. George Law Smith; invocation by Mrs. Eliza Tupper Wilkes; music; address of welcome, Hon. Owen McAleer, Mayor of Los Angeles; address of welcome by Mrs. J. W. Hendrick, chairman of local board, C.F.W.C.; response, Mrs. George Law Smith; greetings from General Federation of Women's Clubs, by Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles; greetings from California Congress of Mothers and Child-Study Circles, by Mrs. W. W. Murphy, greetings from Woman's Parliament, by Mrs. J. D. Gibbs.

Reports from the following officers will be heard: Vice-president-at-large, Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles N. McLouth; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Arthur W. Cornwall; treasurer, Mrs. Charles M. Beckwith; auditing committee, Mrs. Oliver C. Bryant; secretary of General Federation, Mrs. L. F. Darling.

These will be followed by reports from the Committee on Credentials, by Mrs. Robert Watt; Local Board, by Mrs. J. W. Hendrick; Programme Committee, by Mrs. J. W. Orr, with announcement of Committees on Rules and Regulations, and the president's address by Mrs. George Law Smith.

A reception has been planned for Tuesday eveing in honor of the California Federation by the Los Angeles club women. It will be held at Cumnock Hall and admission will be by card only, the federation card admitting a club woman and her escort. The hope has been expressed that the husbands and men friends will not fail to attend this reception.

A programme of Spanish songs and dances and fine Indian music has been arranged by Mrs. Hubbell, Mrs. A. S. C. Forbes and Mrs. Eugene Pettigrew, composing the Reception Committee. There will be two large receiving parties, and the Hospitality Committee, with Mrs. J. T. Fitzgerald as chairman, will assist in entertaining the guests.

Simpson Auditorium has been decorated for the opening session of the convention, by Mrs. Matthew Robertson and her corps of assistants, and Mrs. F. E. Prior, Mrs. Philip Gerhardy and Mrs. Frank M. McDaniel have arranged for advantageous seating of delegations. In compliment to the visitors the red banner of the San Joaquin district has been placed directly in front, and to the left of the central aisle. The San Francisco district will occupy a corresponding position on the right, with a yellow banner above. The northern district will be seated just behind the San Francisco, and their pennant is green. Back of the northern will be the San Diego district with a pink banner. The Alameda district will be placed just back of the San Joaquin. That district has a blue banner. The purple banner of the Los Angeles district will be placed just back of the Alameda. The Local Board will be seated to the extreme left of the auditorium, and the special guests to the extreme right. The alternates will occupy the wings, and visitors are welcome at all times to the galleries. Wednesday and Thursday evenings will be open to the general public, and club women will be admitted without cards.

A number of pretty society girls have been selected to act as ushers and pages, under the direction of the committee, Mrs. R. P. Hunt, Mrs. F. M. McDaniel and Mrs. Morris Albee, with Mrs. Philip Gerhardy as chairman. They will include: Lucy Clark, Mary Clark, Grace Rowley, Gwendolin Laughlin, Alice Gwynne, Jane Blair, Hattie Bradford, Ruth Sterry, Lucile Walton, Helen Safford, Mabel Bowler, Ella Sullivan, Julia Penfield, Frances Lawton, Bess Crowell, Miss Lewis, Miss Mosgrove, Florence Moore, Alice Bond, Edith Bond, Louise Bond, Anita Burchill, Miss Graham, Miss Schofield, Miss Smith, Mrs. Charles Dunsmoor, Mrs. W. L. Bosley, Mrs. Frank Brooks, Chester C. Ashley, Otis L. Shaw and J. B. Stearns.

The Hotel and Transportation Committee, of which Mrs. F. G. Crandall is chairman, was busy yesterday from 10 o'clock in the morning until midnight, the San Francisco delegation being scheduled to arrive at a very late hour. In this delegation was Mrs. George Law Smith, and Mrs. A. Aylett Cotton, president of the California Club of San

MRS. GEORGE LAW SMITH,
President.

Francisco, and wife of Judge Cotton of that city. Other delegates from the California Club are Mrs. J. A. Orr, Dr. Dorothea Moore and Mrs. E. L. Baldwin.

Mrs. E. L. Baldwin is to speak before the federation on probation work. She is chairman of the Civics Department of her club, and as such is one of the factors in the maintenance of the Juvenile Court of San Francisco. She has visited Denver, Chicago and other places while investigating the methods of the juvenile courts.

Another interesting woman from San Francisco whose name appears on the programme is Miss Kate Whittaker. She will give chafing-dish demonstrations under the Household Economics Section. Miss Whittaker is superintendent of domestic science in the San Francisco schools. She is an English woman of great versatility and talks as well on literary topics as she does upon the subjects of her chosen profession.

Mrs. Robert Wallace, president of the Corona Club of San Francisco, will speak on "Reciprocity." Mrs. Wallace is said to be a briliant young club president, the Corona being the largest purely literary club in San Francisco, and noted for its fine work.

A bright woman who will talk on "Women as Members of a Board of Education," is Dr. Myra Knox, a member of the Board of Education of Oakland. Dr. Knox has been reelected for several terms, and the last time, as an independent candidate, she ran way ahead of the candidates of both political parties.

Mrs. George Barnes Bird of Alameda will speak on Juvenile Literature. Mrs. Barnes is a writer of merit, and is president of the Criterion Club, as well as a member of the Adelphian Club of her city.

Another northern speaker is Mrs. R. T. Devlin of Sacramento who will talk on "Portfolio Possibilities." Mrs. Devlin is prominent in civic work in Sacramento, is a member of the Tuesday Club and president of the Woman's Council. Her husband is a State Senator and a member of the Board of Prison Directors, and will probably be the next United States Marshal for the Northern District of California.

The fascinating story of the Vallejo Improvement Association will be told by Mrs. Gorham, a beautiful and delightful woman, and vice-president-elect of the San Francisco district.

Next Thursday afternoon a reception will be tendered the federation visitors by Mrs. George A. Dobinson at the Dobinson School of Expression, from 4 to 6 o'clock. A number of prominent club women will assist in receiving, and the guests will go at once to the auditorium, where the following programme will be rendered:

Scene from Miss Monflather's School, "Old Curiosity Shop," by Mrs. Dobinson, several members of the faculty and twenty-six girls in Dickens costumes. An old English dance and two old songs, "Cherry Ripe" and "When the Bloom is on the Rye," will follow, after which a reception will be held in the green room.

EXCHANGE NOTES. Bidding was confined to a narrow range yesterday on the Stock Exchange, but the tendency was to higher prices, though no sales resulted. Continental Oil was firm at 24¾ cents and closed asked 25½ cents. Globe oil gained a point bid at 7 cents and closed at 10 cents asked; but Mexican Petroleum dropped five points at 18 cents the bid price, but was still held at 35 cents.

In bank stocks, for one or two of which brokers had their orders, American National moved up again to 107½ on the bid price and Farmers' and Merchants' National declined to 223¾, but there were no offerings of either. Associated Oil bonds closed at 91 asked, but there were no bids. Mission Transportation and Refining went off at ½ on the closing asked price being held at 96½, but there were no bids.

The sales of local securities reported yesterday on the Stock and Grain Exchange were as follows. Ten shares of Home Telephone at $50; ten shares of Union Oil at $72, and three Home bonds two at $882.50, and one at $885.

EASTERN BANKER WOULD LIKE TO BUY. One or two eastern bankers arrive in the city almost daily, and the number in town at the present time is said to be larger than has been the case for several years. Some of them are here ostensibly for rest and pleasure, others probably actually for a vacation; but all declare they are greatly impressed with the Southwest, and say they would like to settle here. They are visiting local banks, and after they have delivered their compliments and told something like the truth concerning the Southwest, they invariably get down to business propositions. They seem to be well posted on the general condition of the local banks and business and express confidence in their future stability. They inquire as to opportunities for additional banking institutions and whether any of the existing ones could be purchased. Their inquiries, however, are not confined to Los Angeles. Some of the bankers are from as far East as New York and some of them are said to have plenty of money behind them.

COMMERCIAL.

CITRUS MOVEMENT. The shipments of citrus fruits Saturday were fifty-three carloads of oranges and sixteen carloads of lemons; grand total of shipments 7605, of which 501 were lemons.

RECEIVED AT NEW YORK. Following is a statement of the arrivals of the Pacific Coast products at the port of New York, January 30:

	Rail.	Cars.
Apples, boxes	100
Oranges, boxes	3,02

ORANGE PICKING CEASES. Owing to the heavy rains orange picking is off for a week, and shipments are correspondingly light, but it was learned at the offices of the Citrus Union that neither rain nor washouts have interfered so far with the movement of the fruit. The temporary delay in getting the oranges off the trees will be a good thing in the end, and shippers are hopeful of better prices in the East in a few days.

VEGETABLES DESTROYED. All vegetable shipments for the eastern markets are at a standstill on account of the wet weather and washouts, but they will probably be resumed Wednesday, the Vegetable Union reports. Seventy-five car-loads of cauliflower have been ruined in the fields; Sunday night's rain, the heaviest of the season, so far, damaged the celery fields in Orange County, to the extent of about one hundred cars and the tail end of the tomato crop was practically completely destroyed. Little other than second grade stuff is coming into the local markets, but shipments for the eastern markets are now at an end.

CALIFORNIA POTATOES. Simon Levi, who was in the city yesterday, says the potato situation is strong and promising. He does not look for higher prices, nor for an influx of foreign goods sufficient to affect the market in home products in the slightest degree. California potatoes will hold their own against anything outside shippers may attempt to supplant them with, and this because they have the quality which assures them their position in the market. Three times the quantity of potatoes than has been planted in the San Diego region than has ever been known before, and the crop, Mr. Levi says, will be ready for the market, by the time the present one is about exhausted.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

A much better tone was manifest in the produce market than has been the case for some time on a Monday. The stocks that came in were generally light, most of them cleaning up strong early in the day. Prices were steady to advancing, notably on vegetables, and trading was brisk almost along the entire line. The staples continue firm and stationary in prices, with stocks cleaning up nicely on onions.

Vegetables were in light supply and stocks moving at somewhat higher prices. Peas were selling in a jobbing way at 5½ to 8 cents; beans 7 to 9. Tomatoes $1.50 to $1.75 per box, with stocks almost impossible to get; chiles 6 to 8; Bell peppers 12 to 15; cabbage 90 to $1.00 and all bunch stuff a fraction advanced.

Practically no oranges came into the market, which enabled dealers to clean up on stocks on hand. A good trade was reported at prices already quoted and a better movement is looked for in the next few days. Culls were brisk at 50 cents flat, the jobbing price.

Strawberries were extremely scarce, only ten crates arriving from the country, which were quickly disposed of at prevailing prices.

Tangerines found a ready sale at unchanged prices; but the small shipment which came in was insufficient to meet the demand.

The egg market was again poorly supplied and some dealers were asking 28 cents for fresh local, though the official selling price remains at 27. The scarcity of stocks is only momentary, however, should warm, clear weather follow the rain, supplies will again be liberal when prices will undoubtedly decline.

The butter market continues extremely firm, and yesterday dealers found it impossible to fill all their orders from the local trade and outside points, the demand being largely for Coast creamery.

The Produce Exchange yesterday reported receipts for February 4-5 as follows: Eggs, local, 197 cases; butter, 23,150 pounds; cheese, 6980 pounds; potatoes, Irish, 1641 sacks; sweet potatoes, none; onions, none; beans, 295 sacks.

The hay market is strong in choice grades, plenty of No. 2 being offered at $13 to $16 and No. 1 barley at $15 to $16. No. 1 grain is hard to get in any quantity, with alfalfa, with which the market is liberally supplied, is inclined to go off in price.

No fish came into the market, but crabs were in plenty.

MANY RATTLERS FOUND IN MINE.

REPTILES DISPUTE THE OWNERS' POSSESSION OF SHAFT.

Revival of Interests in Silverado Canyon, Near Santa Ana by Bakersfield and Los Angeles Men. Automobile Line Between Searchlight and Manvel.

There has been a marked revival of mining interests during the past few months in Silverado Cañon, fifteen miles east of Santa Ana, where twenty-five years ago hundreds of prospects were staked out, worked and finally abandoned. A company of Los Angeles and Bakersfield men have secured a lease on the McArthur property known as the Bluelight, or Dunlap, mine, and are taking out pay dirt in large quantities. The old tunnel has been run in 250 feet, and about 300 tons of ore are now on the dump ready for shipment. A lumber chute 600 feet long will be built down the hillside for carrying the dirt to a place where it can be loaded into wagons. Seven men are working on the place, and a carload of lumber is on hand to build the chute.

The ore runs far assayed yields from $15 to $30 per ton in gold and silver, with a trace of zinc.

Beyond the Bluelight property Williams and Godby of Los Angeles are doing development work in Ladd's Cañon.

RATTLERS IN SHAFT.

Twenty-two rattlesnakes found in a long-abandoned shaft on the property of the Copper Basin Mining Company of this city, proved conclusively the hole's right to the title of Rattlesnake Shaft, which was bestowed upon it. The company's property is on the Colorado River in San Bernardino county, and was formerly owned and worked by Peter McGuire, a pioneer miner of the 60's, who took out and shipped rich ore to Swansea, Wales. There are a number of shafts worked by him that had been abandoned for years, and about ten days ago the company's miners penetrated Rattlesnake Shaft, one where, tradition says, no man had ventured for twenty years, or since the days when McGuire, not finding rich enough ore at hand, deserted the lower grades that were found and gave his attention to other parts of the rich mines from which he made a fortune.

As the miners entered they were contested by the reptiles who resented the invasion of their home so long free from the presence of man. The miners finished the snakes quickly and after penetrating five feet further into the drift left by McGuire, they struck a ledge of high grade copper carrying some gold. At last reports the miners had penetrated the ledge for a distance of sixteen feet and the wall is not in sight.

In the Mount Whipple property, owned chiefly by the same operators, and located near the Copper Basin, work is being continued on the tunnel in which $90 ore was struck after forty-five feet of development work. The miners have now penetrated forty feet further into the mine without reaching the wall. The ledge is seven feet wide.

The White Eagle, another Los Angeles company, operating on the Arizona side of the Colorado, is working on a ledge of very rich ore which has been struck. No assays have yet been made to determine this ore's value, but it is plainly of a high grade.

The El Dorado Mining Company of this city has commenced operations in the El Dorado Cañon district of Nevada adjoining Searchlight. The company has seven full claims and a fraction of one in a district that is just beginning to come to the front, after being operated in a backward way for nearly forty years. Among those interested in the company are C. G. Austin, C. Hunsaker and C. H. Kelly. Chester F. Lauer, a mining expert from Seattle, is now examining the property in the interests of the company.

The Southwestern Mining Company is developing the Wall Street group in the same district, with good results. The failures in the past seemed to have been due to the fact that the operators generally confined themselves to shielding their properties, instead of undertaking regular development work.

AUTOMOBILE LINE.

A large passenger automobile has been put into operation between Searchlight and the railroad terminus at Manvel. The machine makes the run in about two hours and a half. At present the hauling of freight from Manvel to the Bullfrog district, which route all supplies sent from this city must go, occupies fifteen days and costs $80 per ton. Hay is reported to be selling at $120 a ton at the camp. Freight sent from San Francisco via Goldfield and Tonopah is handled under the same difficulties and local miners, with interests there are all striving for a railroad which they all say would be certain to pay and would mean an enormous trade for this city.

STOICAL ITALIAN.

Though He May be Dying, Lazzarini Refuses to Tell Who Shot Him.

As close-mouthed as proverbial clams are Robert Lazzarini and his father, Guido Lazzarini, when questioned by the police yesterday in regard to the mysterious shooting at Avilla and Buena streets early yesterday morning, during which young Lazzarini received a bullet in his neck.

That one of the deadly Italian feuds is at the bottom of the shooting and that Lazzarini knows the name of his assailant, the police believe thoroughly, but all efforts to get at the facts in the case proved unavailing. Early Monday morning young Lazzarini was removed to his home at No. 490 Buena street. The police surgeons tried to locate the bullet in his throat, but were compelled to relinquish their efforts on account of the man's weakened condition.

Guido Lazzarini rallied and last night his condition was reported favorable. But the victim and his father refuse absolutely to discuss the shooting, and while the young man die the police have little to work on.

Rubbish Men Protest.

Rubbish men met at No. 321½ East First street in Odeonia Hall, for the purpose of showing people that they are not being treated by the agents of the new company. They say they are willing to compete with anybody in business in service and in prices, but of their position follows: "We have about fifty families that depend on this rubbish hauling for bread, and we make a great deal to the business men. The only avenue the colored man has to other reason than to form a new company controlled by a man the colored people always regarded as their friend, ex-Mayor.

"Now, we intend to remember the people continuous with us through our churches and every individual. We have colored people in this city, and the only business contracted by the we are proud to know that some people do not approve of Snyder's when his agents went around solicitors and say: 'Would you rather have work than a white man?' will the people do when Mr. Snyder is running us out of business? Try It at Our Expense.

This offer may not appear again. There is no catch about it. If Mull's Grape Tonic does not positively cure Constipation you are out nothing, as you may have the first bottle free. If it cures, which it will, tell others, that is all we ask. No remedy has ever before been known to cure Constipation permanently. Mull's Grape Tonic is not a physic. It is unlike anything you have ever used. It cures Constipation. If it did not, this offer would ruin us. The process is gradual but sure. You know from your own experience that physics, like Pills, Salts, Castor Oil, Mineral Waters, Injections, etc., make you worse.

Where can Mull's Grape Tonic be had?

Your druggist sells it. The $1.00 bottle contains nearly three times the 50c size, but if you will write today to Mull's Grape Tonic Co., 121 3rd Ave., Rock Island, Ill., and give druggist's name, you will receive the first bottle free with full instructions. This gives us a chance to prove to you at our expense that it is a wonderful remedy and places you under no obligation to invest a penny. Only tell your friends about it.

CHALLENGE.

remains stationary, while the demand has been of constant growth. Holders of the privileges have seen them grow in value, while outsiders desirous of entering the liquor-selling field find themselves practically shut out.

The crucial stage in the situation has come with the advent of the new Lankershim at Seventh street and Broadway, which is about to open its doors. To meet the demands of its guests the management of this hotel desires a license under which it can operate a bar.

The city has granted the limit of 200 licenses to various individuals and the only way in which the Lankershim can acquire such a privilege is to purchase it from a present holder who is willing to part with it for a consideration.

Of the 200 outstanding licenses it is claimed that 30 per cent., or 160, are in the hands of different city breweries. These concerns practically control the situation and they, instead of the city authorities, have the say as to who shall engage here in the selling of liquor and what he shall pay for the right.

VICTIM OF "TRUST"

E. R. Cooper, proprietor of the Lankershim, declares that a member of this "trust" has attempted to extort from him a large amount for a license.

Cooper is a fighter. He has refused to pay the price demanded and has laid the matter before the Police Commission. As a result of his action there is to be a searching inquiry into the ownership of licenses and the methods of members of the "trust."

"I have been asked to pay $6500 for the transfer of a saloon license now held by another person," said Mr. Cooper yesterday. "In addition to this, I must agree to sell beer produced by a certain brewery, and furthermore, I must pay to the city the fixed amount of $900 per year.

"I consider the amount demanded of me extortionate and I will not pay it. The regular license fee to the city is reasonable enough, but I object to paying a large sum that is to go the profit of an outsider.

"I have not come here to engage in the saloon business, but to run a hotel. I am fitting up a bar for the accommodation of guests who expect such an adjunct to a hotel. The bar will not have an outside entrance and it is to be conducted quietly and in accordance with the laws of the city.

"Before I signed the lease for the hotel I was told by a man here who is one of those who control the majority of the licenses that I could obtain such a privilege for $4000. A little later I was informed that the license would cost me $4500. Then the price was raised to $5000 and again to $5500. Now the amount has run up to $6500 and there is no telling where the demand may stop unless I make a decision promptly.

"This price, understand, is for the right of paying the city $900 a year to sell liquor. The right, as a matter of fact, is not worth the paper on which it is written. The Police Commission could revoke it at any time and the thousands I might pay would be lost.

"I must pay that amount for selling sorrow—for that is how I look upon the traffic—I should prefer to give it to the Associated Charities where it would be applied to some good use. I certainly will not pay it to those who demand it. I shall give up no blood money."

MEETS REQUIREMENTS.

In seeking the liquor-selling privilege for the Lankershim, Mr. Cooper has obtained the necessary consent of two-thirds of the property owners in the blocks affected, in compliance with the municipal requirements.

In further justification of his request for a license he points to the fact that nearly $1,000,000 has been expended in building and equipping the Lankershim. He is indignant that such an enterprise should have to pay tribute to a monopolistic ring.

For the present, it is likely that the new Hotel will take out a restaurant liquor license, under which liquor may be served on tables with meals.

It is stated on excellent authority that the Police Commission sympathizes with the hotel proprietor in his predicament, and that it will find a way to help him out of his trouble. At the same time this body will go very fuly into the question of ownership of the 200 saloon licenses of the city. Some sweeping reforms may be expected.

POSSIBLE RELIEF.

There is one way in which the hotel can obtain a license without the payment of a premium. The revocation of such privileges for cause rests with the Police Commission. Some luckless holder, caught in violation of the terms of the license, may at any time be compelled to forfeit his right. The license, thus reverting to the city, could be granted to any one who, in the eyes of the commissioners, may be fit.

In connection with the high prices demanded of the proprietor of the Lankershim by a member of the "trust," it is said that when the Angelus was opened the management thereof suffered a like hold-up, the price paid at that time being $5000.

A gentleman who is conversant with the temper of the present Police Commission says the members of that body are satisfied that, if the licenses are worth $6500 or so to the holders, they are worth that much to the city. If a person engaging in the saloon business can afford to pay a premium of several thousand dollars for a license, it is argued that he can afford to pay more than a $900 yearly fee to the city.

One result of the agitation that has been started may be the raising of the yearly license fee.

Furthermore, it is likely that the name of the real owner of every license will be demanded. No proxies or dummies will be permitted to stand, it is said.

THE LAXATIVE OF KNOWN QUALITY

There are two classes of remedies: those of known quality and which are permanently beneficial in effect, acting gently, in harmony with nature, when nature needs assistance; and another class, composed of preparations of unknown, uncertain and inferior character, acting temporarily, but injuriously, as a result of forcing the natural functions unnecessarily. One of the most exceptional of the remedies of known quality and excellence is the ever pleasant Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., which represents the active principles of plants, known to act most beneficially, in a pleasant syrup, in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to contribute their rich, yet delicate, fruity flavor. It is the remedy of all remedies to sweeten and refresh and cleanse the system gently and naturally, and to assist one in overcoming constipation and the many ills resulting therefrom. Its active principles and quality are known to physicians generally, and the remedy has therefore met with their approval, as well as with the favor of many millions of well informed persons who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual experience that it is a most excellent laxative remedy. We do not claim that it will cure all manner of ills, but recommend it for what it really represents, a laxative remedy of known quality and excellence, containing nothing of an objectionable or injurious character.

There are two classes of purchasers: those who are informed as to the quality of what they buy and the reasons for the excellence of articles of exceptional merit, and who do not lack courage to go elsewhere when a dealer offers an imitation of any well known article; but, unfortunately, there are some people who do not know, and who allow themselves to be imposed upon. They cannot expect its beneficial effects if they do not get the genuine remedy.

To the credit of the druggists of the United States be it said that nearly all of them value their reputation for professional integrity and the good will of their customers too highly to offer imitations of the manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and in order to buy the genuine article and to get its beneficial effects, one has only to note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package. Price, 50c per bottle. One size only.

Clerk's Wife Scales Down Her Bill of Expenses for Main-street Accident.

Unpleasantness between Mrs. John T. Forsythe of Seattle and Helm Schmidt, proprietor of a Main-street bar, was averted yesterday by the payment of $65 to the woman. Mrs. Forsythe's "case" was tentatively taken up by local members of the Eastern Star, of which order she is a member. The woman is the wife of a clerk in the employ of the Moran Bros., shipbuilders at Seattle. She states that she is in Southern California for her health, and is apparently under the protection of a man named Dickson, who, she says, is her husband's cousin. Sunday afternoon, January 22, Mrs. Forsythe and Dickson were knocked down on Main street, near Third, by a span of horses driven by Schmidt, who had in the carriage with him, his wife and children. At the moment the team—a spirited one—was well in hand and pulled up, but a car prevented their being turned out, and they became frightened at Schmidt's warning cries to the man and woman, and plunged. The high-steppers jumped neatly over the prostrate couple, doubtless saving their lives. Dickson escaped unhurt, but Mrs. Forsythe's knee was injured, and she was rendered unconscious by the fall. Schmidt helped them into a drug store, and later called a hack and sent them, in care of an officer, to No. 936 South Flower street, where the woman has rooms. Mrs. Forsythe put in a bill for $175 expenses, but accepted $65 in full payment from Schmidt, to whom she wrote a letter expressing a desire to keep her husband in ignorance of the affair.

FIND TWO MORE HOCH MARRIED.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The New York police announced today that they had discovered two other women whom Hoch had married. One of them, the police said, is Mrs. Minnie Westphal of Jersey City, whom Hoch is said to have married in 1898, under the name "William Frederick Bessing." According to the police, Hoch made her acquaintance through a newspaper advertisements and got $900 belonging to her. The name of the other woman is not disclosed by the police, but they say Hoch married her in 1897 and secured $200 from her.

BREAK IN RESERVOIR FLOODS ESPEE YARDS.

SHORTLY before 2 o'clock this morning a break occurred in a reservoir somewhere in the hills above River Station. A large body of water was released, flooding the Southern Pacific yards, the tracks at some places being four or five inches under water.

The overland Coast line train, due at 10:35 p.m., which reached River Station more than three hours late, was delayed still further by this flood, the run down Alameda street, through which the water flowed from the railroad yards, being made very cautiously through several inches of water.

At 2:30 o'clock most of the flood water had run off, and employés of the city water department were looking for the break to repair it.

At the hour of going to press it was not definitely known where the water came from, but it poured in a torrent down through College street into the railroad yards, evidently coming from one of the reservoirs in the Elysian Park hills. So far as known no serious damage has been done.

CHILD PERISHES IN SWIFT FIRE.

FORGOTTEN BY THOSE ABOUT UNTIL TOO LATE.

Family Home Destroyed and Little Son Burned to Death—Christian Science Defeated by Pneumonia and Victim Succumbs at Chino, After Refusing Medical Aid.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Addison, aged 4 years, perished tonight in flames which destroyed the home of his parents at C and First streets, a remote part of the city. In the confusion which followed the discovery of the fire the child was momentarily forgotten in the room where he was sleeping, the occupants of the house trying to fight the flames. The blaze spread so rapidly from the place where it caught from a defective flue that when the baby was remembered fire barred the way. The water mains do not yet reach that district, though pipes are now being laid there, and water was lacking, the hose being unavailing. The firemen could hardly save the adjoining buildings. The loss on the building is estimated at $500.

CHRISTIAN-SCIENCE CORPSE.

Christian Science and pneumonia got mixed up in the case of Anna M. Fentel at Chino and this morning the Coroner was called. She had died. Mrs. Fentel was a German woman, who had become interested in Christian Science, there being quite a clique of that kind at Chino. Three weeks ago she became sick, pneumonia developing. Though realizing her condition was serious she refused medical aid and the end came Sunday. An inquest was held this morning, and "pneumonia" was the verdict.

MUST PAY FOR FRUIT.

The Supreme Court has handed down a decision in the case of W. T. Bill against Henry Fuller, tried here some months ago, affirming the decision of Judge Bledsoe, which gave judgment for plaintiff. The suit was to recover $1248.26, the balance on a crop of oranges sold and delivered. The fruit was bought on the trees, but when delivered was found unmarketable and refused. Bill proved that Fuller had been notified that the fruit was ready for delivery and it had become unmarketable from his own neglect.

FINE FOR ASSAULT.

Hieronymus Hartman, convicted last week of assault with a deadly weapon upon Peter Herleck, was sentenced this afternoon by Judge Oster to six months in the County Jail, or a fine of $172. Stay of judgment was granted until Friday to give the defendant opportunity to secure the amount of the fine.

The Sheriff is looking for a hunchback named George Noel, wanted at Redlands on the charge of stealing a diamond pin valued at $150.

SANTA ANA.

ALLEGED CASH THIEF CAUGHT.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 6.—Joseph L. Taggart, charged with having stolen $250 from his room-mate's trunk at San Jacinto a few days ago, was captured here last night by Marshal Maxwell, and this morning was delivered to Sheriff Coburn of Riverside to be taken back for trial.

According to the information from San Jacinto, Taggart, after stealing the $250, lost the money at a poker game and then skipped.

LARGE AREA FLOODED.

There was a further rise in the Santa Ana River last night and this morning, and as a result 2000 acres of the lowlands below Old Newport and Newhope are under water. No damage to farms or crops has resulted, and the inundation far from being a detriment to the country, is regarded by the ranchmen as a great benefit. Much of the land has already been planted to beets and the big visitation of water gives assurance of banner crops. The land has not received a similar thorough soaking for years. The waters may rise more and cause loss of property. As long as the flood lasts the lowland settlers will have to navigate in rubber boots, and agricultural work will be at a standstill.

The flooded district extends below the Newhope schoolhouse east of the river as far as the Newport mesa, and to a slight distance west of the river. Because of the flooded condition school was adjourned today at the Talbert schoolhouse. The Newhope schoolhouse is surrounded by a swirling stream of river water, but the pupils were there today, and school was held as usual. The celery land in the western part of the Talbert district is entirely free from flood water.

FATAL STREET CAR WRECK.

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 6.—As the result of a street-car accident today at Twenty-eighth and Gleason streets, Rudolph Janson was killed and thirty-one persons were injured, some perhaps fatally. The wreck seems to have been caused by the slippery condition of the rails, owing to frost.

The motorman, when he realized that the car was approaching the curve too rapidly, threw on his brakes and reversed the current, but this was not sufficient to check the momentum and the car, with its load, struck the curve with such terrific force that the body of the car left the forward trucks before the trucks left the track. This resulted in the rear trucks dragging the back part of the body of the car with them until it was turned halfway around.

Many of the injured were wedged so tightly in the wreck that it was necessary to chop the car almost to pieces to extricate them.

SPLAINE'S DIAMOND RING.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Feb. 6.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the Common Pleas Court No. 3 today, Judge Samuel A. McClung filed an opinion refusing a new trial in the case of Charles U. Splaine against Charlotte M. Splaine, a suit of judgment of the Superior Court of Los Angeles county, Cal., for $400, the value of a diamond ring. Defence was made on the ground that the California court was without jurisdiction to enter judgment, because there had been no service of the writ.

Judge McClung says: "We take it that a Pennsylvania court would not now, under the facts presented, open such a judgment as is the basis of the present suit upon a direct application, much less permit it to be attacked collaterally, and where we are clear that justice to the defendant does not call for interference with the judgment by the court which rendered, we should not, in a suit like the present, permit a collateral attack. We do not believe that the California court would now even open the judgment, if applied to. It certainly would not unless a meritorious defence was set up."

MAN OF WEALTH IN CITY JAIL.

PASADENA CONTRACTOR UNDER GRAND LARCENY CHARGE.

Case Shrouded in Mystery, but Densmore Thinks it Comes from Rochester Auto Company's Bankruptcy—Panic on Crowded Car, Running Wild and Aflame.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 2 South Raymond Avenue, Feb. 7.—Park Densmore, a local contractor, a man of affairs and wealth, suddenly found himself yesterday in a serious predicament. He was arrested last evening by Constable Newell and Police Captain Austin on the charge of grand larceny. The arrest was made at about 6 o'clock at Densmore's handsome home, No. 627 East Villa street. The officers acted upon instructions from Sheriff C. D. Bailey of Rochester, N. Y., and Densmore was taken from the bosom of his family and lodged in the City Jail, where he must remain until the arrival of an officer from Rochester to take him back for a trial. The case is shrouded in mystery. Densmore claims he cannot quite understand it, but he believes his arrest is on account of his connection with an automobile company of Rochester, which went into bankruptcy after he had left the town. MAN OF WEALTH IN CITY JAIL.

PASADENA CONTRACTOR UNDER GRAND LARCENY CHARGE.

Case Shrouded in Mystery, but Densmore Thinks it Comes from Rochester Auto Company's Bankruptcy—Panic on Crowded Car, Running Wild and Aflame.

PASADENA, Office of The Times, No. 8 South Raymond Avenue, Feb. 7.—John Densmore, a local contractor, a man of affairs and wealth, suddenly found himself yesterday in a serious predicament. He was arrested last evening by Constable Newell and Police Captain Austin on the charge of grand larceny. The arrest was made at about 6 o'clock at Densmore's handsome home, No. 627 East Villa street. The officers acted upon instructions from Sheriff C. D. Bailey of Rochester, N. Y., and Densmore was taken from the bosom of his family and lodged in the City Jail, where he must remain until the arrival of an officer from Rochester to take him back for a trial. The case is shrouded in mystery. Densmore claims he cannot quite understand it, but he believes his arrest is on account of his connection with an automobile company of Rochester, which went into bankruptcy after he had left the town. He had been president of the concern, and says some of the transactions afterward appeared to be irregular, and he presumes that other prominent men of Rochester have been indicted. Owing to the cloudy nature of the charge, Densmore cannot be admitted to bail, though he would be able to furnish a considerable amount.

Densmore is about 40 years of age, has a wife and three children and lives here. They have been here but October, and during his residence in Pasadena Densmore has taken considerable interest in business, having built a number of houses. He claims he will be able to clear up the charges against him.

CROWDED CAR AFIRE.

There was an exciting scene on North Fair Oaks avenue at the Raymond Hill last evening at about sunset. A crowded electric car on fire and screaming men and women fighting to get out while the car, without power, sped onward more rapidly each second, furnished an act that threatened to have a most tragic ending. The panic was started by the catching fire of a controller box in the front end of car No. 162 on the main line to Altadena.

The Greet players had just finished giving "As You Like It" out of doors among the fine big trees of the Raymond grounds. There was a rush for the car, and it was filled and standing when the controller box caught fire. Motorman No. 153 is said to have shown his presence of mind when the trouble came by shutting off all about him and jumping from the platform to the ground without turning off the "juice." Panic among the passengers naturally ensued, and they trampled each other in their mad rush to get out. It seems almost miraculous that no one was hurt. Men jumped through the windows and scrambled over each other's shoulders to get away.

One little woman sat calmly through it all, and didn't seem to worry a bit. She was Mrs. F. F. Denis of Pasadena. "I wasn't afraid," said Mrs. Denis after the scare was over. "The conductor said 'sit here and you won't be hurt,' so I just sat still. But if it hadn't been for Conductor Frank P. L. Murtagh of this city the accident might have turned out very seriously. The conductor put on the brakes at the rear end of the car, Murtagh leaped on the front end and wrestled with the controller. All of the electric sparks were giving a fireworks exhibition underneath the car, running from one end to the other. The car was stopped when it had gone about 30 feet, and the fire was easily quelled.

HORSE SHOW IN MARCH.

The directors of the Tournament of Roses Association enjoyed a banquet at the Maryland last night, and over the cigars listened to reports and attended to other business. The most important thing to be discussed was the question of holding chariot races on Washington's birthday. It was stated that a number of Ben Hurs were anxious to race their steeds, and a majority of the directors are willing to do so. But on the question of expending the $2500 left over from the tournament receipts, the directors differ. They finally determined not to run the races on February 22 unless private citizens see fit to take the matter up, but instead they decided to stretch the good things for the entertainment of tourists through spring. On March 17 a great horse show will be given, patterned after the cattle shows, and on May 1 they will hold a flower fete. Meantime on Saturday they will give a program of sports at Tournament Park.

CHILD POISONED.

Three-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wickman had a narrow escape from death by poisoning on Sunday. The boy, Emil, Jr., had been afflicted with earache, and his mother had given a drop of laudanum. She then placed the two-ounce bottle on a shelf in the room. When she returned she found that the baby had drunk half of it and spilled the rest on the floor. Mrs. Wickman picked the child up in her arms and rushed for Dr. Swearingen arrived the child was going to sleep, and it took hours' work with emetics to get it out of danger. The family lives at No. 500 South Madison avenue.

COUNTRY CLUB ANNUAL.

The annual meeting of the Pasadena Country Club was held yesterday afternoon at the clubhouse. J. E. Jardine was elected president; Ellicut Evans, vice-president; H. P. Warden, secretary; C. W. Armstrong, treasurer; and W. Cravens, F. E. Wilcox and J. Culbertson were elected directors. The secretary's report showed finances to be in a very satisfactory condition.

AGAINST STORMS.

The Northwest Improvement Association wishes better protection of property against such playfulness of the elements as occurred last week. The body met last night and discussed the drainage of storm water. It was decided that the city ought to do more than it has, for floods, and a meeting will be held shortly to which the Board of Council are to be invited. Meantime a committee composed of G. Bowen, J. Bateman and Mr. Simpson will investigate the damage done last week and submit a report.

WORTH TELLING.

The Commissioners yesterday heard the complaint of J. J. Buckius of Walnut street to the effect that the Sunset Telephone Company had lopped off the top of a number of his shade trees. The commissioners referred the matter to the City Attorney, who is to report.

Chief of Police Freeman is expecting any minute to receive notice to go to Scranton, Pa., to bring back the alleged bigamist, Rugby. Yesterday the Chief was granted twelve days' leave of absence for this purpose.

George M. Lyon of Chicago died yesterday at his residence, No. 284 South Madison avenue. He came here about a year ago from Chicago, where for years he had been in the insurance business. He was unmarried and lived with his sister. The funeral will take place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Elizabeth Ramsdel died Sunday evening at a local hotel. She came here a short time ago from Buffalo, N. Y., where interment will take place.

The case against H. C. Merritt, charged with speeding his automobile was dismissed yesterday.

The Board of Trade's committee to look into the municipal water proposition met last night in the Council chamber and talked the matter over. It is likely that they will recommend March 15 as the date for the bond election.

Rainmaker Hatfield claims the credit for the recent storms, and offers to wager that he can bring rain under any condition and time if he is only given long enough to set his apparatus in motion.

MOUNT WILSON.

TOP-NOTCH RAINFALL.

MARTINS CAMP, Feb. 6.—Ten inches of snow which came last night has put the overworked rain gauge out of business. Last night that faithful measuring instrument had recorded a rainfall of 20.77 inches, 12.11 inches of which had fallen since the first of the month. Last night's snow heaped itself up over the gauge in a tall, feathery cone, and then the rest just fell off.

The snowfall here is the heaviest in two years. It extends over a broad territory of mountain slopes and appears to be nearly uniform in thickness. A measurement at Strain's camp on the north side of Wilson's Peak this morning showed over sixteen inches of snow of this and of what remained of previous storms.

Shoveling paths through the white stuff is one of the chief occupations of the higher altitudes today. Brooms are well-nigh useless for clearing the walkways. Shovels of all styles are in great demand.

Transient visitors are having many chilling experiences in getting over the trails on which as one goes further down the snow is soft and slushy. Two young men who came up Saturday night and went down the trail yesterday wore low shoes, the kind that you dance in. All went very well coming up the trail till they got past the snow line and then there was sore trouble. The soft icy, sticky stuff filled as much of their shoes as their feet didn't and the amateur mountaineers thought they had made a unique discovery in portable cold storage. When they went down the trail they had their feet well wrapped in burlap and they found it a good protection. Others are doing likewise with very satisfactory results. One young man who had never been in snow before came up here in tennis shoes. He won't do it again.

Almost any kind of strong heavy shoes do well enough for walking through the snow when it is dry and cold but in the slush, the water penetrates nearly every kind of leather worn about the mountains. Rubber overshoes are prone to fill with the wet snow and the back-east arctics which are very serviceable for that purpose, are hard to obtain. Some of the men employed on the construction of the observatory on Wilson's Peak have found very good protection in overshoes made of waterproof canvas.

Making one's way over the pathless slopes through a foot and more of fresh snow is a treat which is enjoyed immensely by visitors who chance to be in the higher altitudes now. Climbing up the slopes is difficult for the snow impedes progress but the coming down is easy.

SAN DIMAS.

OPPOSED TO PAYNE.

SAN DIMAS, Feb. 6.—There is considerable opposition to orchardists of this valley against the efforts of Horticultural Inspector W. H. Payne of Monrovia to become a horticultural commissioner for this county, a position he could only secure by displacing a member of the present board. A number of the leading fruit growers have written to their Supervisor protesting against the removal of any of the present commissioners.

The San Dimas Coöperative Association has now passed out of business, A. A. Neher having purchased the stock and is conducting the business.

The directors of the Coöp. are collecting the outstanding accounts, and expect to have a neat surplus to divide among the stockholders.

The project to start a coöperative planing mill and a coöperative laundry has been indefinitely postponed.

The Bonita High School baseball team returned from Monrovia Saturday night very much elated, having defeated the crack team of the Monrovia High School by a score of 3 to 1.

OCEAN PARK.

PIER MUST BE REBUILT.

OCEAN PARK, Feb. 6.—As there is a piledriver at work at Venice on the foundation for the ship hotel, it is presumed there will be but little delay in making the repairs to the recreation pier. The entire structure for at least 200 feet will have to be rebuilt, as it is either entirely missing or so wrecked that it is useless. The only damage to the pier at Venice occurred through the floating pieces of the Pier-avenue structure having been hurled against it.

Several hundred feet of the Playa del Rey-Los Angeles automobile boulevard is under water, as a result of the heavy rains, and considerable damage to that recently-completed thoroughfare will be the result.

The polling place for the school-bond election will be the Clubhouse. Henry Wildey will serve as inspector and Pleas James and Max Harris will act as judges.

Elmer Gray has sailed on the Mariposa for Tahiti, seeking improved health.

The beach visitors include Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Pryor, Kansas City; H. Lash, Hillsdale, Mich.; Mrs. Norden, Winnipeg, Can.; J. H. Lash, Winnebago City, Minn.; Mrs. C. W. Eaton, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Mrs. S. F. Booth, Minneapolis

Liberal Reward Offered for Scoundrel Who Inflicts Terrible Suffering on Poor Dumb Brutes—Operates Over Large Area of Residence Section—Lumber Business Humming.

SAN PEDRO, Feb. 6.—Much indignation has been aroused on account of the work of an animal poisoner who has been operating in the residence section for two weeks. Several residents have lost valuable dogs recently, but on Thursday night the poisoner enlarged his field of operations and two valuable horses belonging to Abbott & Erickson, butchers, were poisoned and have since died, after intense suffering. The horses were in a barn at the rear of the residence of Mr. Erickson, and the fiend sprinkled paris green in the feed boxes of the poor animals. Enough of the poison was used to have killed a hundred. Several citizens who have been sufferers through the work of this fiend incarnate state that if they can catch him they will shoot him on sight and leave his carcass strung up for the benefit of the buzzards.

No motive can be assigned for the work of the perpetrator, as his operations have been over a considerable portion of the city, which would remove the idea that he was working out of spite. It is thought he may be a demented person whose mania takes the awful course of inflicting pain and suffering on dumb animals.

Abbott & Erickson have offered a liberal reward for information leading to the arrest of the scoundrel, and the city will be closely watched for a clew.

LUMBER TRADE HUMS.

The lumber business of this port is simply humming. Since Saturday morning twelve large lumber vessels have arrived from northern ports with full cargoes for distribution over the San Pedro wharves throughout the Southwestern States and Territories. The vessels are the steamers San Gabriel, Samoa, William H. Kruger and Scotia and the schooners William Renton, Ruth E. Godfrey, Meteor, Spokane, Robert R. Hind, Minnie A. Caine and Salem. In all, over 6,500,000 feet of lumber has arrived since Saturday, having a value of over $120,000, figured at the average price of $20 a thousand feet. With the present hopeful outlook for business, it is predicted that the current year will far distance any previous year in the history of the port.

CAR SCOOTS OFF TRACK.

The last car from Los Angeles on the Interurban road due to arrive here at 12:30 this morning, jumped the track when about two miles from San Pedro. Fortunately, all the passengers and crew escaped injury, as the car did not turn over, although it took a scoot into the country for about fifty feet. The passengers were forced to wait until a messenger was sent into San Pedro, where he procured a 'bus for their transportation.

HOT BREAKFAST.

Capt. Lindholm, master of the schooner Americana, and J. Brown, cook of that vessel, engaged in an animated conversation this morning regarding breakfast. The cook, it is alleged, called the master all the uncomplimentary names found in the culinary dictionary, whereupon the captain knocked him down and pummeled him severely. The cook will try to get even in Justice Downing's court later in the week.

ALONG THE LINE.

A wagon lunch counter, owned by W. J. Pentecost, on Front street, was robbed of a cash register some time last night. There was no money in the register, which was carried off bodily. It was worth about $50.

It is stated that the large freight and passenger steamer Roanoke will continue in the San Pedro run until the opening of the Lewis and Clarke Exposition at Portland. The steamer is now loading a cargo of grain at Portland for Southern California.

George E. Pilsbury of the Pacific Electric, accompanied by Messrs. Parris, Forbes and other officials of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, visited San Pedro today. It is stated that this visit was for the purpose of settling certain questions relative to a right of way for the former company over certain lands of the latter corporation.

GLENDORA.

WORKING AMONG JAPS.

GLENDORA, Feb. 6.—Missionary work has been begun among the Japanese here. Yesterday Rev. O. A. Elliott, assisted by Rev. Mr. Greene and others, held a service at the Alasta Hotel, the Jap headquarters. Rev. Mr. Elliott spoke through an interpreter, and the little brown men received the good words with enthusiasm, and seemed to appreciate the song service. They promised to attend Sunday-school at the various churches next Sunday.

William Foster died at 5 o'clock this morning at his residence on Foster's Hill, at an advanced age. The funeral will be held Wednesday, and will be private, the remains will be placed in a receiving vault in Los Angeles.

F. A. Seimears was arrested today and taken before Justice Gloyer of Azusa, charged with cruelty to animals. It is presumed the arrest was caused by the manner in which he beat his horse in the center of town last Sunday, an act which roused great indignation.

The stockholders of the Glendora Lumber Company elected F. H. Nofziger president; H. N. Nichols, secretary, and W. L. Howard, manager.

A. E. Davis has sold his twenty-acre orange ranch, with the residence on Grand avenue, to J. R. Laidlaw; consideration named, $13,000. Davis has made his home here a few years, but will remove to Pasadena.

SANTA MONICA.

BREAKERS BREAK LEG.

SANTA MONICA, Feb. 6.—The leg of a young Texan named Henry O'Connor was broken while he was at work on Arcadia beach. He was in the surf trying to save planks, piling and timbers as they were floated in by the tide. A large breaker rolled in upon him unawares and threw him down. A second comber rolled a heavy log upon him, breaking his leg between the knee and ankle. O'Connor is only about 17 years of age, and being short of funds, was sent to the County Hospital. He intended going to work today.

The heavy sea Saturday swept much valuable timber upon the beach, and the combers found profitable employment Saturday and Sunday in saving the wreckage, which sells readily as fuel.

The rainfall of yesterday and last night amounted to 1.65 inches, aggregating 3.16 for the storm. The total precipitation for the season up to this time is 8.75 inches.

ENGINEER IN A TIGHT PLACE.

PASSENGER TRAIN ON SANTA FE BUMPS INTO FREIGHT.

Open Switch Causes Wreck in the Yards at Redondo, Smashing Cars and Damaging Locomotive—Cab Partially Telescoped by Tender. Nobody Hurt.

REDONDO, Feb. 6.—Santa Fé passenger train No. 144, due in Los Angeles at 4.25, ran upon an open switch in the yards this afternoon as it was leaving for the city, and collided with a string of freight cars standing on the sidetrack. As a result the engine of the passenger was derailed and wrecked, and three box cars and a flat were smashed. Engineer J. A. Waite escaped without injury, though he found himself in an exceedingly tight place, the tender having partially telescoped the cab. The fireman probably owes his life to the fact that he was on the top of the tender at the time of the accident.

There was no engine on the freight train. The passenger engine bunted into the rear of a box car, smashing the end into kindling, and derailing the front trucks. The cowcatcher and headlight were demolished, and a great hole was battered in the front of the engine; one of the cylinderheads was torn off and the rods twisted and broken. Holes were torn in the boiler and oil tank.

The few passengers in the coach were severely shaken up. Blame for the accident has not yet been fixed.

SCHOOL BOARD HAVING SCRAP.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY TO INQUIRE INTO BONITA TROUBLES.

Stormy Sessions of Union District Trustees, Charges and Countercharges, and Action by Taxpayers to Have an Investigation—Friction Over Construction of the Building.

LORDSBURG, Feb. 6.—Trouble is brewing for the trustees of the Bonita Union High School, and Dist.-Atty. Federicks will make an investigation.

For some time the meetings of the trustees have been stormy. Charges and countercharges have been made by members, and this has culminated in a few of the taxpayers laying the subject before the District Attorney, who has promised to take a hand.

The Bonita Union High School district was formed two years ago and includes the three districts of San Dimas, Lordsburg and La Verne; a year ago $30,000 bonds were voted for the erection of a High School building, and it is in the construction of this that there has been so much friction.

M. L. Sparks of La Verne is president of the board, and while he enjoys the confidence of the people of his own district, it is claimed his relations with the other trustees have been anything but pleasant, and that he lacks tact to maintain harmony on the board.

The principal attack is against Frank H. Massey of Lordsburg, a contractor and prominent property owner. He was unanimously elected trustee by the people of his district, with whom he is popular.

E. H. Rose of Riverside is the contractor for the High School building, while F. A. Noyes of San Bernardino is his bondsman. The latter has also been superintending the construction for Rose. Three months ago Noyes employed Frank Massey to act as superintendent in his place, continuing in that position till a few weeks ago, when he found that it was in violation of the law for him to occupy the dual positions of trustee and superintendent of construction.

Several other charges have been brought up against Massey, but Massey and his friends claim that Sparks is at the bottom of all the agitation against him because Massey exposed the alleged dishonorable conduct of Sparks in ignoring the heavy taxpayers of his district and placing the insurance on the new building with a Pomona agent, Mr. Crabb, a Democratic friend of Sparks and indirectly financially interested with Sparks in some real estate investment, but whose name is not on the tax rolls of the Bonita district.

Massey courts the fullest investigation, and his friends say that apart from his holding the job of superintendent for a short time to oblige the bondsman, nobody can point to any dishonorable act.

Meantime the taxpayers await the result of the investigation with interest.

NEARLY THIRTEEN INCHES.

SIERRA MADRE, Feb. 6—In the last six days Sierra Madre has received over 12.84 inches of rainfall. Not much damage was caused to streets or property. Friday evening the Sierra Madre mail carrier had to make a detour of six or seven miles to get here from Santa Ana station, so great was the rush of the water at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Pool and daughter arrived from Boston and will pass a month here. They are friends of Capt. J. A. Osgood and wife.

Miss Decker of Illinois is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Stubbins.

Dr. A. J. Rust was called from the northern part of the State last week on account of the severe illness of his only son.

POMONA.

STEPS TOWARD MARMALADES.

POMONA, Feb. 6.—C. E. Rammage, George W. Hall and a number of prominent orange growers of this locality are organizing a stock company for the purpose of making marmalades and kindred by-products. The movement to start such an industry is considered of vast importance by the growers. It is claimed there is a ready market for marmadales if well made. The growers, if the business is carried out successfully, will be benefited mainly in two ways—they will receive returns for heretofore worthless culls, and fancier price for the packed fruit, as that can be more thoroughly graded and the poorer oranges kept out of the eastern market.

A meeting of the orange growers will be held at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Coöperative Hall to consider the matter.

The rain for the storm amounted to 5.34 inches; season, 11.63 inches.

James Root, convicted of illegally selling liquor in El Monte, will be sentenced by Justice Barnes Tuesday morning.

Revival services conducted by Dr. Albert E. Fitch and Gus Schneider are in full swing. This week will be the busiest since they commenced. A men's mass meeting was held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Dr. Fitch preaching on "The Devil's Coat of Arms." Noon prayer meetings will be held throughout the week at Armory Hall.

Co. D will produce the drama, "The Spy of Gettysburg," at Fraternal Aid Operahouse, Tuesday evening of next week. The proceeds will be used for the Armory being built by the company.

EVENTS IN SOCIETY.

CASA VERDUGO, at Glendale, the historic home of one of the old Spanish families of California before the gringo came with his Anglo-Saxon innovations and despoiled the land, was ablaze with light last night, while the thrum of guitars and mandolins pulsated on the air, as in the good old times of long ago. Strings of shining red peppers brightened the old adobe walls, both without and within, and were festooned about the gloomy rafters, while bunches of scarlet geraniums and poinsettias still further heightened the warm color effect. Seated about a table amid this scene of light and melody was a good company of fair women and gallant men, the like of which has not been assembled within those ancient walls since the once rich and proud Verdugo family dispensed open-handed hospitality there.

The guests to the number of about forty, were entertained by Mrs. Will E. Dunn and A. D. Schindler. The party left Los Angeles at 5 o'clock on a special car over the Pacific Electric road to Glendale. Upon arrival at the casa a splendid supper was served, the menu consisting of Spanish and Mexican dishes. There were enchiladas, tamales, frijoles, chiles estufados, chile con carne and other hot things in abundance. All through the dinner the Mexican orchestra discoursed Mexican and Spanish airs, and now and then in rich and mellow tones some caballero sang soft love songs in the liquid tongue of Castile. Later there were dances and singing.

At a late hour last night the company returned to the city, highly pleased with the original hospitality which they had shared.

Dinner for Visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rea Calender of No. 2313 South Hope street entertained informally at dinner last evening, complimentary to Miss Elizabeth C. Attrill of Goderich, Ont., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gilbert S. Wright, of No. 2077 Wilshire boulevard. The table was decked with cut flowers and ferns. Covers were laid for ten. This afternoon Mrs. Wright will entertain with an informal tea in honor of Miss Attrill.

THE SUNNY SOUTHLAND TRIO.

Visiting Bride and Groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Borden of No. 2328 South Hope street are entertaining Mrs. Borden's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Saunders, of New York City, who were married on January 18. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders will make their home in San Francisco.

Farewell Dinner.

Invitations have been issued by bachelor friends of John G. Mott, for a farewell dinner to be given at Hotel Angelus on Friday evening, February 17. Though Mr. Mott's fiancée, Miss Lila Fairchild, has been the object of much social attention, this is the first affair yet given for Mr. Mott.

From St. Paul.

Mrs. Madie Severance, a literary woman of St. Paul, Minn., has taken apartments at Hotel Van Nuys for a time. With her is Miss Katherine Gordon, a well-known soprano of St. Paul. They are here for a vacation and rest, and later will be the guests of Mrs. J. P. Jones of Santa Monica.

Informal Tea.

Mrs. Guy Cochran of Loma Drive entertained informally at the Country Club on Saturday afternoon with a tea for eight of her friends. The table was decorated with pink roses and ferns.

New Trio.

This evening Mrs. Vinton L. Mitchell of No. 943 Bonnie Brae street will entertain the members of the Leisure Hour Whist Club at her home. She will be assisted in entertaining by her daughters, the Misses Mitchell. During the evening music will be rendered by members of a new musical organization, "The Sunny Southland Trio," of which Mrs. Mitchell's daughter, Miss Ethel Pearl, is a member, playing the cornet. The other members are Misses Grace Adele Freebey, pianist, and Miss Alice Aylesworth, violinist. These girls are a talented trio, and already they have won much praise for their sweet music. Miss Mitchell has played in a number of charity concerts, as have the others.

Coming Events.

Miss Georgia Caswell of No. 865 West Twenty-third street will entertain with a luncheon on Friday of this week, complimentary to Mrs. Robert Farquar of Santa Monica, née Marian Jones, and Mrs. Alfred Sutro of San Francisco.

Mrs. George A. Caswell, Mrs. Rae Smith and Miss Caswell have issued cards for a tea to be given on the afternoon of February 18 at Mrs. Caswell's home, No. 865 West Twenty-third street.

Wedding Surprise.

Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schmidt of No. 1317 Pico street were invited to celebrate Mrs. Schmidt's birthday anniversary. The guests were surprised upon entering the home at being greeted with sweet music, and to find the home decked in bridal attire for a wedding. The entire house was hung with garlands of fluffy smilax, with here and there bunches of fragrant hyacinths set like stars among the greens.

With the sweet music came the fair bride, Miss Leah Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt, leaning on the arm of her father and met at the altar by the groom, George Michelson of Yuma. The service was the old Danish two-ring ceremony, performed by Rev. Will A. Knighten. The couple stood beneath a canopy of smilax and hyacinths caught with fetching bows of satin ribbons. The bride wore a handsome going-away gown of brown silk with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white carnations. Miss Isabelle Robson was maid of honor, and imported lace waist trimmed with hand work, and wore with it a silk skirt. She also carried white flowers. The best man was Hugo Schmidt, a brother of the bride. Directly after the service Miss Robson sang "O, Promise Me," and "With You," after which congratulations were received by the happy couple. A handsome supper was served in the dining-room, where the table glowed with gay lights and flowers. At one end of the table an American flag was set among a mass of hyacinths, while at the other the Danish emblem rested. In the center, upon a mirror, a low bowl of hyacinths and ferns rested, and love knots of white satin ribbon swung above the table.

After a short tour Mr. and Mrs. Michelson will go to Yuma, there to make their home, Mr. Michelson being a prominent banker of that place. This marriage was the consummation of a long romance. The bride has many friends in this city and is a handsome and accomplished girl. Only relatives were present at the ceremony, and included: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schmidt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. O. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. F. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schmidt, Mrs. Frank Williams, Misses Meta Schmidt, Ella Schmidt and Stella Schmidt, and Godfrey and Hugo Schmidt.

Reception for Mrs. Crawley.

Mrs. F. R. Frost entertained at the Country Club on Sunday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Constance Crawley of the Ben Greet Company. One hundred ladies of the club were invited to meet Mrs. Crawley, and the clubhouse presented a handsome appearance, decked with bright bowls of roses and greenery. Besides the ladies the entire Ben Greet Company were present, and a most enjoyable afternoon was the result.

Poinsettia Club.

Miss Cassa Bell of 2707 La Salle avenue entertained members of the West Adams Poinsettia Club recently. The rooms were decorated with the club colors, red and green, and whist was played. Later, the men found their partners for supper by means of small cards, and partook of refreshments in the dining-room from a long banquet table, which was gay with poinsettias and flying streamers of burnished ribbons. Later in the evening music was enjoyed, the Misses Althea Salyer, Hazel Ralphs and Cassa Bell contributing. Miss Althea Salyer and Walter Ralphs were awarded first prizes, and those present were: Hazel Ralphs, Lula Bonsack, Effie Ripley, F. Nichols, C. Doll, M. Bonsack, A. Salyer, L. Nichols, and Messrs. Fred Stuart, Frank Salyer, L. Harris, Jesse Sturgeon, Ray Harris, Walter Ralphs, Edward Nichols and George Clifford Bell. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Lalla Nichols, of No. 2921 La Salle avenue.

Announcements Issued.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Mrs. Ida Mae Bandhall and Albert C. Taylor, Monday, January 30. The cards were a surprise to all the friends, for though they were friendly no engagement had been suspected. The ceremony was performed by Rev. William Horace Day, with only relatives witnessing the nuptials. Both young people are well known in this city, and after a short wedding tour they will be at home to their friends at the Cumberland, No. 243 South Olive street.

Benefit Card Party.

Mrs. C. B. Nichols of No. 818 Lake street was hostess yesterday afternoon, entertaining with a card party for the benefit of the charity fund of the Robert E. Lee Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. She was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Benjamin F. Church, president of the chapter, Mrs. Wightman Smith and Mrs. A. W. Hutton. The house was prettily decorated for the party and scores were kept on heart-shaped cards adorned with hand-painted sketches of roses, the handiwork of Miss Hutton. Four beautiful prizes were given, and in the evening Dr. and Mrs. Nichols entertained again. In the afternoon about a hundred women were entertained, and in the evening nearly 150 men and women enjoyed cards.

Returns from Abroad.

Mrs. W. H. Bradley has returned from an eight months' tour through Europe, and is for the present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McFie of No. 1222 West Twenty-ninth street. Mrs. Bradley has many friends in Los Angeles who will be glad to know of her return.

Notes and Personals.

Mrs. Leo Barrett, daughter of Dr. J. Kelly Barrett of Winnipeg, Can., is visiting her mother at Yerby ranch, El Monte.

Miss Annis Van Nuys is spending a few weeks with friends in Redlands. She expected to return this week but was delayed on account of washouts along the line.

CAUGHT IN 'FRISCO.

Young Man Wanted Here on Charge of Felony Embezzlement Arrested in the North.

Lee H. Graham was arrested last night in San Francisco at the request of the Los Angeles Police Department, and today Detective Jones will go north to bring him back for trial.

The prisoner is charged with felony embezzlement, the complainant being George F. Harvat of No. 561 South Hope street, who swore out a warrant for his arrest. It is alleged that Graham collected about $200 while employed by Harvat, who is in the picture business, and failed to account for the money. The officers had been searching him for several days.
